San Francisco Exposition.

Dear Mr. Rutledge—

Readers of The Standard may like to hear something of the Panama Pacific International Exposition now opened in San Francisco. The members of our family had the special privilege of a private examination of the buildings and the display of exhibits about two weeks before the public were admitted. On the whole the buildings will compare favorably with anything I have ever seen at the great exhibitions held elsewhere. And they have a decided advantage over all those previously held on this side of the Atlantic. Those who visited the White City of the world's fair at Chicago 1893, will not forget the painful effect on the eyes caused by the reflected blinding sunshine from the pure white walls of the buildings. They have avoided this in San Francisco by tinting the various buildings in different shades of light green, buff and all harmonious subdued colors. The reflected light and so can be looked on in the brightest sunshine with great pleasure to the eye and without pain. The Exposition buildings are all situated along the water front easily reached from any of the Bay cities by steam train, street car or jitney bus. One may realize something of the ground covered by the Exposition from the fact that the aisles between the exhibits measure forty-seven miles. There is plenty of cheap transportation for those unable to walk much. Meals are moderate in price and good furnished bedrooms with bath may be got in any of the towns near by for $1.00 per week. The hotels have entered into an agreement to charge no higher than ordinary rates. One visitor should be warned by intending visitors. Many Ontario imagine California is very hot country on account of much sunshine. In some sections it is hot as in the Imperial valley or San Joaquin but those who visit this section will be greatly surprised. Whilst it is bright, it is never so hot in the warmest part of the year as it is in Ontario, say at Markdale. There is scarcely a part of the day here, especially in San Francisco, when you cannot wear an overcoat. It is a rare thing to go out in the evening without the necessity of wearing a heavy overcoat, largely on account of the prevailing western and northern breezes. When the International Sunday School Convention met in San Francisco four years ago, all the delegates from Canada were very much surprised at the cold weather they experienced and some of them told me they would have to return to Ontario to enjoy the benefit of warm weather. They had brought no overcoats. Verbum Sapientis sufficit. In closing I have no doubt you will be pleased to learn that among all the international state buildings, the Canadian, internally and externally, is the wonder and admiration of them all. Even where those who have seen it, at the lowest in its praise. One American told me "It had all the other International buildings beaten to a frazzle." Last night at the combined banquet of the Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian and First Methodist Churches in San Jose at which I was honorary guest, the common theme of conversation at the table was the indescribable beauty of Canadian exhibits. I could certify to this as I had seen it before they had. One of the speakers said that Canadians coming to the exposition would likely have "swelled heads" as the result of seeing their country's display. I will not take up your space attempting to describe that beauty. If any of my former friends and neighbors wish any information can give them about the Exposition etc. I will be only too pleased to give it. With best wishes for the Standard and its readers, remain sincerely yours,

Rev. Dr. J. F. McLaren.

Reception to Dr. Jamieson.

With Durham town hall filled to the doors a magnificent reception was on Friday night, Feb. 19, tendered Dr. Jamieson, M.P.P., by his fellow townsmen, on his return to be Speaker in the House of Commons. Rev. Calder, of Durham, Warden of Grey, presided over a lengthy programme of addresses, music and selections by the Harmonic Band, who voluntarily offered their services. Party lines were completely obliterated. Liberals and Conservatives united to show their appreciation of the honor bestowed upon their town. The speaker in fact, as the Warden remarked, the array of speakers on the platform, including a Liberal, a Conservative, a Unionist and a Nationalist, was a gratification of the town in and dress to Dr. Jamieson, and the fact that the Durham, Markdale and the Durham, Markdale, of which the town is President.

In a happy speech, the speaker thanked all for their kindness and loyalty, referred to his opponents as being fair and gave much of the credit to the present Mayor to his able help.

Congratulatory addresses were given by the Warden, the Rev. Mr. M. Bowdler, M.P., Mayor W. H. and Rev. W. H. Haggover, Messrs. Irwin, Haggover, local editors, Geo. B. and Inspector Campbell, Messrs. of copartnerships represented by the Chairman from Markdale, Toronto, Rev. J. M. Thosson, Preville, and R. B. M. P.
