Items of General Interest from The Standard Files of Nov. 8, 1888.

The "Zoo" at Toronto is bankrupt.

Dr. McBride has removed to Reynolds' house, south of the Methodist Church.

Wm. Norton, of Holland, has taken $118.75 in prizes at the fall fairs this season.

J. E. Marsh is having the roller rink put in excellent shape for public entertainments. It will seat 500.

Bertie Wilson, a boy of three years, fell down a flight of stairs on Friday, disfiguring one side of his face badly.

Haskett Bros. block comprises Haskett's hardware store; Miss Burch, millinery and fancy goods; Breadner's jewelry store; and Benson's grocery and liquor store.

Matrimony seems to be contagious about Kimberley. Wm. Fawcett last week took unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Cornfield, and Archibald McLean has united with Mrs. Wickens for better or for worse. And still there's more to follow.

Mr. Geo. Mathers, carriage maker, of Stayner, was so favorably impressed with our town when here two weeks ago that he determined to locate here and has leased the wood department of Mr. John McKenna's carriage block. He is an industrious, practical mechanic, and we wish him every success.

On Friday last while Greenaway's threshing machine was working at Mr. John Sargent's, near Holland Centre, Mr. S. was working near the tumbling shaft when the coupling caught on his pantleg, throwing him down and tearing the leg of the trousers off. John was surprised how quickly it did its work, but he escaped injury.
