The Canadian Order of Foresters held their annual decoration service at Markdale cemetery on Sunday afternoon. About fifty brethren were in line, and the floral offerings were five little girls dressed in white, who were conveyed in an automobile to the cemetery. The graves of five departed brethren were decorated with flowers, after which Rev. Mr. Phalen gave a short discourse.

The committee of management of the dinner to be served in Jackson's Implement waresrooms and the Methodist Church basement on Saturday strongly urges their contributions of provisions, and should any family belonging to the congregation be overlooked in the canvass, kindly make it up by a ready co-operation, as such oversight, if any, was unintentional. A unanimous and liberal pull all together will be required.

What might have been a serious accident happened one evening recently at Lily Oak. One of the young ladies of that place was out for a drive, and while doing so another vehicle, in passing, occupied the roadway. The horse, occupants into the ditch. The horse, finding that it was free, continued on at a mile a minute clip up the road, leaving parts of the new buggy strewn on the way. The joy riders escaped with a few scratches, but the buggy was demolished.

Rev. F. E. Powell, rector of St. Barnabas' Church, Toronto, who had charge of Christ Church, Markdale, previous to the incumbency of Rev. J. A. Robinson, figured in an automobile accident on Monday afternoon in Toronto and with five others narrowly escaped with his life. One of the occupants of the car, Miss Ella Waller, of London, was killed. The auto was struck by an east bound freight train at the C.P.R. crossing at McLennan Avenue, Toronto. The car had become stalled while mounting a hill beyond and the approaching engine. All the occupants of the car except Miss Waller escaped by jumping, and she was in the act of scrambling out when the locomotive struck the car. Her skull was fractured and she died two hours later. Rev. Mr. Powell was accompanied by Mrs. Powell, and both were unhurt.

R. A. Douglas, M.P.P.

Revised returns from the Cochrane district in the recent Provincial election now show Mr. R. A. Douglas, son of Mr. Wm. Douglas, Markdale (Conservative) leading by 6. A poll first given as a Liberal majority proved to be a Conservative majority. One outlying poll, two days' journey from Cochrane, was only heard from on Friday, and gave ten for Mr. Douglas.

School Picnic.

Orange Valley and Berthel public schools held a union picnic on Friday afternoon, June 26th, which proved a most enjoyable, successful and appropriate closing of the school term. It was held on the premises of Mr. John B. Thibault. Both sections were well represented, not only by the children but by parents and grandparents, and the way old and young blended in games of foot ball, baseball, foot races, basketball, and checkers was indeed gratifying. The whole program was one of cordiality. Various team contests for prizes were engaged in by old as well as young to the delight of everybody. Refreshments were served, and when here there was no lack of interest manifested. Among the elderly representatives present were Mrs. Thibault, Sr., Mr. Sindy Stewart, Sr., and Mrs. H. C. Wilson, each in the neighborhood of four score. This sort of union leaves pleasant memories, surely.

All Passed.

We must congratulate Principal Macdonald, Assistant Miss Kells, and the students of Markdale High School on the excellent showing made in the recent Lower School exams. Thirteen tried the exam, and all were successful. Miss Edith Little taking honours. The following is the list: Deborah Shortall, Murid (Green), Doris Ricketts, Cecil Johnston, Mamma McLoughry, Alma Matthews, Alma Menger, Rosamond Price, Della Ritchie, Edna Ritchie (H), Arthur Varty, Ella Walker, Jean Sinclair.

Mr. Lucas' Majority 889

The official returns for the election in Centre Grey were received from Returning Officer Thomas Scott on Tuesday, but there is so little change from the list published last week that it is scarcely worth publishing the new list. Only in a few divisions are there any changes, but the totals are slightly different. Euphrasia gave Mr. Lucas a majority of 217; Holland 192; Osprey 176; St. Vincent 17; Collingwood 124; Thornbury 32; Markdale 93; Meaford 38; Total majority for Mr. Lucas, 889. The total vote polled was: Lucas 2966; Albery 1507.
