Mr. H. Wattman, back, line and harness, sold his farm fully prepared to Mr. J. Snell of Elora. Mr. Snell visited the farm, the location and bought the equipment.

Mr. Henry W. and daughter was treated, however, home from their visit to London, St Mary's, and other points, and received a pleasant surprise. They had a good time.

A very pleasant event took place in the home of Mrs.
J. Beatty,
George Valley, Monday afternoon, in honour of Miss Elva Hill, who is presented with an address from the Hydro. Power House in course of construction at the foot of the rock, Queen's Valley, some seven miles from Markdale, and three from Eugenia. This is the greatest water-fall in the province, the decent being 550 feet from the dam to the front of the power house.

What shall I send my friends as a token of friendship, and good-will the coming Christmas? This is a question doubtless exercising the mind of many. That's easy. Get a dozen or two photos, just the thing your friends will highly appreciate, and at the same time prove inexpensive. Kentner will be glad to furnish the goods, but call early and avoid the rush.

Mr. W. H. Grabill, of Toronto, Organizer for the A.O.U.W., has been in town for some days in the interest of the Order, and not without success. On Monday evening some fourteen candidates were invited, and several more are to ride the goat later. Grand Organizer Bert Armstrong, also of Toronto, was on hand at the above important function. Refreshments were served and a real sociable, enjoyable evening spent, which is a welcome revival for No. 141.
