The marriage of Miss Blanche MacPherson, of Mr. Leonard Rayburn, of Toronto, is being solemnized in Christ Church at two o'clock this Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. H. H. Hosford, B.A., Rector of the parish, assisted by Revs. J. Robinson and F. Parker. Receptions will be held at the home of Hon. J. and Mrs. Lucas. Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn will reside in Toronto. We extend congratulations and best wishes to The Standard.

Mr. Mercer [illegible] Mildred Burn [illegible] who are members of Meaford [illegible] Tennis Club, played a friendly game with their team against Port M[illegible] at Meaford on Thursday afternoon and scored a victory of Meaford's favour, the score being 11—13 in favour of Meaford. Two rinks of Markdale bowlers visited the lakeside town the same day and played two games, winning both, scores 23-15 and 13-6. The rinks were R. J. Stephen, R. J. Gilfillan, D. McArthur, D. D. Sinclair and Dr. Campbell, J. W. Parker, A. Jackson and A. Noble.

Taking fright at a fleet of motor-cycles, Councillor Noble's horse made a sudden bolt while out driving on Sunday afternoon and landed in a wire fence, where it became entangled and had to be unharnessed before it could rise. The accident happened between Mrs. G. M. Haskett's and Oswald Walker's, and with Mr. Noble in the buggy were his four-year-old son and Misses Belle McKee and Katie Murdoch. Both ladies and the little lad jumped when the horse bolted. Mr. Noble was thrown over the dashboard and landed on the opposite side of the fence. No one was hurt, but the buggy and harness were slightly damaged. The party were fortunate, indeed, in escaping serious injury.

Keep your head. There is really no reason for filling your cellar with meats and sugar and flour, thus helping to bring about the scarcity and high prices you fear.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Galbraith was saddened on Tuesday, Aug. 25th, when their little daughter, Mono May, peacefully passed away, aged 4 months, 16 days. They have the sympathy of friends and neighbors in their loss.

Patriotic young Canadians who have been rejected for active service for such disabilities as corns on their toes, should be consoled by the thought that their best girl wouldn't think of turning them down for a little thing like that.

The return baseball match between Markdale and Dundalk was played here on Friday, resulting in a tie, eight all. The Dundalk boys wished to return home on the evening train, so there was not sufficient time to play another innings to break the tie.

In response to the proposition to give farmers an opportunity to manifest their loyalty to Britain in a time of need a general move is being made. Mr. Harry Shaw has agreed to give 25 bushels oats, and Mr. Wes Bowler, of the same line, five bags oats. Who'll be the next? Hand your proposition to Reeve Ennis.

It has been decided by the C.P.R. Company to reserve the position for any member of its permanent employees who join the forces of Great Britain or Canada for military service in Europe or for active service at home. Their full pay will also be allowed for the period of six months, or shorter time which they may be engaged in military service of the Empire.

Miss A. Jones Dead.

Miss Annie Jones, who has been in failing health for some time, and who was obliged to retire from active life nearly two years ago, passed away on Monday last at Stratford, where she had been for some six weeks under the special care of a friend who is a trained nurse. Her home was at Mitchell, where interment takes place this Wednesday afternoon. About eleven years ago Miss Jones came from the West to Markdale, and was, for some time saleslady in Hill's store, then for four years in business here in company with Miss Dundas. After this they conducted a dry goods store in Mount Forest, selling out four years ago. Deceased was possessed of much executive ability, was of undoubted integrity and clever in business, with a judicial grasp that was rare. She made many warm friends in Markdale.

Mrs. Alexander Donnelly

The passing of Mrs. Alexander Donnelly, of Epping, Euphrasia, on the 22nd of August, in the prime of life, removes a lady whose life was a beautiful example of love and self sacrifice. After but a few days' illness, during which medical skill and tender nursing proved unavailing, her spirit took its flight.

Mrs. Donnelly was a daughter of the late S. McKnight, and a native of Euphrasia. She was born in 1865, and married in 1909. Her bereaved husband and two brothers, S. J. McKnight, Epping, and John A., Fairmount, also a nephew, Harold Kerr, Epping, are chief mourners.

