A branch of the Women's Institute at Markdale or some town up the line, had under discussion recently the proposed line of program for the winter months. With the great European war in view, one of the members made the following pointed suggestions: "My dears, we will have to pass over frivolous things which we have given much time to in the past and take an interest in deeper subjects. Take history for instance, here is an interesting item. Gessler, the tyrant, put up a hat for the Swiss to salute." There was immediate interest and one member was quickly on her feet with the question "How was it trimmed?"—Dundalk Herald.

Mr. A. Cowan and family, of Alton, have moved to Markdale suburbs.

Galt, with a population of over 12,000, is taking steps to become a city.

Excessive Corporal Punishment

Mr. Robert Love of Holland, some time ago procured a little girl from the Salvation Army Shelter." Her name is Elizabeth Smith, and she is in her twelfth year. In course of time friction developed in the domestic circle and the S. A. people had the girl removed. An investigation followed resulting in a charge of assault or excessive punishment, being laid by the S. A. representative, Major McGillivray, of Toronto. The case was tried here on Tuesday of last week before Police Magistrate Armstrong, and lasted most of the day. The trial was conducted in an impartial and dignified manner. Mr. McCullough appearing in behalf of the plaintiff and Mr. W. D. Henry for the defendent. Judgement was at the time reserved, but has since been given, Mr. Love being fined $20.00 and costs.

Leighton--Smith

On Tuesday, Nov. 10th, the marriage took place of Miss Clarice Leighton, B. A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Leighton, of Yorktown, Sask., and grand-daughter of Mr. Stephen Henry Leighton, of Markdale, to Mr. J. Cameron Smith, M. D., of Halbrite, Sask., son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. Fraser Smith, of Glencoe, Ont.

Why do statesmen read the Weekly Sun of Toronto? Because it is a paper with a reputation that is unquestioned. It is the farmers' business paper, and is watching farmers' interests all the time. Aside, even, from its market reports which are acknowledged to be the best in the Dominion, it is a paper of weight. You should have it come to your home every week. All through the long winter nights it will furnish a wealth of interesting reading material of a thoroughly reliable character. This paper has special clubbing arrangements with the Sun. Let us have your renewal and add the Sun to your list of papers for 1915.

Librarians Convention.

The annual convention of the Orangeville District of the Public Library Institute was held last week in Owen Sound when twenty-seven libraries were represented. Mr. J. H. Packham, President of the O. S. Library, welcomed the visitors. Mr. John Taylor, of Hanover, gave the annual address. The delegates who attended the convention were Dr. Kyles, Orangeville; Dr Caldwell, Shelburne; Mr. Elvidge, Durham; Mrs. Wisler, Hanover; Mrs. Coleridge, Holstein; Miss Hurlbut, Kemble; Mrs Davidson, Lake Charles; Rev. Mr. Phalen, Markdale; Mr. J. H. Packham, Owen Sound; Miss C. Clifton, Bolton, Miss Hurt and Mr. Peacock, Brampton; Mr. Hilliard, Saledon, Mr. D. Smith, Claude, Ont.; Mr John Vance, Mono Mills, and Rev Mr. Duncan, Port Credit. These were the delegates appointed from the different libraries but in addition there were a number of others from a distance who were in attendance.

Mayor McQuaker extended a civic welcome, which was replied to by Mr. Walter Nursey, Inspector of Public Libraries. Judge Hardy, of Brantford, gave a splendid address, also Inspector Burgess. The new Library at Owen Sound came in for much favorable comment. The next meeting will be at Grand Valley, tho' Markdale made a close run for it. The officers for next year are: President, Rev. R. M. Phalen, Markdale; 1st Vice-Pres., Mr. Jas. McKinley, Grand Valley; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mr. W. S. Peacock, Brampton; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr W. D. McPherson, Orangeville; Executive, Rev. Dr. Caldwell, Shelburne; Mr. John Vance, Mono Mills; Mrs. C. Wisler, Hanover; Miss H. Hart, Brampton; Mr. C. Elvidhe, Durham; Miss Victoria Scott, Owen Sound.

County Council.

Grey County Council concluded its November session on Saturday last. The following resolution was passed on Thursday unanimously: "That owing to the very great suffering and hardships of the people of Belgium during the present war, which was brought about through no fault of theirs, and through the valiant fight put up by the soldiers of that country, we are perhaps enjoying a peace to-day that we might not be otherwise, we therefore move that this County Council contribute two thousand bags of flour as a first contribution to the Belgian Relief Fund." It was decided to appoint a nurse to tend aged and helpless people at the House of Refuge.

Warden Breese was the recipient of a resolution of appreciation for his uniform fairness and courtesy as presiding officer.

Come one and all and enjoy an evening's outing. Admission, 10 and 15 cents.

Fawcett--Hill

On Wednesday, Nov. 25th, at 1.30 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. James Hill, (Toronto line), when his third daughter, Elva Viola, was united in marriage to Mr. Wilfred O. Fawcett, of Laurel, Ont.

To the strains of Mendelsohn's march, played by Mrs. Wallace, the bride came in, and was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Wallace, B. D.

The bride looked charming, attired in a travelling suit of navy blue with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace set with pearls.

After the ceremony, a tasty lunch was served in the dining room, after which the happy couple left on the 4.15 train for Toronto and Hamilton. The best wishes of the community for a long and happy life follow Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett to their new home in Laurel, Ont., where they will be at home to their friends.
