Mr. Baines Replies.

Editor Markdale Standard.— My attention has been called to a letter in The Standard of the 17th inst. written by the Nelly Rogers Land Co. of Winnipeg, referring to an interview given, by me printed in your paper of the 4th Sept. regarding conditions in the West. The facts set out in the interview are true and any person who doubts them for one moment can have them verified by reading the crop reports in the daily papers of Ontario. I have no desire to have a newspaper controversy over the matter and will be pleased if you will insert this letter of mine to show the public that I am not anxious to start a fight over a condition of affairs that any person can find out the truth about if they desire to do so. I might further say that if any person wishes to find out the facts regarding the crops and conditions in the West at any time I will be pleased to show them the reports of the Royal Commission appointed to investigate conditions in the West.
 Yours truly,
 John R. Baines.

Workers or Shirkers.

Those dairy farmers who are carefully noting the total production of each of their cows for the season are finding some differences.
 For instance, in one Ontario herd the yield of a 9-year-old heifer that freshened March 5th was 4, 080 pounds of milk up to the end of July; her stable mate, also 9 years old that freshened March 12, receiving the same feed and care gave only 2,970 pounds of milk.
 Over half a ton of milk in that short period indicates a considerable difference in income between the two cows.

In another herd at the same factory between two six-year-olds that calved April 3rd and 4th, there is a difference of 60 pounds of fat up to the end of July. This means a difference of fourteen and fifteen dollars that one cow earned more than the other. Are our cows workers or shirkers? Dairy records alone will provide the means of ascertaining these facts beyond question. Forms for weighing milk either daily, or once three days per month, are supplied free by the dairy division, Ottawa. In your letter of application state which you want.
