UNION HILL

(Special to The Standard.)

Wedding bells are faintly tinkling. Rev. W. W. Wallace, of Markdale, made pastoral calls in this vicinity last week.

Mr. R. R. Flarity, of Owen Sound, called on his friend, Mr. Jas. McFadden, last Friday.

Mr. Ernest Walker, of Renown, Sask., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker, "Primrose Farm," recently.

Mr. Thos. Smart, of Kimberley, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clarke on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen, sr., of Flesherton, visited recently with their friends in this vicinity.

Mr. John Preistly and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Braddock, P.A., visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Preistly, recently.

Our popular butcher, Mr. J. H. Johnston, of Markdale, purchased some fine choice beef cattle in our village on Monday.

Miss Sadie Smart, of Kimberley, is holidaying with her cousins, Misses S. and B. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Ritchie, Pleasant Valley.

We had quite an exciting time here on Monday by a fire started in Mr. Jas. McFadden's swamp. A spark from a C.P.R. engine soon had a mass of flames, as every thing is so dry. A field of grain nearby was in great danger, but by the assistance of willing neighbors was saved. As yet no serious damage is done. Methinks the engineer must not be up to his job as there were several other fires started along the line that day.

BARRHEAD

(Special to The Standard.)

Mrs. Herb Smith and children, of Toronto, are visiting with the former's brother, Mr. Alex. Ferguson.

Mr. Wm. Byers is visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Mathews. He brought with him a pair of goats and a double pawed cat. The cat is yellow and white with blue eyes, and has four legs with two paws on each leg.

Miss May Ferguson, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Smith, visited with Miss Leila Pedlar, Markdale.

Mr. Richard Wood, a farmer of Melancthon township, lost two valuable stallions recently. Paris green was found in their feed box, but thus far the authorities have failed to place the responsibility.
