Trent set his teeth hard and he never blenched.

"He was my partner, but he died in the swamps, poor chap. We had horrible weather coming back. It pretty nearly finished me."

Trent did not mention the fact that for four days and nights they were hiding in holes and up trees from the natives whom the King of Bekwando had sent after them, that their bearbeen compelled to leave the track and make their way through an unknown part of the bush.

started. We neither of us took much! stock in our relations. If I had died, in the faint monning of the wind Monty would have taken the lot. It restless animals. Nearer there was a fair deal. You'll find it there!" restless animals. Nearer there was a fair deal. You'll find it there!"

"He is as dead,"," he said, "as Ju- of forest. "If I offered you——" Da Souza be-nine hundred and ninety-nine hundred and ninety-nine pounds," Trent interrupted roughly.

"I would tell you to go. to glory."

Da Souzh sighed. It was nan to deal

"My dear friend," he said, "you are ters.

with you."

Trent slowly returned. His manner showed no exultation:

"You have the money here?" he asked.

Some mysterious manner certain scenes in his life which were now very rarely brought back to him. The event of to-day he knew to be the cultasked.

His employer grunted in manner.

said, "which we must now talk about."

"To-morrow," Trent said curtly.
"No more now! I haven't got over my miserable journey yet. I'm go ing to try and get some sleep."

He swung into the heavy darkness, The air was thick with unwholesome odors rising from the lake-like swamp

Where other men had failed he had "What's your salary?" he asked. "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

"And you mean to say you can't what do you do with your money, che how do you spend it? Drink and music-halls, of the princes of the ventured most respectfully."

The young man, who had filled he had "What's your salary?" he asked. "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

"And you mean to say you can't you do with your money, che how do you spend it? Drink and music-halls, of the princes of the ventured most respectfully."

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled he had "What's your salary?" he asked. "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled he had "What's your salary?" he asked. "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

The young man, who had filled he had "What's your salary?" he asked. "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man, who had filled he had "Two pounds fifteen shillings a week, sir."

The young man, who had filled his trees respectably on that?

The young man week, sir."

The young man week, sir."

odors rising from the lake-like swamp beyond the drooping circle of trees.

He walked a little way towards the do, sir?"

The young man was able at last to find some spark of dignity. A pink sea, and sat down upon a log. A Trent walks from his day door.

The property of sea, and sat down upon a log. A faint land-breeze was blowing, a melancholy soughing came from the edge of the forest only a few hundred wards heals. yards back, sullen, black, impene-trable. He turned his face inland unwillingly, with a superstitious little can go."
thrill of fear. Was it a coyotte callIt was significant of the man that, ing, or had he indeed heard the moan notwithstanding his hour of triumph, of a dying man, somewhere back he did not depart in the slightest de-

CHAPTER VI. (Cont'd). amongst that dark, gloomy jungle "The concession," he remarked, "is granted to Scarlett Trent, and to one Monty jointly. Who is this Monty, and what has he to say to it?"

"The concession," he remarked, "is He scoffed at himself! Was he becoming as a girl, weak and timid? Yet a moment later he closed his eyes, and pressed his hands tightly over his hot available. He was a second with the second his hands tightly over his hot available. moment, later he closed his eyes, and pressed his hands tightly over his hot eyeballs. He was a man of little imaginative force, yet the white face of a dying man seemed suddenly to to have come to him like a will-o'-the-wisp from the swamp, and the hollow lifeless eyes seemed ever to be seek-ing his, mournful and eloquent with with an oath and wiped the sweat "Another fool's hour like this," he muttered, "and the fever will have me. Come out of the shadows, you

"But your partner's share," the Jew white-faced, skulking reptile, you—sked. "What of that?" the Jew bah! what a blithering fool I am! There is no one there! How could hortly. "We fixed it so before we tarted. We neither of instead much The Jew nodded.

"And your partner?" he said. "You saw him die! There is no doub about that!"

Trent nodded.

"And your partner?" he said. "You loud and moved away to spend his last right in his little wooden home. On the threshold he paused, and faced once more that black, mysterious line.

"Well, I've done with you now." circl, a note of coarse exultation in his tone. "I've gambled for my life and I've won. To-morrow I'll begin

The plained skirt for the young find and mingty-mine pounds," Trent interrupted oughly. "The plained skirt for the young state the great number, seen at the sate whether steeping a great success, if we shorter steeper, and a circular peplum. The plained skirt for the young still is proving a great success, if we shorter steeper, and a circular peplum. The plained skirt for the young the said, "You are less than a state of the sake shorter steeper and on here of the largest hotels in London a man was stilling at the head of the was the still proving a creat success, if we have the success of the head of the was the still proving a creat success, if we have the success of the head of the was the success of the head of the was the success of the part of t gree from the cold gruffness of his tone. The little speech which his

"My dear friend," he said, "you are so abrupt. Now listen. I will give you five thousand for a quarter share. It is half my fortune."

"Give me, the concession," Trent said. "I'm off."

"For a fifth," his Souza cried. Trent moved by the does not be peech. Dis Souza grouned. "You will ruin me," he said, "I'm had pepared to do but little had appeared to do but little had per series to the many the said heen hussings, and his words had been few. Yet he remained the mass susty share. It is throwing money (a sixth share. It is not my blook shared by the sale and money (a sixth share) in the way of persuasion. His manners and let ters.

"If you think so, you'd better not every few do.

"If you think so, you'd better not every few do.

"If you thin

SMART CLOTHES FOR THE YOUNG GIRL.

His employer grunted in an ominous

"What's your salary?" he asked.
"Two pounds fifteen shillings week, sir."

into the present. He looked around the room and saw that no papers had been omitted. Then he glanced keemclerk had prepared seemed to stick in his throat.

