Debts and Debtors

If we give a merchant our custom, we have a right to expect him to advertise-to tell us weekly in the columns of the STANDARD what he has for us. Advertising is shop news, designed to inform us, save our time, and bring to our attention desirable merchandise.

Every retailer who is alive to the interests of his customers has a message-often many messagesfor his customers concerning new goods, special offerings, and things that we ought to know about. Customers and non-customers will be attentive and responsive to these messages, if theytare delivered every week in the form of advertisements in the STANDARD. The way to get more business is to

A NOTE TO MERCHANTS

Would you buy much or regularly from firms that never solicit your tradeP Do you not say-"The firm that wants my business must come after itp" Yet some of you say, in effect, to your customers- 'We're here. If you want our goods, come and get them, but don't expect us to go after you." It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways.
