Simple--Brown.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, "Springbrook Farm" on Wednesday, November 27th, when their eldest daughter, Catherine Violet, became the bride of Mr. James Alexander Semple, of Euphrasia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. M. Phelan. Promptly at the hour appointed the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch of ferns and roses and the wedding bell. The "Wedding Bell" march was played by Miss Dorothy MacFadden, friend of the bride, dressed in black velvet with white lace collar and cuffs, and blue trimmings. The bride was gowned in white satin paillette de cheve with pearl garniture and pearl trimmings and carriage of white roses and maiden hair fern. The bride received many useful and beautiful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver mantice set, and to the organist a gold bar with any amethyst setting.

The bride's suit was of navy blue serge with cream serge collar and cuffs and navy blue hat with white ostrich band caught under with silk rose.

The day was spent most enjoy-ably by all present, the guests numbering about sixty.

Mr. B. Walters, near Walters Falls, harvested over 4000 bushels of turnips from 6 acres.

The new brick church on the 6th line, Glenelg, "Zion," will be formally opened on Sunday, Dec. 2.

Thos. Edwards has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Markdale via Lauriston to Traverston for the coming four years.

Geo. Pereira, cabinet maker, formerly of Holland Centre and more recently of Warton, was sold out at the latter place by the sheriff recently.

A few persons: Angus McDuff is home on a visit; Kate McDuffie is home from Hamilton; Miss Stephen, of Stayner, is visiting her brother, R. L.

Mr. E. G. Lucas, manager of the Lucas' private banking institution in Dundalk, was married on Oct. 31st to Miss Hattie Dean, of Toronto. They left on the evening train on a honeymoon trip to the West.

On Monday last while out fowling, James Wright, jr., of Holland, near Berkeley, was accidentally shot in the face by his companion who was shooting at a partridge on the wing. Wright will lose one eye if not both, it is feared.

Our highly respected townsmen, Mr. A. Turner, late of the Markdale Medical Hall, has purchased a similar business in Orangeville, and is now in that town getting business arranged to move thither. Mr. Turner is a thoroughgoing business man of which any town may be proud.

When returning from Meaford on the night of the 30th ult., Mr. E. Hicks' team took fright at a pole lying across the roadway, and ran home. Mr. Hicks was promptly thrown overboard. The other occupants of the democrat, Miss Abercrombie and Miss Hicks, jumped out. All escaped uninjured, and no damage resulted.

FLESHERTON

(Intended for last week.)
After many years of illness, borne with great fortitude and Christian resignation, Mrs. Thomas Bentham passed peacefully away at her late home at Chatsworth on Tuesday, Nov. 18th, aged 57 years. The remains were brought to Flesher-ton to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bentham where thirty-one years ago she deceased, whose maiden name was Lesia Charlton, was married to her surviving husband, who devoted all his energies for her comfort and restoration to health during the fifteen years she was an invalid. On Friday afternoon the remains were laid at rest in the public cemetery here. Service was held at the house, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. Mr. Owen, who preached an impressive sermon from Isa 53: 7. The text, which had been chosen by her, and her favorite hymns were sung. Mr. Owen paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased, who had been for many years a faithful member of the Methodist Church, a saintly woman, whose godly life was an influence for good in the community. Though confined to her home Mrs. Bentham was deeply interested in the church and for some time had greatly enjoyed the services of the sanctuary by phone kindly installed by her young friends in the church, in token of their love and sympathy. Among those from outside who attended the funeral were Messrs. John and Robert Weir, of Singshampton; Mrs. Pearce, of Chatsworth, and Mr. Ed. Bentham, Toronto. Mr. Bentham has the deep sympathy of many friends here in his bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Julian, of Faversham, have become residents here, occupying Mr. Shakleford's residence on Collingwood street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart have moved to their residence in the village and Mr. J. Stewart, who recently purchased their farm, has moved to it.

Master Jimmie, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart, fell through an opening in the barn loft last week and sustained severe injuries in one shoulder and arm. Dr. Carter was called, but fortunately found no bones broken.

Mrs. Flynn was called to Toronto last week by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Storey, who underwent an operation in the hospital for appendicitis. She is now reported improving.

Mr. James Cargo, who has been very ill for several months, with stomach trouble, has gone to the city this week for treatment in the hospital. We trust to hear good reports.

Rev. W. A. Sinclair, who underwent a severe operation in Toronto last week for removal of growths in the head, is, we are

The world of music--what a gift

Suppose you should wake up Christmas morning to find that some one had put the world of music in your stocking.

That's precisely what you can do for any member of your family, or any of your friends, if you give an Edison Phonograph

The new types, without horns, are especially popular just now. They are made in artistic designs from a variety of beautiful woods. The one shown here is particularly noteworthy. It is called the Amberline VII. It plays the new Blue Amberline records, with all their remarkable beauty of tone and volume, with all the range of programs. It is fitted with the standard reproducing points that give clean, clear and sweet sound. An Edison is a permanent gift--one that will be a lasting pleasure for years to come. Can you imagine a more practical gift--or one that will bring more real delight to those you love?

BEAVERDALE
(Special to The Standard.)
Lovely weather at time of writing. It will certainly shorten the winter.
Mrs. R. Mathers returned home on Saturday, after spending a fortnight with friends in Alliston.
Mr. C. Fothergill was much pleased to have the roof of his barn finished on Saturday.
Mr. Ed. Fothergill is going to start farming for a change. He has taken Mrs. T. Brett's farm to work on shares for the coming year.
Rev. J. Horsford did not get here on Sunday night, so we had no service.
Mr. Wallace Brett took a business trip to Menford on Tuesday. Mr. Hugh Baird lost a valuable horse on Sunday last.
Mrs. S. Wilson, and her daughter, Mrs. R. Clarke, went to Owen Sound last week. Mrs. Clark intended having an operation on her eye.
Mrs. John Miller is confined to her bed, but we hope she will soon be able to be around again.
We hear that Mr. Tom Harvey has taken the contract of carrying the mail for the next four years. We hope those that were so anxious for a change will keep the roads broken for him, or he will get stuck in a snow drift some time and stay there.
Mr. Wm. Pedwell, the well known Owen Sound lumberman, is cutting a sawmill on the farm of Wm. Davidson, near Faversham. Mr. Pedwell has purchased a large amount of lumber in that neighborhood.
