Markdale.

Heinrich--MacDonald.

while the wedding march was played by Miss Kiddell.

The attendants were Mr. Angus MacDonald, of Markdale, brother of the bride and Miss Hilda Heinrich, sister of the groom. The bride was prettily attired in a gown of ivory satin with net flouncing, ornamented with pearls, a wreath and a veil of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her travelling suit was of Belgian Blue serge with hat to match. The bridesmaid's dress was cream ivory satin with net flouncing and a picture hat. Her flowers were pink roses. The groom's gifts were as follows: to the bride, a pearl pendant necklace; to the groomsmen, a pearl tie pin; to the bridesmaid, a handsome ring.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was partaken of at the groom's home, after which, the young couple, with relatives and friends motored to Marldale, leaving at 8:30 o'clock, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich will take up their residence in Waterloo.

With the Churches.

Miss Zetta Black, teacher, of Durhan, daughter of Dr. Black, Paisley, visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Firth, for the weekend. She sang a magnificent contralto solo at the morning service last Lord's Day. All enjoyed the unusual depth and sweetness of her rich contralto notes.

WODEHOUSE

(Special to The Standard.)

The trustees of New England Church and Cemetery are making arrangements for a general cleaning up of the Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, June 15th, and request all members of the Church and all who own plots or are interested in the Cemetery to come along early after dinner prepared to do a little work in putting the grounds in tidy shape.

Mr. Willard Wiley had an experience a few days ago which he does not care to repeat on his next trip to Markdale. While going out with a load of hay, his team took fright at an auto and the road being narrow with a deep drain on each side, it did not take long to turn the load wrong side up. The horses took the running reins of the wagon up the road a short distance, when they stopped to eat grass as if nothing had happened. Willard being of an athletic disposition jumped clear of the load and landed in the fence corner none the worse for his exploit.

Mr. Sam Doherty and his daughter, Mrs. Morwood, were in this neighborhood one day recently.

Well, Cherry Grove, I think we should feel sorry for our worthy kiverdale Cor, for it appears as if he has been indulging in something stronger than hubbard pie, "probably an overdose of prunes," for if he refers to the Standard of May 13th, he will find that the word he accuses Wodehouse Cor of changing is spelled Agricultural pronunciation. Don't you think the Angels should web over the other fellow at present?

A rain which put a smile on the faces of the farmers of this community fell in this vicinity on Monday afternoon. It is hard to estimate the value it will be to the growing crops, as it was badly needed.

Don't forget the "leaning up bee" at New England Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, June 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harbottle and son, Arnold, visited the former's brother near Salem one day recently.

ROCKLYN

Mrs. Fred McCullough has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Toronto.

We are sorry to report Mrs. (Dr.) Miller on the sick list.

Mrs. Caesar of Harkaway, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. McCullough.

Miss Miller, of Owen Sound, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Miller this week.

Mrs. Morwood, of Meaford, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Cook.

Miss Lily Curry spent a few days with friends in Meaford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Currie spent a day with friends in Kimberley recently.

A number from here attended the celebrations at Kimberley and Clarksville on the 3rd of June.

P.S.—According to Lord Kitchener, the big war has only begun.
