EUGENIA

(Too late for last week.)
The beautiful summer weather still continues.
A large gathering of Pricerville young people picnicked on the grounds here on Thursday afternoon.

Dundalk people picnicked here one day last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker, of Kimberley, were the guests of Mrs. Tom Genoe over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickens, of Kimberley, were the guests of Mrs. H. Forster recently.
Mrs. Tom McKee is visiting with friends at Collingwood.

Mrs. P. Munshaw has returned from her visit in the city.
Eighth line and Eugenia baseball boys had their return game on the 17th. They scored 7-11 in favor of eighth line.

Mr. Karl Walker, of Flesher-ton, visited friends here over Sunday.
Miss A. Carson is home from the city for a visit.

Mrs. Park spent the past week at her father's, Pricerville.
The Garden Party held on the grounds on Friday was a good success. Ball game between Pricerton and Eugenia was a great interest, the score 3-3 in favor of Flesher-ton who won the prize. On account of the rain the game was late starting. A good concert was rendered in the evening consisting of vocal and instrumental music. Proceeds amounted to $51.25.

Miss Martha Fenwick entertained a number of young people to a birthday party on Saturday afternoon.
On Sabbath morning Mr. Alex. Carruthers gave an interesting report of the pre-assembly Conference held in Toronto in June. Rev. Mr. McVicar performed his first ordinance of baptism on the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Williams at the service.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Public Building, Hanover, Ont.," will be received until 10 P.M. on Monday, July 21st, 1913, for the construction of a Public Building at Hanover, Ont. Plans, specification and form of contract can be seen and forms of tender obtained on application to the Postmaster at Hanover, Ont., at the office of Mr. Thos. Hastings, Clerk of Works, Postal Station "F", Yonge St., Toronto, and at this Department.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed forms supplied, and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the name of the occupant, and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent (10 p.c.) of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the person tendering declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete work contracted for. If the tender is not accepted the cheque will be returned.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.
By order,
R. C. DESROCHERS,
Secretary,
Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, June 25th, 1913.

Newspapers will not be paid for this advertisement if they insert it without authority from the Department.—42596, 99-00

Auld Lang Syne

25 YEARS AGO
Items of General Interest from The Standard Files of July 12, 1888.

Markdale cheese factory has made the first sale of the season at 8 3-4.

Born—Haskett—In Markdale, on July 7, 1888, to Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Haskett, a son.

Miss Stuart, of Kingsville, formerly teacher in Markdale school, is visiting in town, the guest of Mrs. Turner.

Dr. McBride, of Toronto, arrived this week with his family and has commenced the practice of his profession among us.

A fine healthy mudturtle marbling down Toronto street on Tuesday morning was captured by Dr. Sproule. It is on exhibition at Manley's drug store.

Thos. Bradley, of Holland, fell from a building, which was being raised on the farm of Mr. Avison on Saturday last, a distance of 20 feet, sustaining serious injuries.

Master Johnnie Dupdas is home from Toronto Conservatory of Music after his first term. Johnnie is a genius in music and drawing and is making his mark in that line.

On Saturday last J. J. Irwin, veterinary surgeon, assisted by Will Lyons, student, removed from the throat of a horse belonging to John Henry a tumor which weighed nine ounces. The animal could not have long survived, as it was almost impossible to swallow food, but it is now entirely free from that difficulty.

On Sunday morning about four o'clock our citizens were aroused by the cry of fire when it was discovered the little frame building on the corner of Mill and Queen sts. was on fire. The building being wood and very dry there was no chance of staying the fiery elements. Mr. Dundas owned the building, while J. J. McKinnon occupied it as a harness shop.

ROCKLYN
(Special to The Standard.)
Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCullough spent Sunday at Cheseville as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Caesar.

Mrs. Henry Thompson is at present visiting friends at Banks. Mrs. Yonford, of Keady, is the guest of her sister, Miss Flora Irwin.

A number from here attended the W.M.S. meeting held at the home of Mrs. B. Langtree, of Fairmount Thursday last and enjoyed the splendid report their delegate, Mrs. E. J. Cook, brought from Toronto convention.

Mr. George Trickey and sister, Miss Gerlie, of Toronto, spent a few days last week at the parental home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McCullough and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. McCullough of Beaverville. Miss Hattie Stord, of Toronto, is the guest of her friend, Miss Alma Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould, of Riverview, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. R. Clugston, here.

Mr. Tom Gilray spent a couple of days last week in Seaford.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carney and family spent Sunday with Walters Falls friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Londry, of Beaver Valley, were guests of Dr. and Miss R. Glanfield one day last week.

