Cr "The Adventures of Ledgard." By the Author of 'What He Cost Her."

CHAPTER V .- (Cont'd).

Trent turned his back upon him in more. You might leave me the small speech. Captain Francis lit a cigar-ette and walked across towards to
"Then why," Da Souza asked, looking up with twinkling eyes, "do you want to sell me a share in it?"

"Because I haven't a darned cent to "Yes."

A sky like flame and an atmosphere of sulphur. No breath of air, not a strong ruffle in the great, drooping leaves of the African trees and dense, prickly shrubs. All round the dank, nausceous odor of poison flowers, the ceaseless dripping of poisonous moisture. From the face of the man who stood erect, unvanquished as yet in the struggle for life, the fierce sweat poured like rain—his older companion had sunk to the ground and the spasms of an ugly death were twitching at the care witching at the care which had sunk to the ground and the spasms of an ugly death were twitching at the care which had prompted him to leave this picture with the dying man.

If suppose you'd best have it," he said sullenly at last.

But Monty shook his head feebly and hounds before—no, nor five thousand pence, but, as I'm a living man det pence, but, as I'm a living m

"The clause which-at my death-

"and I saw it through! You did not thing but find a bit of brass. It was (To be continued.) only square that the odds should be in my fayor. Besides, you agreed.
You signed the thing."

"But I wasn't quite well at the time," Monty faltered. "I didn't quite ling a Balkan Agreement.

understand. No, Trent, it's not quite fair. I did a bit of the work at least, Trent, you can spare a small share. Bulgaria's entrance into the war There's a letter here! It's to my law- on the side of England, France, Rusvers. They'll tell you all about her."

Trent held out his hands for the letter.

"All right," he said, with sullen un-Trent, you'll keep your word"

Monty begged. "I'd like her to know

Monty begged. "I'd like her to know that I thought of her."

"Oh, very well," Trent declared, thrusting the letter into his pocket.

thrusting the letter into his pocket.
"It's a bit outside our agreement, you know, but I'll see to it anyhow. Anything else?"

Monty fell back speechless. There was a sudden change in his face. Trent, who had seen men die before, let go his hand and turned away without any visible emotion. Then he drew himself straight, and set his teeth hard together.

drew himself straight, and set his teeth hard together.

"I'm going to get out of this," he said to himself slowly and with fierce emphasis. "I'm not for dying, and I won't die."

He stumbled on a few steps, a little black snake crept out of its bed of mud, and looked at him with yellow ting a bit easier—I fancy we're on eyes protruding from its upraised the right track and we've given those head. He kicked it savagely away— Monty was sitting up when they the right track and we've given those head. He kicked it savagely away—reached the hist, but at the sight of black keylis the slip! Nusse your a crumbled, shapeless mass. It was Trent's companion he cowered back strength! You've a chance! Let me a piece of brutality typical of the and affected sleepiness. This time, be. It's no use carrying a dead man." Ahead he fancied that the air Trefit's companion he cowered back and affected sleepiness. This time, however, Francis was not to be defined. He walked to Monty's side, and steed booking down upon him.

"I think," he said gently, "that we have met before."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off to gene."

"A mistake," Monty declared, "Never saw you in my life. Just off the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of Sam's smooth jargon I would give the swamps dry! Oh! when I think of

The officer looked his man up and down.

"We're in a pretty rough country," he said, "and a man gets into the habit of having his own way here. But Monty, in whose veins was the chill of death and who sought only listen to me! If anything happens to you'l have me to recken with. I shall not forget. We are bound to meet! Remember that!"

Trent turned his back upon him in a fit of passion which choked down all

"Yes."
"The picture—just for a moment.
I'd like to have one look at her!"

bless—myself with," Trent answered curly. "I've got to have really money.
I've never had my fist on five thous-CHAPTER VI.

I'd like to have one look at her!"

Trent drew it out from his pocket—and pounds before—no, nor five thousand pence, but, as I'm a living man,

Perfect Tea must be used for a perfectly satisfactory Trent took it with an odd sense of cost us weeks and months in the bush shame which puzzled him. He was and amongst the swamps—it cost a not often subject to anything of the man's life, not to mention the niggers sort. | we lost. Come, I'm not here to play "It belongs to you, Trent. I lost it skittles. Are you on for a deal or on the square; and it's the only so- not? If you're doubtful about it I've on the square; and it's the only so not? If you're doubtful about it I've cial law I've never broken—to pay another market. Say the word and my gambling debts. There's one word we'll drink and part, but if you want "Yes."

"It's about that clause in our agreement. I never thought it was quite fair, you know, Trent!"

"Which clause?"

"The clause are my terms.

Five thousand for a sixth share!"

