A British Red Cross Nurse

The regulation dress of the British Red Cross nurse is made of dark blue zephyr, the apron of thick white linen, with a red cross stitched on to the bib, which is passed under straps on the shoulders and fastened at the back of the waist. A white cap and over-sleeves to the elbow and a plain stiff white collar complete the costume.

A Nova Scotia Case of Interest to All Women

Halifax Sends Out a Message of Help to Many People.

Halifax, N.S., Dec. 15.—When interviewed at her home at 194 Argyle St., Mrs. Haverstock was quite willing to tell of her peculiarly unfortunate case. "I was always blue and depressed, felt weak, languid and utterly unfit for any work. My stomach was so disordered that I had no appetite. What I did eat disagreed, I suffered greatly from dizziness and vertigo, and feared a nervous breakdown. Upon my druggist's recommendation I bought Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I felt better at once. Every day I improved, in six weeks I was a well woman, cured completely after different physicians had failed to help me. It is for this reason that I strongly urge sufferers with stomach or digestive troubles to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

Apply to the Kaiser

The 57th Psalm has two verses peculiarly applicable to the Kaiser at the present time. The verses are as follows:—
"He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him; he hath broken his mouth as a smooth stone, but war is in his heart; his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords."

BABY CRIED CONSTANTLY

Mrs. Simon Anmont, Muskegon, Mich., says: "My baby was ill and cried continually till I began giving her Baby's Own Tablets. They worked a marvelous change in her and she became a happy, healthy baby. The tablets are the very best medicine I know of for little ones." Baby's Own Tablets cure all the minor ills of little ones such as colic, colds, constipation and indigestion, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY

"All we have in the world hangs on this war-empire, country, honor, our place in history, and in the nations of the world; yet so placed as we are we can neither flinch nor come to any patched-up truce."
—Lord Rosebery.

There has never arisen an emergency so trying to our best qualities, so inspiring to our highest hopes and ideals, so gigantic and portentous in the magnitude, the duration, the scope, and the issues which hang upon it.—Mr. Asquith.

The German people never made a graver error when they believed that the honor of Great Britain was a thing of the past, and that her friendship was a thing of no value, upon which no one could depend.—Lord Ronaldshay, M.P.

Against a system so devilish and destructive of true freedom Germany would yet free herself, and be recognized by other nations as escaping from the consequences of the policy which had been forced upon her.—Rev. Canon Carnegie.

The New Testament is nowhere more impressive than where it insists on the fact of man's independence. Religion is for man to feel his helplessness. Christ's first posture is to the poor in spirit.—Henry Drummond.

Memories of the Past.

The jolly old uncle was relating some of the incidents of his earlier life to his nephew. "Of all the women you ever met, uncle," said the young man, "which were the youngest struck you?" "By your aunt, my boy, by your aunt," replied the old gentleman, dropping his voice and feeling the back of his head tenderly.

A Risky Calling

There is a danger in submarines—though the men who fly their eyes would be the last to admit it. A cruiser may come dashing up at full speed right over the place where the under-water boat is lying, and the first indication of the fact would be the tearing of the plates over their heads as the big ship's keel bit into the steel, and the compartments filling with water as the submarine went to the bottom with a rush, giving portage of the disaster but a few bubbles. Then at any moment an explosion of gas may occur, and the crew be shamed and injured; or the submarine may rise below another ship and have her hull crushed like an eggshell; or, worse, during a dive for an attack, she may lose her keel by the very explosion of gas which she had to explode to remain fast at bottom beyond the reach of human aid.

Many Were Horrified

A Britisher who has just returned from Brussels has been interviewed. He speaks Belgian, Flemish, and German fluently, and has thus been able to get about freely, and also mix with the German soldiers. Many of them, he said, are very much against the war. "Many of us," he said, "detest the war. All we want is to get back to our wives and children." Another German soldier took him on one side in a cafe and showed him his cartridge pouches. "See," he said, "I have not fired a shot. I have not the heart to do so. It is the mad Kaiser who has brought this upon us." Many of the German soldiers were horrified at the Lowland atrocities. "Ah, sir," said a recruit, "it was awful, but do not blame the war. It is the officers and the N.C.O.'s who wish that sort of work to be done."

Willie in Trouble

Little Willie had been very naughty—much so, in fact, that after being reprimanded several times his mother was at last forced to punish him severely. When his father arrived home in the evening he at once perceived that Willie's eyes were suspiciously red. "What's the matter, sonny?" he cried. "Oh nothing," responded Willie uneasily. "Come, don't be frightened," said the father in coaxing tones, "tell me all about it; I want to know." Willie then blurted out the whole story. "Well, if he suddenly burst out like that, I must know, I've had a thundering row with your wife."

BABY'S FACE MASS OF ERUPTION

Spread Over Head and Neck. Caused Disfigurement, Burning and Itching. Could Not Get Any Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

J. Hibernia Ave., West Toronto, Ont.—"First we noticed a rash on our child's face, which soon began to spread all over his head and then around his neck. Little blisters would form thick and his face and head was made a mass of eruption and it caused a very bad disfigurement, also burning and itching. The child could not get any sleep. I tried several kinds of ointments and powders but with no success for about two months. The rash ceased to get worse. Little blisters would form thick and a lot of discharge would come out. We used... Ointment and... but to no good effect. I then had the child sent to a doctor who recommended to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After a few applications it gave relief and the child began to get some sleep. In about six weeks Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely healed the trouble and not a scar is left." (Signed) Mrs. Wm. Tucker, Feb. 19, 1914.

Explained It

There had been an explosion in a powder mill, and the proprietor, who was away on a pleasure trip, hurried home to make an investigation. "How in the world did it happen?" he asked the foreman, the mill as he viewed the wreck. "Who was to blame?" "Well, you see, sir," replied the foreman, "it was in this way. Bill went into the mixing-room, probably thinking of something else, and struck a match in a mistake! He was 'struck a match'!" exclaimed the proprietor in amazement. "I should have thought that would be the last thing on earth he'd do!" "It was, sir," was the calm rejoinder of the foreman.