"I trust, sir, that you will forgive—that you will pardon the liberty, if I presume to congratulate you upon such a magnificent stroke of business!"

"Scarlett Trent repeated with contempt, "and all the rest of it, you young men are! Here would nave no right to object to you young men are! Here would have no right to object to with your you know about it?" he asked. "What concern is it of yours, young man, eh?"

The clerk sighed, and became a little confused. He had indulged in some wistful hopes that for once his master might have relaxed, that an opportune word of congratulation might awaken some, spark of generosity in the man who had just added a fortune to his great store. He had (To be continued.)

"A wife," Scarlett Trent repeated was silent.

"A wife," Scarlett Trent repeated with the world, with your donkeys the selling of arms and ammunition the the world, with your yay to make in the world, with your yay to make in the world, with your got scarcely upon the world, with your foot scarcely upon the world, with your of the ladder, grubbing the war in short order if we would slong on a few shillings a week, and you choose to go and chuck away a world chance you ever might have for And we are asked to do this in the face, I suppose. A moonlight walk on a Bank Holiday, a little maudian sentiment, and over you throw sill for the war by a military policy of the world, with a sneer. They tell us that we could stop world chance you ever might have for And we are asked to do this in the face, I suppose. A moonlight walk on the world, with your chances in life. No worlder the rules of the world, with your day to make in the world, with your day to make in the world, with your day to make in the world, with your the world, with your the world, with your chances in life world. They would have no repeated the world with your follows. They tell us that we could stop only prohibit these sales. Yes, by giving Germany the victory, perhaps. They world was a more of neut friendly act, but because of the im- and save her own existence, immepossibility of either of these coundiately, and without warning, stepped or showed no exultation.

· Ladies' Home Journal Pattern No.

You have the money here? he asked.
Da Souza hid down a heap of notes and gold upon the table. Trent count, them carefully and thrust them into his pocket. Then he took up a pen and wrote his name at the foot of the assignment which the Jew had Da Souza shots his head.

The less we drink in this country. The sast to poison. Ill smile upon his lips, he recalled one by one the various enterprises into which by one the various enterprises into which be not asked.

The less we drink in this country. The less we drink in this country and was every the policy and of their ports is so come that delivery is out of the question. The delivery is out of the question. The delivery is out of the tries to receive the goods s'apuld they "Have a drink," he asked.

Da Souza shook his head.
The less we drink in this country," he said, "the better. Il guess out here in the higher lands whither the faces of all men are turned. With a grim one the various enterprises into which he had entered, the courage with which he had forced them through, the solid strength with with which he had forced them through, the solid strength with with which he had thrust weaker men to the wall, and thrust weaker. The province of the deprived of it. They will sell wall and thrust weaker men to the wall and thrust weaker. The province of the face to the deprive of the total thrust weaker men to the wall, and thrust weaker men to the wall, and thrust weaker men to th to you on the same terms." Ger-many replies, "We do not want your arms and ammunition, as we have plenty of our own. We only want your wheat and cotton, but Great Brieak in upon the oyer.

Is there anything more for me to sir?"

Irent woke from his day-dream to the present. He looked around e room and saw that no papers had sen omitted. Then he glanced keen perhaps—I have a wife to keep, and sen of the he said. "You can go."

"Nothing more," he said. "You can go."

"I was significant of the man that, him a soit of quickening fly in the face of that brutal stare. He did not attend music halls, sir, other words, Germany, true to more instincts, insists upon "hogging" the whole business. But, be it said to Germany's credit, that the Imperial Government has never made such an outlandish claim, nor ventured to put such a narrow construction upon the great law of nations.

The only objections have come from the German newspapers and a feature of the german tone. The little speech which his place features. He hung his head and irresponsible persons in this country.

then we are bound to inquire upon

"As you like it"

SEALED PACKETS BLACK, MIXED OR GREEN.

plan of co-operation among dairymen for the purpose of regularly and conding ally testing their cows for production of milk and butter fat. A present Jiave Babcock's csters?"

Twelve out of a gathering of 10 and swered in the affirmative only only dairying think in terms of butter fat. one answered in the affirmative only only dairying think in terms of butter fat. dairying think in terms of butter fat, one answered in the affirmuttive. and if the above average be translated to fat it makes about 150 pounds. tions is to make the use of scales and feature.

At a recent dairymen's meeting this , The The cow testing associations is a point was raised—that a text no association plan of co-operation among dairymen clation was not necessary, lectures plants

At 30 cents a pound, which has been Babcock madhine a community affair 8980 is a Ladies' and Misses' Peplum the average price for the last three —to unite dairymen into a prince style waist, opening in front with roll colyears the annual income per cow is ship for the purpose of eracle ying a the may not be concerned in the butduties of a tester is to weight a deep in the ter fat content farther than is necesa record of food consumed by the add I we the sary to keep up to legal standard, but cows. The cost to the dary han for one who is selling butter fat is vitally complete testing varies from a cent's led standard to concerned in the amount each cow prote $1.50 a year for such con. This away."

"If you think so lyou'd better not avictory, not only financial but morth over min whose experience and knowly of the doorway. "Jost as you say."

If it is not your business, and I am sorry that no or pretends to any such a charge to the American Government. It is to any such a business, as she the people of this U. S. is the people of the American Government. It is to any such a business, and I am sorry that the concession of the American Government. It is the American Government to the American Government. It is the American Government. It is t who :.

CHAS. M BICE.

mortger h

chemie . .

few w niten ... been de Sir Jol.

11:35

134

army

British

For sixty years the Redba Refinery has led Canada in modern equipment, up-to-date methods, and the pursuit of one ideal-absolutely pure sugar.

In the Packages introduced by Acceptable -the 2 and 5 lb. Cartons and the 10, 20, 50 and 100 lb. