NEWS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNSHIPS

BY STAFF REPORTERS

BARRHEAD

(Special to The Standard.)
Miss C. Hepburn has resumed her school duties again.
Mr. Frank Dinsmore, of Thornbury, is visiting with his uncle, Mr. Geo. Walker.

WODEHOUSE

(Too late for last week.)
The village of Wodehouse has assumed important business proportions within the last few weeks, as there are two saw mills within a short distance of each other, making things humming the blacksmith shop. Mr. Moody has had several years experience in this trade and we bespeak a fair share of public patronage for him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Varty entertained a few of the young folk of the burg at a taffy party on Friday last.
Mrs. Wm. McKeehan has been over on the 6th line, attending to her aged mother, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, who passed away on Sunday morning last. Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. McKeehan in her double bereavement as it is only about three weeks ago she saw her father pass peacefully away.
While in town on Saturday, Mr. John Varty lost the sum of forty-five dollars, but had the good fortune of having it returned by an honest little boy.
While skidding fire wood on Thursday last, Mr. James Henning had the misfortune of losing one of his horses, which slipped on an icy knoll and falling to the ground was pierced with a snaf. The animal died before veterinary aid could be procured.

Mr. and Mrs. Best are in poor health at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. H. Wiley.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fawcett, of Laurel, spent Good Friday at the former's parental home here and returned Sunday with the latter's parents in Orange Valley and accompanied by Miss Edna Fawcett.
Mr. Stanley Wiley spent the Easter holidays at this home here, returning to Toronto on Monday morning.

PROTON STATION

(Special to The Standard.)
Mrs. H. Neilson, of Toronto, is visiting with her sons for a few days.

VANDELEUR

(Crowded out last week.)
Miss Minnie Graham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham.
Mr. J. M. Davis has returned home after an extended visit with friends in Leeds County.
Mr. John Flynn is ill with appendicitis.
Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walker, of Riverdale, called on friends here the first of the week.
Mr. James Cochrane, of Colborne, spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cullis were in Scarboro last week attending the funeral of the latter's aunt.

Miss M. McLean, of Toronto, visited a few days last week at the home of Mr. J. C. Neilson.
Miss Clara Binnie, of Bolton, visited over the holidays at her home here.
Miss Lizzie Neilson, of Toronto, visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neilson.
Mr. Walter Croft, of Beek mills, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Jas. White.
Misses Annie and Lizzie Neilson spent Wednesday of last week with their sister, Mrs. John McDonald, at Ceylon.

WEST BACK LINE

(Special to The Standard.)
Sugar making is the order of the day.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Hill and family, of Ceylon, were callers in our burg recently.
Mrs. Alex. Henning is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gus. Merrifield of Beverdale.
Born—On Tuesday, April 6th, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. White, a daughter. Congratulations.
Mr. Dunn Egan, of Riverdale, was a pleasant caller in our burg recently.
Wedding bells are faintly tolling.
Mr. James White, of Flesherton, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

EUGENIA

(Crowded out last week.)
Easter has passed with beautiful weather. Mr. McVicar treated the people to a fine discourse on Sabbath and the music rendered by the choir was quite appropriate for the occasion. A large congregation was present.
Mrs. McMullen, Mr. Kard Graham and Mrs. L. Latimer spent Easter in Toronto.
Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mr. John Benson are both on the sick list, but are improving.
Mrs. McMullen spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Hammond, of Prievidge.

BEAVERDALE

(Too late for last week.)
Sugar making is not up to much so far this season.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Beard are in our burg at present attending to the syrup making. We hear that they have 200 trees tapped.
Mr. Charles Fothergill's wood bee on Wednesday last was quite a success. He had a dance at night and everyone spent an enjoyable time.
Mr. Robert Wilson, who is training in Owen Sound, spent the holidays at the homes of his uncles, Mr. R. Miller and Mr. J. Wilson. He is looking fine.
Mr. Hugh Johnston was at Clarksburg last week for a load of flour.
We are sorry to report that Mr. and Mrs. John Abercrombie have been very ill for the last few weeks and Mrs. Abercrombie is on the mend, but Mr. Abercrombie is very low at present. Their son, Will and his daughter, of Ravenna, are taking care of them.
There were five members taken of life 34 and put on line 55, which makes quite a difference.
The ladies' Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. R. Mathers on Friday afternoon last.
Mr. Thos. Wilson is engaged at Mr. C. Devitt's, of Sligo, for the summer.
