SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER.

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.

If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, and feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs; with references to Canadian ladies who gladly tell how they have regained health, strength, and happiness by its use. I want to tell you all about this successful method of home treatment for yourself, my reader, for your daughter, your sister, or your mother. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home at trifling cost, and without aid from anyone. Men cannot understand women's sufferings; what we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor; and thousands have proved there is hope even for the hopeless in my method of home treatment. If you suffer from pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging down sensations, falling or displacement of internal organs, bladder irritation with frequent urination, obstinate constipation or piles, pain in the sides regularly or irregularly, bloating or unnatural enlargements, catarrhal conditions, dyspepsia, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling up the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion, with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast or a general feeling that life is not worth living, I invite you to send to-day for my complete ten days' treatment entirely free and postpaid, to prove to yourself that these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at your own home, without the expense of hospital, treatment, or the dangers of an operation. Women everywhere are escaping the surgeon's knife by knowing of my simple method of home treatment, and when you are cured, my sister, I shall only ask you to pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for all,—young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures green-sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women, and restores them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember it costs you nothing to give my method of home treatment a complete ten day's trial, and if you wish to continue, it costs only a few cents a week to do so, and it does not interfere with one's daily work. Is health worth asking for? Then accept my generous offer, write for the free treatment suited to your needs, and I will send it in plain wrapper by return mail. To save time you can cut out this offer, mark the places that tell your feelings, and return to me. Write and ask for the free treatment to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address:

TWO MEN SHOT DEAD.

Fatal Fight Occurred After a Public Dance.

A despatch from North Bay says: Woman River, a small hamlet on the Canadian Pacific Railway main line, 200 miles west of North Bay, was the scene of a tragic shooting affray Friday night, which resulted in two men being shot to death. A public dance was being held, and it is said that considerable liquor was consumed by the male dancers, with the result that a free fight occurred. John Chapman of L'Original, Ont., and Ossinee Fortin, of Woman River, drew guns and began shooting at each other. Both men were shot dead.

LONDON STILL BUYS BIRDS.

Ladies' Hats Still Ornamented by Feathered Songsters.

In the great London market, the sale of birds and plumage still goes on. A recent report says that in February 24,800 humming bird skins were sold, and that, taken in large lots, they only cost two cents each. In three London sales, 223,490 birds were sold. Egrets are still most fashionable, notwithstanding the agitation of bird lovers. Of these, 129,168 were sold. The beautiful bird of paradise is in danger of becoming extinct, the milliners buying 21,698 of their skins.

The United States will not allow the importation of the plumage of any wild bird, and the British Parliament is sure, it is believed, to pass the plumage bill. Already it has passed its second reading almost without opposition.

A campaign has been started in Europe by James Buckland, who believes that many insect pests would be exterminated if women would stop wearing plumage in their hats and if small boys would stop shooting them.

It appears that the dealers in plumage are threatening to boycott the ostrich trade, but this has no effect on the advocates of the plumage bill in England. In this matter women have not done what they might. There would have been no need for legislation had any considerable number of ladies in any country refused to wear the feathers of wild birds.

Nervous Emotional Dizzy Depressed ?

Mrs. Addie Carlsbaer of Cedar St., Cairo, Ill., writes Dr. Pierce as follows:

"I send 31 cents for your 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' for my daughter who has recently married and I know the book will be of much value to her. I have read and used for 25 years the valuable treatments contained in the 'Medical Adviser' and have taken many bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and have been restored to health each time I used it. It is a great remedy for women as a strength builder, fine for the nerves and general health."

WOMEN who are restless, with constant change of position, "fidgetiness," who are abnormally excitable or who experience fainting or dizzy spells, or nervous headache and wakefulness are usually sufferers who can be helped.

DR. PIERCE'S

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL STUDY

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, MAY 24.

Lesson VIII. Unprofitable Servants. Luke 17. 1-10. Golden Text, 1 Cor. 1. 31.

Verse 1. Occasions of stumbling—Stumbling means literally "being ensnared or entrapped." Here it refers to the errors in conduct due to the following of unworthy examples.

2. One of these little ones—It is not likely that Jesus meant by these little ones all the disciples, but rather the more inconspicuous ones among his hearers—those young in the faith, or possibly the children. In Matthew and Mark this verse follows the incident of the children being brought to Christ. But if Jesus referred primarily to the children, his words would also include those not well grounded in the faith, or those who, because of lack of experience and inability to judge between the true and the false, would be easily led astray.

3. If thy brother sin, rebuke him—The sin is not to be passed over unnoticed lest "thou bear sin because of him" (Lev. 19. 17). While one should bear in mind that a rebuke that will help and not embitter the offender must be very wisely and tactfully administered, Jesus certainly meant to teach the disciples that Christians should neither be indifferent nor act as if unconcerned in the presence of wrongdoing.

If there is a connection between this verse and the two preceding, it is to be found in the charity which should be manifested toward those who sin against us, contrasted with the severity with which we should deal with ourselves if we should sin against others. Jesus expected his disciples to conduct severe and thorough self-examinations (compare Matt. 5. 29). These should not make them indecisive in action, nor cause them to become less confident and aggressive in their work; he wished, rather, to train Christian character which would be strong enough to bear discipline and to improve with wholesome criticism.