PROTON STATION
(Special to The Standard.)
Mrs. Peter Pickett and little son, Bolton, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wright and family, Toronto, are holidaying with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Binnie, for a while.

Mr. Greenis, Orangeville, visited at Mr. Jos. Treilford's last week.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)
The Dominion Day celebration here was a great success. Ideal weather prevailed and immense throngs of interested visitors witnessed the splendid program of sports which was run off without a hitch.

In the forenoon the aquatic sports at Flesher's pond created much fun for the crowd. The two hundred yard swimming race was won by D. Matthewson, of Pricerville. Harry Carrington was second and Robt. Richardson third. In the duck race Reuben Cargo captured the bird which evaded its pursuers for some time and created much merriment in the crowd. Frank Thurston won the tub race, but was closely followed by Harry Frost. The suspended slippery pole over the pond was a tickler to walk and there were many tumbles into the water by the contestants before the flag was carried off by Geo. Patton.

The sports in the afternoon began on the Agricultural grounds with a baseball match between Kimberley and Flesher-ton teams. The latter won in a score of 21 to 20. Mr. Gillilan, of Markdale, was umpire.

The speeding was very fine and witnessed with intense interest. In the 2.25 A. E. Pilgrim's horse won 1st; J. L. McDonald's 2nd; W. Neely's 3rd.

In the 2.40 trot J. L. McDonald's won 1st; J. H. Hunter's 2nd and F. O. Cooper 3rd.

In the named race T. J. Fisher won 1st, with J. Teeter and L. Duckett a tie for second, and 3rd, J. Stafford fourth.

In the Committee race Mark Wilson was 1st and Chas. Richardson 2nd.

Boys' Race—Roy McAulley 1st, L. Lawrence 2nd.

Girls—Gladys Hazzard 1st, Belle Howard 2nd, Florence Richardson 3rd, Rene Cargo 4th.

The tug of war between East and West—Captains M. Stewart and W. Boyd, was won by the latter.

The concert at night was very successful. The entertainers, Mr. Dennis Hartone and Mr. Spencer comic, highly pleased the large audience from beginning to end of the programme. Miss Moore, of Dundalk, and Miss Mabel Boyd were the accompanists, and the latter with Mrs. Blackburn rendered two piano duets. Mr. M. K. Richardson presided. The receipts for the day were $412.00. Good music was furnished throughout the day by the home band assisted by members of Markdale and Dundalk bands.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Munroe, of Detroit, old residents of Flesher-ton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Christine, to Mr. N. Grant Currie, of Detroit, which took place at the home of the bride on July 2nd.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid are making improvements in the parsonage for the reception of the new minister's family to arrive this week. Rev. Mr. Dudgeon arrived on Saturday and in his inaugural sermon on Sunday morning made a very favorable impression on his congregation. The discussion was based on John 14: 8—"Show us the Father and it saith unto us."

Mr. Dudgeon is a clear and forcible speaker and has a good reputation as pastor and evangelical preacher.

The anniversary service in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday were very successful, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar, who preached excellent sermons to large congregations. The church was crowded in the evening when service in the Methodist church was withdrawn and the pastor and his people fraternized with the Presbyterians. Mr. R. Wilcock assisted the choir. Rev. Mr. McVicar, who was called here three months ago, is an energetic pastor and his work is being much appreciated by his congregations.

Master Kendall, the nine-year-old son of W. J. Boyd, was upset from a hand wagon on the street on Monday and sustained a bad fracture of the right arm at the elbow, which was reduced by Dr. Carter, assisted by Dr. Lane, of Pricerville. About sixteen months ago Kendall met with a fracture of the same arm.

The Misses M. and Miss Mabel Bunt and Miss Maud Boyd, chap crowned by Mr. and Mrs. Holland, are on a camping holiday at Eugenia.

Miss Mary Wilson, teacher, leaves this week to holiday for a few weeks with her brothers at Toronto and Gravenhurst.

Miss Andrew and Miss Long, milliners, are off this week on their holidays.

Mr. Russell Curry and Miss Jessie Curry, of Durham, were the guests of the Misses Armstrong on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Goff, of Clarksburg, visited her mother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, on Saturday.

Among the holiday visitors here last week were Mrs. Legard, sr., Jos. Legard and friend, Mr. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Legard, Will and Ed. Bentham, Mr. Webb, Mr. Weatherston, Arthur Wardrobe, George Richardson and Elywin Jamieson, from Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. LeGard, Chicago; Harold Karstedt, Shelburne, and Wilfred Henry, Orangeville.
