Diamond Wedding at Chatsworth

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Winter Celebrate Unique Event.

On the afternoon of Tuesday, February 3rd, the home of Warden and Mrs. Breese, Chatsworth, was the scene of a very unique event, being the celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the marriage of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Winter. Statistics tell us such an event comes to only one couple in every eleven thousand. A reception was held from three to five-thirty p.m., when, about seventy of their riends took advantage of the occasion to call and offer congratulations. door was opened by little Eva Carson, dressed in cream and pale blue and the guests were ushered into the spacious drawing room which was beautifully decorated with tulips, lilies of the valley and other flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Winter were assisted in receiving by the hostess, Mrs. Breese, gowned in amethyst velvet with point lace and Mrs. Charlton, in sage green satin. The bride looked very quaint and sweet in black silk with touches of mauve and real lace dollar and carried a shower, bouquet of white and pink roses; the gift of the groom. After a little chat with the bride and groom, Mrs. H. Crowther, beautifully gowned in blue silk with touches of Persian silk, and lace invited the guests to the tea room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow. The table was centred with the wedding cake on a cluny lace centre and from the chandelier were streamers of yellow ribbon to the four corners of the table which was lighted with unshaded yellow candles in pierced brass candlesticks.
A provision of daffodds made the room bright and springlike. Tea was served by a cousin of the groom, Miss Kemps of Owen Sound becomingly gowned in black paillette with Duchesse lace and amethysts, assisted by Mrs. Tindale, in blue silk; Mrs. Will Winter in white embroidered voile, with touches of pale green and Miss II. E. Breese in plum colored velvet. During , the reception the wedding A. Erskine, and presentation made. march was softly played by Miss Dear Father and Mother:— . H. Tindale. Mr. Winter was born in Barnstaple, England, in the county of Devon, in 1830, and came to Canada in 1848, living for six years on a farm on the lake shore line about five miles from Owen Sound, which at that time was practically solid swamp, there being only a post office, Corbett's hotel and a few seattered houses. In 1854, he married Helen Taylor, daughter of Daniel Taylor, of An-