If he repent, forgive him—Forgiveness without repentance is not required, though the teaching of Jesus throughout regarding malice and vengeance shows plainly that a Christian cannot harbor an unforgiving spirit nor continually bear ill will toward another.

4. Seven times in the day—This number recalls Peter's question, "How oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him?" to which Jesus replied, "Until seventy times seven," though the numbers are not to be taken literally. Unlimited forgiveness is meant.

5. Increase our faith—The high standard of Christian character to which Jesus urged his followers no doubt caused them to feel their imperfections and limitations, and they were impelled to ask again that their faith might be increased.

6. The words of this verse are closely connected in thought with those of Matt. 17. 20, 21. On that occasion Jesus referred to the removal of a mountain, here to a tree. Matthew connects the saying of Christ with the question of the disciples as to the cause of their inability to cure the epileptic, the meaning in both instances being that the seemingly impossible can be accomplished through faith.

A grain of mustard seed—A very small seed (Mark 4. 31).

Sycamine—The word, translated sycamine means in modern Greek a mulberry tree, but in the Septuagint, or earliest Greek translation of the Bible, this word is used for the fig tree. It seems likely, therefore, that the fig tree is meant here.

7. Who is there of you—These words were no doubt addressed to a large audience many of whom owned slaves.

A servant—A bondservant or slave.

Plowing or keeping sheep—These occupations are probably mentioned because they are the two most common forms of farm work in Palestine.

8, 9. In this reference to the treatment of slaves, Jesus was merely mentioning the common customs of the people of Palestine, familiar to all his hearers. That different customs, including greater sympathy and appreciation and less class distinction, will prevail in his kingdom is shown in the parable of Luke 12. 37, in which the master himself served. Jesus also emphasized the lesson of friendliness and equality when he washed his disciples' feet.

10. Unprofitable servants — Not worthless, but having done only their duty. Queen Eleanor of Bulgaria was praised for her intimate personal acquaintance with the work of the schools, hospitals, and other philanthropic institutions of her country. She replied: "I deserve no credit for this. It is my duty." This verse does not reflect God's attitude toward his faithful servants, but rather the attitude we should take toward our service. The work of the Kingdom cannot be properly done unless we who pray for the coming of that Kingdom are willing to meet its hardest demands in a spirit of heroic patience. It is encouraging to note the increasing number of Christ's followers who exemplify this spirit.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it

STORMY TIMES ON PACIFIC.

Europeans and Asiatics May Meet In Deadly Struggle.

A despatch from Auckland, New Zealand, says: Sir Ian Hamilton, speaking on Tuesday, said that despite its charming name the Pacific is, if anything, destined to be more stormy than other more or less distinguished parts of the globe. "Whilst we deplore such a contingency," he said, "it is conceivable that in the future there will be greater and more terrible convulsions than in the past. The Pacific is the meeting ground, not of nations, but of continents, and here might be decided whether Asiatics or Europeans shall guide the destiny of this planet."

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

The Obliging Papa.

Youth Wilmarth sought an interview with Mr. Carpenter.

"I'd like," said the young man nervously, "to marry your daughter, sir."

"Well, I've got six," responded the obliging father. "Take all you want."

FREE OF ALL THREE DISEASES

"Fruit-a-tives" Brought Him Perfect Health

AVON, ONT., May 14th, 1913.

"I am younger since I have been taking "Fruit-a-tives". I was troubled very badly with Piles, Constipation and Stomach Disorder, but I found "Fruit-a-tives" was the panacea for the whole three.

Now I am free of all these diseases and enjoying perfect health, and able to work whenever I like. Five years ago, I started taking "Fruit-a-tives"; I took two every night and they worked wonders for me.

No other medicine I could get was so good and I took lots of different remedies before I found out how good "Fruit-a-tives" were.

I keep "Fruit-a-tives" on hand all the time, and am never without them. I even take them with me when I go motoring, so I can have them handy. "Fruit-a-tives" are worthy of every good word I can say about them. The fact that they cured me of Piles, was something to be everlastingly thankful for"

The decorating of your walls is quite a problem. You want them to be pleasing in color and appearance so as to make a suitable background for your furniture and pictures.

So the ideal wall finish should be artistic in texture and coloring, absolutely sanitary, and capable of being cleaned if necessary with soap and water—and durable—to avoid a too frequent expense for redecorating.

Wall papers do not meet all these requirements, the patterns and designs fade, the papers themselves collect dust and germs and cannot be properly cleaned. Sanitary experts have proven that any kind of wall paper is unsanitary, and the custom of applying new paper over the old, affords a breeding place for germs.

Kalsomine and other water paints, while clean and sanitary, have not the necessary permanency. They need frequent renewal and often rub off on ones clothing—smudges and finger marks cannot be washed off satisfactorily.

The product that meets every requirement is Sherwin-Williams Flat-tone, a durable, flat-drying oil paint made in a variety of twenty-four beautiful shades, the selection of expert decorators. This finish can be washed with soap and water, and will last for years.

Come and see us about S-W Flat-tone. It is put up in liquid form ready for use. Ask for a color card of the pleasing shades,
