Christmas 1914.

The following lines were composed by Mrs. (Rev.) Joseph Young, late of Markdale. A copy has been sent to King George, of England, and King Albert, of Belgium.

The Angel's song of "Peace, good will"

is being through the world once more

And Bethlehem's Christ is living still,

With blessings on us all to pour.

His "Star" is seen above the din

Of cannon's roar, of pain and woe;

And Belgium's God will help her win

In face of unrelenting foe.

The fulfilment of that cheering ray,

Will penetrate each blood soaked field;

Will cleanse the deepest stain away

And buds and blossoms they shall yield.

If nations would by God be led,

How soon would come a sweet release;

And starving children would be fed

And in the clouds the bow of "Peace."
