

NEWS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNSHIPS
BY STAFF REPORTERS

KIMBERLEY

(Special to The Standard.) A beautiful rain of Monday last which was badly needed in this part. Miss Anna Camack, of Toronto, is visiting at her parental home of present.

Master Wilfred Scott, of Dunn's Creek, visited friends in our burg last week.

Quite a number attended the Orange celebration at Markdale on Saturday, July 11th, and all report a good time. When Markdale goes in for a big day their efforts are always crowned with success.

Mr. J. R. Fawcett visited with friends in Thorburn and Collingwood recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bishop, of Balcarres, Ont., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCullough last week. Mr. Bishop was very deeply impressed by the beautiful scene of the famous Beaver Valley.

Miss E. Eldridge, of Meaford, visiting her friend, Miss Maude Plevier, at present.

Mrs. George Hawks, of Markdale, and son, Mrs. Washington of Milwaukee, Wis., visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Myers, of Spring Brook, Farino, recently.

Miss Viola Lewis is visiting a few weeks with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Bobkov.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeely, of Toronto, are visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gilbert, of the fourth line north.

Mr. John Buchanan, of Elsherton, was renewing old acquaintances in our burg last week.

Mr. G. Colinson, of Meaford, and Mrs. Kennedy, of Beavercreek, visited us. Mr. T. Read, recently.

Miss Lois, of Plyerton, was here and called on our burg one day last week.

The next meeting of the Woman's Institute will be held at the home of Miss Bob Carruthers, on Thursday, July 30th. All the members are requested to be on hand.

Mr. Hobell, of Belgrave, who is visiting with his brother, Mr. R. Hammond, at present.

HARKAWAY

(Special to The Standard.) Mr. and Mrs. Badgery, of Thorburn, were guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. T. Wrey, this week.

Miss John Alexander, of Owen Sound, is the guest of her friend, Miss M. B. Hallert.

Miss B. Purcell, of Rockton, is holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wiley.

An interesting story could easily be told in Harkaway on the 11th, as it was completely deserted.

We are pleased to be able to report that Mr. Wm. Madill slowly recovers from his serious illness.

We understand that ladies Auxiliary purposes last night an ice cream social in the nearsituations Watch for the date.

Miss Ellie, of Thorburn, and Beulah Steer, of Lyle, Ontario, guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kinney, are here.

PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard.) The showers of rain during the weekend on Monday last will help the growing crops and pastures which were beginning very dry.

The Methodist garden party held on the evening of the 7th inst. was a success financially and socially.

Mrs. John Ward and daughter, Edna, spent a few days with the former's brother, H. Ward.

A number from around here attended the party given by Mr. F. Eagles and Miss Viha recently.

Mr. W. S. Stratton, of Burford, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stratton, of Thorburn, at present.

Mr. John Bagonal, of West Toronto, visited friends here recently.

Mr. Nester, of Paterson, of Mobile, Ala., is spending a few weeks at his parent's home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Paterson attended the funeral of the late Jas. Patton in Burton, on Thursday.

CHERRY GROVE

(Special to The Standard.)

Having commenced.

Mr. Carter Lexington, of Orange Valley, called on friends last week.

Mrs. Balmutt Bradley has been visiting in Toronto for the past two weeks.

Mr. T. J. Barker and daughter, of the Twelfth, with friends at D.

Mr. Robert Meyers, of Toronto, renewed acquaintance here during the past week.

The Master Jack Bradley visited his grandparents at Kimberley for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burnett,

of Ravenhill, visited last week with

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burnett,

of the same place.

Some of our ambitious farmers are contributing to the list of improvements on their farms.

Miss Dorothy Kew, of Toronto, are the guests of the former's aunt,

Miss E. L. Campbell, for a couple of weeks.

Miss Stella Delorey is spending part of her vacation with her sisters,

Mrs. S. Barker and Mrs. C.

Proud.

Mr. Clarke McCullough is holidaying with friends in Georgetown.

The annual garden party of the Methodist church of this place will be held on the Agricultural grounds

July 21st, and promises to be the best of the season.

A splendid programme is being prepared.

Last Wednesday morning people were shocked to hear of the sad and sudden death of Mr. James Adams, of the 10th line. The deceased was in the village the day previous, doing business, and returned home in the evening in his usual health and soon after took ill. Dr. McCullough was called and found him suffering with acute indigestion from which he died. He is survived by a large family, and the funeral was conducted by the Orangemen. Rev. Mr. Beveridge,

Temple Hill, officiated. His wife and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement.

WALTERS FALLS

(Special to The Standard.)

Mr. J. R. Wickham, of Owen Sound, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wickham, for a couple of days last week.

The social at Mrs. Roy Bowler's last Tuesday evening was a real success. Proceeds amounted to $12.

Rev. Mr. Moulton is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lemon and conducted service in St. Phillips church last Sunday.

Mrs. H. Bonnell spent a few days with friends in Owen Sound recently.

Mrs. J. Milroy, from For William, is renewing acquaintances in the guest of her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Dixon, Sr.

Mrs. Rev. S. T. Tucker, of Odessa, is visiting her sisters and friends in this place.

Born—At Flesherton, on Monday, July 13, to Mr. and Mrs.

Rober, Irvin, a daughter.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid are preparing for a garden party next week and the Methodist Ladies'

Aid the week following.

Mr. W. Osborne was down from Owen Sound last week and paid his sister, Mrs. W. J. Bellamy, a short visit.

Miss Jennie Blackburn, of Mt.

Forest, is visiting her cousin Mrs.

T. J. Fisher.

Mrs. Cornforth and two daughters, of St. Thomas, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Archie

Fisher, 4th line.

Mr. W. P. Crossley is on a holiday with friends at Manitoulin

Island.

Miss Brown and Miss Long, milliners, have gone on their holidays,

the former to her home at Ravenna, and the latter to her home at Honeywood.

Mr. Wilfred Henry, bank clerk, at Orangeville, is home on holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Meldrum, of Bonito, Man., who visited the later's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCutley, have gone to Grand Valley and other points to visit before returning home.

Miss Olive Bryson, of Toronto, is visiting Miss Gladys Cornfield.

Mrs. Glenly and daughter, Miss

Vera, of Toronto, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong.

Miss Switzer and Miss Iris Wilson were successful in their Junior

Vocal examinations taken recently, and Miss Mary McMullen passed in Elementary Piano.

The Presbyterian Sunday

School's annual picnic held last week at Mr. Jake Lever's was very successful.

There was a large turnout and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Alf Sherman, band filled two engagements last week at successful garden parties. On Friday evening at Priceville Methodist Church, and the following evening at the Maxwell Presbyterian party.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris and children, of Toronto, are visiting with

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Harry Ballister was home for the 12th.

Miss Luckey and Mrs. Muir, of Toronto, were visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Ed. Bratty, for a few days recently.

Mr. Wilfred and Miss Maggie Reid of Heathcote, were callers at Mr.

Boyd's.

Mr. Milton Gillespie took in the 12th at Thorburn.

Quite a number went to Shelburne on Monday.

Mr. Rowe of Chatsworth, visited at his brother's, Mr. George

Walker's, over Sunday.