The funeral took place on Tuesday p.m. to Thornbury cemetery, Rev. Mr. Marshall officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. Knott, E. Clugston, Frazer Gilray, Matthew Devitt, J. Johnston and A. Thompson. Beautiful floral offerings were: Bouquets, by little Isabelle and Viola Gilray; Wreaths by Epping Ladies' Aid, Mrs. A. Thompson, Miss Alma Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. John Patton; Gates Ajar, The Cross, and a pillow by immediate relatives.

W.C.T.U. Ladies Have Pleasant Outing

Tuesday, Aug. 25th, calm, cool, and clear, was an ideal day for an outing; and thus it was that the ladies turned out in more than usual numbers to the regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U., held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Hill, Orange Valley.

This, we believe, was the first meeting of the Union held out of town, but an attendance of twenty-five would seem to justify our sometimes going to the country.

A lengthy program on the cigarette evil was taken up, after which Mrs. A. M. Brown gave a solo in her own good style. Two new members were given a standing welcome, and it was suggested by someone that before long the valley might fittingly be called "White Ribbon Valley."

Mrs. Hill proved herself a most charming hostess and entertained us royally, serving ice cream and cake. Then with merry farewells we jaunted gaily home again.

The Maple Leaf Forever

In days of yore, from Britain's shore,
Wolfe the dauntless hero came,
And planted firm Britannia's flag,
On Canada's fair domain.
Here may it wave, our boast, our pride,
And joined in love together,
The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine
The Maple Leaf forever!

The Maple Leaf, our emblem dear,
The Maple Leaf forever!
God save our King, and Heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever!

On Merry England's far-famed land
May kind Heaven sweetly smile;
God bless Old Scotland evermore,
And Ireland's Emerald Isle!
Then swell the song, both loud and long
Till rocks and forest quiver,
God save our King, and Heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever!

Putting Markdale On a War Basis

Markdale, like other sections, is keenly feeling the effects of the European Armageddon. The price of foodstuffs is steadily upward. Already the cost of living before the war was a strain, but that tragedy have stirred the wheat barons into the sport of price-raising; and the farmer and the meat packer are making more money than ever. Realizing our helpless condition what should we do? There is plenty of plain, hard sense to back a period of strict economy. Most Markdale families (and these are all we have a patent to speak for) father with his cigars to Mary Jane with her tango slippers, have a long list of extravagances. Frugalness, we fear, is not one of our high virtues. We have the habit of spending, and that habit grows with great rapidity. Well, the present is a splendid time to forget our predilections and start promptly to put our family living on a war basis. A few months of careful spending to most of our householders will prove disciplinary, at least, luxuries can be cut and bought with extra care and attention. Waste can be reduced to a minimum.

Hank as Umpire.

The Chatsworth News makes the following unfeeling reflection on the sporting ability of our well known townsman: "A baseball team from Markdale came up on Wednesday to try conclusions with the local team. The game was almost too onesided to be interesting, the locals winning out by 14 to 8, and most of the eight were gotten on flukes. Hank Noble, of Markdale, was the umpire, and what he didn't know about baseball would fill a good large book, having to be told half the time, a ball from a strike."

Flag Incident at Drayton

It is droll to think of a flag incident, and almost riot; in a little Drayton, but they say it incident really happened last week says the Harriston Review. A telkeeper hoisted a German flag some sort and when remonstrated with refused to lower the emblem but finally compromised by sewing a miniature Union Jack on to the tail of the German flag. That was the crowning insult; a wild crowd gathered and tore down the flag and wanted to demolish the hotel the Reeve read the riot act, and number of personal encounters took place. A British flag was run up and mutual explanations resulted in their all declaring that they did not know whether it was a German flag or not, and from the description it was probably the French tri-color, being three strips of red white and blue.

The "Made in Germany" slogan has had its day in this country. In future everyone will insist upon the label "Made in Canada" on their purchases. We in Canada have sat back quite long enough and allowed the German manufacturers to capture our markets in many lines, thus taking away the trade that properly belonged ourselves.
