No. 1132, 4th line, Ardenia, celebrated the anniversary of the Gun-Powder Plot with their annual hunting competition during the day and fowl supper at night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fisher, where an enjoyable time was spent. Messrs. Lou and Robt. Hill were the captains of the hunting parties, the former's side winning with about forty-five points. The losing side paid for the supper of the two teams.

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute on the afternoon of the 5th inst. the program was made interesting with an excellent address given by Principal White.

DUNDALK

Dundalk Methodist Church anniversary services on Sunday will be long remembered by those who were present and were privileged to hear Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Centennial Church, Toronto, who preached both in the morning and evening. A peculiar feature of the services was the absence of any appeal for funds. Money was not mentioned although Thank-offering envelopes were in the pews for any who might wish to contribute. The contributions and loose collections for the day amounted to $105.

Mr. John L. McDonald, of Pricerville, has been engaged by the Trustees to take charge of the second term in the Public School. This is the form presided over for a number of years by Miss Jean Moore, who was so unfortunate as to sustain a badly shattered arm, by falling from a step-ladder, while picking fruit at her home in Hamilton, N.Y., during the holidays. Since the beginning of the current term and up to this week Miss Elsie Duncan has had charge of the form. Miss Moore's friends regret very much her misfortune and her inability to resume her duties.

A new C.P.R. station and better platform accommodation are necessities at Dundalk. The Board of Trade should point out to the railway authorities the danger that passengers encounter in passing from the waiting room to the platform. The way is all but blocked by commercial baggage on the platforms. Then freight cars are very often standing at the freight shed doors, leaving but a narrow passage between these and the passenger coaches. Those coming off the train and those going on meet in this narrow passage, sometimes causing a complete blockade. A couple of recent accidents on the platforms would make the present a fitting time to approach the railway authorities for the needed improvements.—Herald.

DURHAM

Mr. Fred McClocklin, who was seriously injured a few weeks ago in Dundalk, was removed to his home in Holstein last Friday. He is recovering nicely, but it will be a couple of months before he can walk.

On Friday of last week, while Mr. Alex. Rutherford was driving down the Durham hill, the breaching broke, and the horse became a little frisky. After jumping to the side of the road, Alex. thought it was best to jump, and let the horse go. When near the Midchurch House the horse slipped on the cement crossing and suddenly fell and was then easily captured. There wasn't much damage done. The Rev. J. A. Robinson, M.A., rector of Clarksburg, who has been appointed by the Bishop of Huron Inspector of the Anglican Sunday schools in Grey Denary, met with the teachers and officers of Trinity and St. Paul's Sunday Schools on Wednesday evening of last week. Mr. Robinson in his address dealt with the various departments of a well organized Sunday school and gave many valuable suggestions of methods which have been tested and given good results in increasing the efficiency and interest of Sunday school work. His visit will no doubt prove a good help and inspiration to the work in this end of the denary. He will again be in this parish early in the new year.—Chronicle.

CLARKSBURG

On Sunday last two young men employed at Clarksburg, one from Collingwood, the other from Stayner, desecrated the Sabbath, and violated the law, by going shooting, as near as can be learned along the shore below Thornbury. During their meanderings they came across two other young men also desecrating and violating, and thereby hangs a tale, for while standing and talking one of the two strangers loaded his rifle with a bird-shot shell and as soon as the shell was inserted the rifle accidentally went off, lodging the entire contents in the instep of the Stayner young man's right foot. It is a very unfortunate affair for the young man, as he has a bad foot, and likely to have for some time.—Review.

MEAFORD

Death removed two of St. Vincent's highly respected pioneers last week in the persons of George Ellis and John Moffat.

There is some person or persons on the 9th line, St. Vincent, who is or are paving the way for a sojourn in "Kingston" or within the four walls of some similar institution, probably not quite so far away. For a long time past a large number of articles have been missing in this part of the township, and up to the time of writing no clue of the guilty ones has been found. The farms of Messrs. W. D. Robertson and Wm. Sewell have been visited only recently and fruit, preserves and other moveable stuff carted away. A Mr. Clark has also had some grain stolen to this fall and no attempt seems to be made to apprehend those guilty of such depredations. Whether the residents along the line know where their stuff is going we are not prepared to say, but there is no little said about it, that it makes us think there is a nigger in the fence. This form of pilfering is an old pastime with those who would sooner make hay in the dark than when the sun shines.—Express.

SHELBURNE

Dr. H. D. Thompson, of Shelburne has sold his practice and property here to Dr. R. E. Davis, of Hornings Mills, who has taken possession. Dr. Thompson succeeded the late Dr. A. T. Steele, who succeeded the late Dr. Norton, in 1903.

The Post Office.—The sub-contractors of the stone and brick work of the new post office building came down from Owen Sound on Monday to finish up the work on the basement and put on the joists. When that is done no more work will be done on the building until spring. Rushing Things.—Geo. Leitch, of Hornings Mills, who has charge of the new St. Paul's Anglican church building, is rushing the work these days. He has seven men engaged and the floors are nearly laid and he expects to have the entire work completed as far as he is concerned on Dec. 1st. It is a very handsome and neat structure and will be a credit to the members of the church.—Free Press.

OWEN SOUND

The deputation from North Grey, which interviewed Premier Whitney and his colleagues on Tuesday afternoon with regard to the cash subsidy for the Owen Sound and Meaford railway, came back greatly pleased with the result of their visit and hopeful and confident that their request will receive favorable attention from the Government at the coming session of the Legislature.

An important step was taken by the Board of Education on Friday evening when it was decided to engage a school nurse for the Owen Sound Schools.

Very sudden was the death on Saturday last of Mr. John Wallace of "Dundalk," formerly of Owen Sound, which occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Norman McAuley, 301 Fifth St. E. Mr. Wallace came on a visit the previous Monday intending to spend the winter here and was in his usual good health. On Saturday, however, he took ill and passed away very suddenly. He was seventy-six years of age and was born in Ireland. In religion he was a Presbyterian. The funeral took place on Monday at Dundalk cemetery. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. N. McAuley and Miss Margaret Wallace, of Owen Sound, and Mrs. Jas. Wellwood and Mrs. F. R. Hurlbut, of Dundalk.

A Creed.

Let me be a little kinder Let me be a little blinder Let me be a little kinder Let me be a little blinder Let me praise those about me, Let me be when I am weary Just a little bit more cheery, Let me serve a little better Those that I am striving for. Let me be a little braver When temptation makes me waver, Let me strive a little harder To be all that I should be, Let me be a little meeker, Let me think more of my neighbor And a little less of me. Let me be a little sweeter Make my life a bit completer By doing what I should do Every minute of the day. Let me toil without complaining, Not a humble task disdainning, Let me face the summons calmly When death beckons me away. James McKinnon, 4th line, east, Caledon, has harvested 2000 bags of potatoes from 104 acres of land. This is a record yield for this year, as generally speaking the crop has been light owing to the dry season.
