The 17th of Ireland

The entertainment given under the auspices of the Epworth League on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, was an unqualified success. The large school room of the church had been appropriately decorated for the occasion and was filled with an appreciative company. The refreshments were of prime quality and the quantity ample. The programme, which followed was ably rendered and had a decided smack of the Irish and the excellent S. S. Orchestra took an important part.

Kerr, of Duncuan. Mr. Phalen performed the ceremony. Only the family of the bride were present. Miss Boyd looked well dressed in grey silk, with girlish bouquet of carnations. An artistic wedding supper was served under the supervision of Miss Mabel Boyd.

McLean--Manarey

A delightful St. Patrick's Day wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manarey, 11th line, Euphrasia, on Wednesday evening, March 17th. This was the birthday of the groom, Mr. Charles Edward McLean and of this date he claimed as his bride, Miss Myrtle Leola Manarey. At 7 o'clock the fair bride entered the parlor, leaning on her father's arm. She took her place beside the groom under a white arch trimmed with pink flowers and white bells. Rev. W. M. Phalen tied the nuptial knot. Miss Manarey was very becomingly attired in cream silk trimmed with chiffon and roses. She looked charming, her only ornament being a girlish watch and chain, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair. Little Miss Ethna Boyd, niece of the bride, dressed in pink mull and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern, made an exquisite flower girl. Miss Nettie Johnson played the Wedding March.

About sixty guests sat down to a most excellent supper, some coming from Massie, Bognot, Brantford and Cheltenham. The presents were many, beautiful and useful. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring set with pearls, to the flower girl a pearl necklace. All good wishes attend Mr. and Mrs. McLean to their future home.

Bad Language May be Expensive

An amendment to the Telephone Act is being considered by Hon. B. Lucas, Attorney-General, whereby the use of objectionable language over the telephone will be penalized by a maximum fine of $25.00 with the alternative of 30 days in jail. This one will be used in this way. This amendment will make a little more strict the present rules against the unparliamentary language over the phone, which are not often enforced to the letter. Another proposed amendment gives rural subscribers the right to appeal to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board on the question of rates.

Tragedy at Orangeville

A tragedy occurred three miles from Orangeville about 8 o'clock Thursday morning, when James Stevens, a Barnardo Home boy, in the employ of Robert Armstrong, murdered the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong and then cut his own throat.

The farm is in Caledon township, in Peel county. Mr. Armstrong was absent at a neighboring farm and Mrs. Armstrong was in the barn when young Stevens was doing chores. Evidently Stevens took this opportunity of returning to the house where Violet, the daughter, was. She had not risen. Stevens carefully removed his boots and outer clothing, and taking Mr. Armstrong's razor with him, committed the crime in the girl's bedroom. She evidently from the appearance of the room, struggled hard for her life, and made her way downstairs and out of doors, her night dress as far as the pump, some fifteen yards from the back door, where she fell and died.

The boy, Stevens, evidently cut his own throat at the foot of the stairs, where there was a large pool of blood in which the razor lay. He made his way upstairs to the bedroom, where his body was found.

Mrs. Armstrong, returning to the house, saw the blood and making her way upstairs in search of her daughter, found the body of Stevens. She then came down again and found her daughter quite dead in the snow. No one else was in the house. The only son was away at school.

Coroner D. Baynot, of Palgrave, was notified, and an inquest held Thursday evening. Dr. Thomas, of Caledon, was sent for, but, of course, could do nothing. No motive has been discovered, as the boy was treated as their own child and the girl and she always had been on the best of terms. Stevens had been in Canada three years. He came to Mr. Armstrong last Easter. The boy was between fifteen and sixteen years of age, and the girl about fourteen years of age.

Lecture.

Dr. Thurlow Fraser, of Division St. Church, Owen Sound, gave an admirable lecture in Cook's Church on Tuesday evening. His subject was "The Germanism and the Kaiser" and he handled it in a masterly way. Historically, economically and politically, his treatment was quite exhaustive. The audience was large and appreciative. The Women's Institute is to be congratulated. Dr. E. G. Campbell made an excellent chairman. Misses Plevins and Brown gave great help in their musical selections. The proceeds amounted to $22.00.

Women's Institute.

The Women's Institute shipped a box last week to the Red Cross Society, Toronto, containing: 14 dozen linen dressings, 20 pairs of socks, 12 cholera belts, 1 scarf, 20 flannel bandages, 2 sheets, 20 cotton bandages. The Women's Institute beg to thank H. Mercer and Sons, Hill Bros., J. and W. Boyd and the many others who have contributed supplies in aid of the Red Cross.

Grey County Stock Sale

The first sale of pure bred live stock to be held under the auspices of the Grey County Cattle Breeders' Club was held in Markdale on St. Patrick's day. The sale was not as big a success as would have been expected by the officers and breeders but it is a good start and it is hoped will pave the way for a bigger and better sale another year.
