PERSONAL

Miss Ketta Kelley spent the week end in Toronto.

Miss Johnson, of Shelburne, visited Miss Hume in town from Friday until Monday.

Miss Clara Hulce, of Flesherton, was the guest of Miss Minnie Douglas over Sunday.

Harvest Home Services.

The Harvest Home Services in Christ Church last Sunday were attended by large congregations, the numbers being even in excess of last year.

The church was most tastefully decorated with grain and flowers, and presented an even more beautiful appearance than in former years.

BARRHEAD

(Special to The Standard.)

Mr. Leonard Averill, of Stroud, Ont., visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Miss Averill.

Mr. Lyall Mathewson has returned from the city.

Mrs. Wm. Johnston and children returned to their home in Toronto, after spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mathewson.

Death of John Orr.

The passing of Mr. John Orr, of Glenelg, removes another pioneer from this neighborhood.

Mr. Orr was born in Donegal, Ireland, on April 1st, 1828. He was married in the Old Land to Miss Eliza Neithercott, who predeceased him ten years ago.

No More Scarlet Tunics.

Next year the Thirty-First Regiment will go into camp with brand new drab uniforms. It has been decided to do away with the red coats entirely and the local officers of the regiment have received instructions to send in their requisition for the new uniforms.

Armoury Opened.

The formal opening of the Armoury on Tuesday evening was largely attended and proved a decided success.

The spacious hall was tastefully decorated with red, white and blue, and brilliantly lighted.

Kimberley.

Quite a number from here attended the Rocklyn Fair on Friday last.

The attendance was large but the exhibits were not up to former years.