"Sixth share?"

"Sixth share?"

Trent nodded.

"The thing!"

least," he said. "A sixth share is a makes you sole owner of the whole great fortune. Don't waste any time concession. You see—the odds were turning up the whites of your eyes scarcely even, were they? It wasn't at me. I've named my terms and I likely anything would happen to shan't budge from them. You can lay your bottom dollar on that."

Da Souza took up the document ing a Balkan Agreement. It is one of the little jokes of fate and I'm paying for it with my life!"

"What's it matter to you now?"

Trent said, with unintentional brutality. "You can't take it with you."

Monty raised himself up a little.

His eyes, lit with feverish fire, were fastered upon the other row. fastened upon the other man. It is coronation of George V.—that he "There's my little gir]!" he said Prince Alexander, should be, in June, hoarsely. "I'd like to leave her some-thing. If the thing turns out big, destinies of Europe. the coronation of George V. that he > sia, and Italy would, it is quite openly stated in each of their capitals. help to bring about an early termina-Rumania, now fearful of a Bulgarian Tea is the acme of perfection, being all pure. Black, Mixed or Green. delicious tea.

sown broadcast, before or diring

Hints for the Farmer. There is big difference between rain, often helps them to fill out. conomy and stinginess. We have seen a man treat a $150 as though he was worth only

The telephone cannot take the place of a hired man, but it helps wonder-ully.

Grows eat ants, beetles, caterpil- range and feeding all they will eat helped out by the flower designs are lars, bugs, grubs,, etc., which do up clean. much damage.

Charcoal in a granulated form should always be kept before fowls of all ages.

To get white cauliflower tie the leaves over the head as soon as the head is formed.

A hog in a good pasture or one that is fed regularly seldom does much damage by rooting.

A garden is more bother than it is worth unless you get fruits and vogetables that are really better than those you can buy. Make it a point to have some choice male it a point to nave some choice male lambs to sell to your neighbors who would like something better than they now have.

When setting any of the bush fruits ation should be given to the question the top should be pruned to corre of environment. Where one breed spond to the root pruning the plant would be a failure another would per lictors color; somebody might one

It is about as profitable to try to do two things at once as it is to try venting the usual loss from the corn: to raise two crops on the same piece fields, but it is the only way and the terial suitable for the first decision f ground at the same time. best way for preserving the Teeding The wise dairyman will keep his elements of the corn plant. The silo

What to Wear and How to Wear It Time was and not very long ago, either—when a gross of buttons were used as a transming for a single gown.

Now hattacholes are used instead A very charming frock has two long godets on either side of the fell skirt, and each seam is outlined with skirt, and each scam is outsned was a two-inch band of black tasets. across which, one inch apart, are beconholes done in white silk, Little godets or dog's ears-gives flare to the jacket, and the scams of these are outlined after the same manner. The effect is most unusual.

Contemplation of the stitches taken in the hundreds of buttonholes is pesitively paralyzing to the woman "who hates to sew." Although tuttonholes are prefus and numerous, buttons have not log their vogue ertirely, though they are no longer employed in squads and by the wholesaie. They are used now in embroidery ca The cow's pdder should be well washed and dried with a coarse cloth net, taking the places of spangles and before milking, and the milker's sequins. The best quality of jet beats hands should be washed after every come from Rohemia-or did come come from Bohemia-or did come before the European madness brite locse and, since they are scarce now, Warm weather is the time to make buttons are used instead. growth in the hogs. Push the shoats helped out by tiny buttons, a flat ye There are many rough hillsides and low sat a button posing gayly as the pastures which are now bringing no ton doing service as a make-believe returns that could be made profitable, ton doing service as a make-believe were they planted to had trees, es-by hand embroidery. Only the light pecially walnuts

Celery, cabbage, and other plants rest weight buttons are used, as not appear to grow filmier and fraise planted once or twice before going every minute. heavier root system, which is desir- keep up with the names of new of Scald the drinking vessels in the poultry yard often so they will harbor disease germs.

Scald the drinking vessels in the harbor disease germs.

A good many farmers who neglectage it goodness only knows. ors. How the clerks in the shops man poultry yard often so they will not harbor disease germs.

Countries adapted to sheep raising become large consumers of mutton as the keelinging they had them in the large consumers of mutton as the keelinging the had them in which was the large carry in the space. the beginning
Use the spray pump to whitewash your poultry house. Make a good whitewash, adding a little carbolic Belgium blue has just become famidar to the human car when it is 'crowifed out by raven's wing bleer! whitewash, adding a little carbolic soldat. The best freen new is acid, and spray the building thorough "sage," which is an old name give, to ly, covering every bit of the surface, and the house will be wonderfully yellows.

