

BATTLESHIP GOLIATH SUNK

British Submarine E-14 Avengers By Sinking Two Turkish Gunboats

A despatch from London says: The British battleship Goliath has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles. It is feared 500 lives have been lost. Announcement of the loss of the Goliath was made in the House of Commons by Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty.

Mr. Churchill also announced that the British submarine E-14 had penetrated through the Dardanelles and into the Sea of Marmara, sinking two Turkish gun-boats. The Goliath was torpedoed and last sunk by Turkish destroyers night.

The Goliath was attacked and sank while protecting the flank of French troops in their operations.

TWENTY CANNON, 6,000 PRISONERS

French Official Report on the Booty Captured During the Past Week:

A despatch from Paris says: The offensive of the allies was continued to the south-west of Arras where two lines of trenches were captured and a strongly fortified wood, in which the bodies of 600 Germans were found after the battle.

Fighting in the village of Neuve St. Vaast continues. More houses held by the enemy were captured, and the losses inflicted by the artillery were extremely heavy, amounting to captured soldiers.

A German attack in the Ally wood resulted in the enemy temporarily gaining a footing in the first line of French trenches but they were repelled in a counter-attack.

With a forced pull in the fighting north of Arras on account of the condition of the ground as a result of a heavy rainfall the French army had an opportunity of examining the extent of the victory of the past week. About 100 officers have been captured since Sunday, and the French have also taken 300 men, including eight heavy guns, together with 100 machine-guns and bomb-throwers. The total prisoners taken exceeded 6,000. A conservative estimate places the total German loss at between 30,000 and 60,000.

A fleet of British and French aeroplanes delivered another aerial attack upon the German positions along the Belgian coast, destroying a number of bridges.

DEATH ROLL IS APPALLING

Enemy Sacrifices Men By Thousands in Effort to Reach Ypres

A despatch from London says: Officers arriving from France tell that the British troops, infuriated over the Lusitania disaster, are fighting with greater vigor than ever before. The news spread quickly through the army, arousing the intense indignation.

The Morning Post correspondent in Northern France says: "At no time have the Germans displayed greater determination to break through at all costs, sacrificing large numbers of men, violating every rule of God and man, in a desperate, almost despairing effort. The fighting between Ypres and Hill 62, which we still hold, has been of the most desperate description. Despite losses, we have held our own."

Last Obstacle to Lille.

On the next sector, that of the Aubers ridge, the action has been of a quite different nature. Following up our quiet, but steady progress around Armentieres and Houplines, both of which places are now under heavy bombardment, we were enabled to launch an attack upon the ridge, the last obstacle between us and the plains which lead to Lille, some five or six miles away.

"Swinging around from Fromelles to the left of our old Neuve Chapelle battle ground, the horse shoe ridge here runs in a north-easterly direction and before Fromelles there lies a small wood, similar to Pierre wood, which proved a stumbling block at Neuve Chapelle. This was quietly captured by our Indian troops—Pathans and Gurkhas.

"We opened then upon the ridge

RUSSIAN DRIVE MOVES QUICKLY

New Offensive is Forcing Austrians In Rout to the Ruth River.

A despatch from London says:

The Russian offensive in far Eastern Galicia towards Bokowina is meeting with continued success, according to the official report received from Petrograd. Counter-attacks by the Austrians have failed entirely to check the advance of the Russians, and the enemy's forces were in disorderly retreat, their formations becoming demoralized when the Czar's troops penetrated as far as Honsudka, a town some 20 miles north of the Pruth River.

Two Austrian battalions were annihilated by the Russian artillery, and several thousand men were taken prisoner. A number of guns and 50 ammunition-caissons also fell into the Russians' hands.

There is no official news from Petrograd concerning the Austro-German attack in West Galicia and the Carpathians, except for the statement that the fighting decreased in intensity on a great part of the front. An earlier official note referring to the enemy's success during the last fortnight says: "The Germans have gained no tactical success. Our reserves, by a flank blow, enabled our army to rearrange a line of advantageous positions eliminating all fear of final retreat. Our army has received strong reinforcements, and is ready to exact hearty revenge."

Those Not

of Military Age and Women Are to Be Repatriated.

A despatch from London says: Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons that "all male enemies over military age will be repatriated." He also said that women and children in suitable cases will be repatriated, though some might remain.

The Government proposes to segregate all adult male enemies for their own safety and for the safety of the country.
