FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

On Sunday, January 31st, there passed away at his late home near Staflerville, Mr. Frank Forsyth, in his 59th year. In March 1898, he was married to Miss Annie Wright, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of this place, who survives him and has the deep sympathy of her old friends here in her bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson, of Collingwood, have the sympathy of their numerous friends here in their bereavement by the death on February the 2nd, of their infant son, Edward M., aged 16 months. Interment took place in the family plot here on Thursday.

At the regular meeting of the village Council on Thursday evening last, Mr. W. J. Bellamy was appointed clerk in the place of W. H. Thurston, who had resigned. Mr. Bellamy's long experience in Municipal Work makes him a very efficient clerk and his appointment is a good one.

Councillors Altmush and Buskin to whom was entrusted the fire fighting appliances have been getting all into good shape; have now better protection for the village than heretofore.

The two week's helpful special services in the Methodist Church closed on Friday night last and Rev. Mr. Dean returned to Toronto on Saturday followed by the good wishes of many friends made here. Mr. Dean, who is a pleasing speaker, presents the gospel in a very interesting, clear, convincing manner far from all sensational methods. His lecture on the Bible and Science is a masterpiece. Large congregations attended all the services and a generous offering was given at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stell, of Lumsden, Sask., visited their son, Thomas, and family last week.

Mr. W. J. Casewell, Toronto line, met with a painful accident last week from which he has suffered much. While harnessing an unbroken colt in the stall he was jammed against the manger, his shoulder fractured and several bruises sustained.

Miss Pearl Henderson, daughter of Mr. Samuel Henderson, of this place, had the misfortune to have both feet badly frozen while snowing with another young lady to Euphrasia on one of the cold days of last week. Miss Henderson, who has been under the doctor's care since, is now improving.

Mr. Samuel Black has moved from Rock Mills to Mr. Sinclair's farm vacated by Bloomfield Harris, who has moved to his own farm on the east back line.

The Red Cross Society continues active in their work here and to aid in funds for the purchase of material will give a skating party on the rink on Friday evening. The band has volunteered their services.

Miss Lillian Bunt passed successfully in her exam in music taken recently in Toronto.

Mr. Chas. Boyce, west back line, who has been very ill recently, is now on the mend. Mr. W. Lever, east back line, also ill for several months, is reported not much improved.

Mr. Will Southgate, of Seaford, visited over the weekend with his uncle; Mr. Geo. Mitchell. Mr. W. J. Stewart spent last week with friends in Toronto. Mr. Harold Karstedt was home from Shelburne over Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Boyd, of Markdale, visited Mrs. Geo. Mitchell and other old friends on Friday and Saturday. Mrs. A. S. Van Dusen left on Tuesday to spend a month with her daughter in Toronto and her son at Chesley.

WALTERS FALLS.

Mrs. T. Currie. It was decided to purchase pitchers for social gatherings, to proceed with the screen on the church platform and $15.00 was voted to the pastor's salary. Next meeting to Mrs. Wood's. Collections were taken on Sunday last in the three churches for the relief of the Belgians.

Mrs. M. Umbreit, of Holstein, is visiting friends here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Thom.

Miss Beatrice Quinton left for Owen Sound last Friday where she will spend a couple of weeks with friends.

Mrs. A. S. Rennie, accompanied by Misses Rennie and Ethel Walters, have gone to Hanover, where they will remain with friends for some time.

Miss Joy Gilmore, of Meaford, is the guest of Miss Georgina Bonnell.

Mr. Alex. Findlay, of Owen Sound, and Mr. McGill Findlay, of Beeton, are visiting relatives here, and renewing old acquaintances.

We are in the grip of a terrific blizzard.

Messrs. F. Wickham, J. Hughes and W. I. Seabrook are attending the Agricultural conference in Toronto this week.
