TURNER'S DRUG STORE.

25 YEARS AGO.

Items of Interest Taken from The Standard, Eyles of Nov. 21, 1889.

On Monday last Messrs. Alex.

McDuff, John Beaton and Tom Mercer left for British Columbia, there to seek their fortunes. Each of them has one or more brothers out there, all of whom are doing well. The trio are steady, indus rious and respectable and have many well-wishers.

Nov. 28.

W. J. Stephens is about opening out in the flour and feed business next door to Lump's blacksmith shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Glendinning have been re-engaged in Markdale school for first and second departments at $300 and $250 respectively.

Mr. J. E. Trefford, formerly of this village, but late years of Al lenford, has opened a hardware and tin shop in Maben's old stand.

Mr. Fred Whithy, who arrived last week from Oregon, came by the C. P. R. route via B. C. He was ten days and eleven nights on the way, the distance being over five thousand miles. Fred is ele ven and a half years since he left Markdale. He will return early in January.

Dec. 5.

Thos. Hill has almost recovered from the broken and shattered jaw which he received by the kick of a horse.

Dec. 12.

There will be no assessment in the A. O. U. W. for December.
There have been but twelve for the year, making $12.00 on the $2,000 insurance.

A meeting was held in Markdale on Tuesday last to consider ways and means for the extension of a railway line from Mount Forest by way of Markdale to Meaford.

GLORIOUS HAIR

Girls and women of all ages want to be beautiful and attractive, but unightly, thin and lifeless hair de stroys half the beauty of a pretty face.

If your hair is losing its natural color, is falling out, dull, dry, or if the scalp itches and burns do not be alarmed, use Parisian Sage. Rub it well into the scalp. It will go right to the hair roots, nourish them, and stimulate the hair to grow, long and beautiful. It re moves dandruff with one applica tion, stops itching, soiling, falling hair and makes the head feel fine.

Parisian Sage supplies the hair with what is needed to make it soft, fluffy, thick and gloriously radiant. It is sold in fifty cent bottles by W. Turner & Co. and at all drug counters. Look for the trade mark—"The Girl with the Auburn Hair." Accept no other.
