THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, FEBRUARY 1. Lesson V. The Unfriendly Neighbor. Luke 11, 1-13. Golden Text, Luke 11, 9.

Verse 1. As he was praying—The passage suggests that the disciples were so much impressed with the prayer of Jesus that they asked to be taught how to pray. The name of their spokesman in this instance is not given.

John also taught his disciples—Of the form taught by John the Baptist nothing is known.

1. Father—Notes the difference between the opening of this prayer and that of Old Testament prayers. In the Old Testament God is seldom spoken of as a Father, and never in reference to the nation (Deuter. 32, 6; Jer. 3, 3, 4, 10; 31, 9).

2. Give us—The tense of this verb indicates continued action, meaning continually give us.

3. Forgive us—The word translated "debt" appears here first in Greek literature and its origin and exact meaning are unknown.

4. Forgive us—The word translated "debt" appears here first in Greek literature and its origin and exact meaning are unknown.

5. And bring us not into temptation—Matthew adds to this petition the words "that will lead us not into temptation."

6. Forgive us—The word translated "debt" appears here first in Greek literature and its origin and exact meaning are unknown.

7. Trouble me not—The selfish neighbor does not object to lending the loaves, but does not wish to be disturbed.

8. Because of his importunity—The man is selfish enough to object to being troubled at night by his neighbor, but is in need, but responds because of continued urging.

9. Knock—The verbs are present imperative and mean "continue" asking, seeking, knocking. Jesus taught that men should always make known their wishes to the heavenly Father and wait patiently for the answer to their prayers.

10. Knock—The verbs are present imperative and mean "continue" asking, seeking, knocking. Jesus taught that men should always make known their wishes to the heavenly Father and wait patiently for the answer to their prayers.