Watermelon pirk is lusaious in the new taffetas and has a glimmer of frost, as if the melen had just'e me haps be a success.

The sile is not the only tray of prealong and gar you!

best way for preserving the feeding broading over the last nnd ar ture. Dale fo Welling He who is false to breaks a the at it to find the flaw when he'd gotten its expected Mil In Christian !! ness of the of it is to through suffering: izes even the lower chame

Do not ent be abswerable morrow. Do not weeken and diese yourself by looking forwards to the you cannot see an I would a total stand if you saw them - Kingser True it is that one che same? that education which tenches were everything except hersed-except things that relate to her own itewomanly destiny, and, on the ples the holiness of ignorance, sends his without a word of just council in the tempfations of life. Estat Beecher Stowe.

In three years a beech tree and 1 ft. 8 ins.; a willow, 9 ft. 3 ins.

Fashion Hints

"Oh, dear, I do hate sewing." Mary to herself, as she sat live fire clumsily stitching which nurse had said ed before she could go and play. go in, do," she said, the ing to the stuff, and bending it so that most broke, and then the needle in suddenly and pricked her in "Oh-h-h," and she began to ery. "It oserves you right," "for hutting no bluntly. you have; Pyd hardly my poin "Oh, dear, I'm sure you mig said Mary, looking at her per

Young Folks

"Just" as though 1 through enough already the needle.

"Why, I've only were a new one."
"I don't mean through cloth," replied the needle; wery as bright as I an whit I mean."

What do you mean,
Mary, and she left off "Well, I haven't long and then I was very you know.

"No, I don't know, eagerly; "please tell. were made." The needle eagerness, and unbent have to go through tw rate processes before use," it 'announced, sparkled proudly. "What was the fire Mary.

The first thing that tor I had been cut with others from a length of wire was I was heated a time, and taken out un iron-topped table; rubbed with the other file! this straightened me, "("I believe it had given it." thought Mary finger again, but, the ne speaking of that sort Then we were carries face of a stone driven a and as we were all kept the same time we soon ful point cach. "How was vour eve Mary.

"My eye was knocked the Needle. "Knocked out!" opening her eyes very shment; "how dreadful! "Not at all," said the first the size and shape was marked out on me, hole was stamped out." 'Oh, you do seem to rough time," said Mary "Oh, but my eye with smooth," said the Need standing her, for I w with the others on a pe and then the wire wiwe were jerked about all our rough eyes became bright, like you see mir the Needle's eye such with pride ag "Well, you have had tures," exclaimed Mary

"Oh, that's rot all oplied the Need e, "but you a' few of the other we were heated, and into a bath of dil to tena Then we were all mixed emery powder, and put canvas for about nine which time we were reder heavy pieces of w Needle groaned at the "then we were sharper more and polished," add "and then put to bed is this time between paper us, in mile packets. "Yes certainly have good deal, as you-say," and she picked up the gan sewing again. "And now something through me instead," air to itself, as it fell off the the fender and rolled has ashes, and got lost. HURRY GERMAN CROI Hot Water Pipes Placed Soil to Induce Growth (Since the beginning Germany's chemists, me and others, have been ha studying agricultural whereby the soil could ! the fullest extent in yielding in order that the supply of not be menaced seriously. The Berliner Tageblatt that experiments made by Kubler, of the Technical 1 of Dresden, have shown surprisults, so much so that the may revolutionize agriculture, Professor Kubler's idea part certain warmth artificially soil, and the method he allopte! been remarkably successful, so the crops can be grown and harvested in very short time, and sey ral considered throughout the year.

The method consists his princing pipes underground and feeling water through them at a proper tempera-ture to generate warmth in the earth this warmth rising up in the ground to the vegetation and giving impetus to their growth, no matter what the meather may be above ground.

There is no should be found to be set the set of the control of th FOR YOUR NEXT BATCH OF PRESERVES Buy good Fruit which must not be over-ripe, and what is equally important, use good Sugar.

The slightest impurity (organic matter) in the Sugar will start fermentation in the jam, and preserves which were well cooked and carefully bottled, become acid and uneatable after a few months,

You are absolutely safe with the ST. LAWRENCE EXTRA GRANULATED SUGAR which is made from Cane and tests.

If you profer a very fine grain—a medium one or one quite turge, your grocer can suit your tastein St. Lawrence which is offered in the three grades in 2 lb. and 5 lb. Cartons, and bags of 10, 20, 25 and 163 lbs.

Buy in Refinery sealed packages to avoid migtakes and astere over 99.99 per cent pure. YL .: Sold by most good Grocers ST. LAWRENCE SUGAR REFINERIES, LIMITED, MONTREAL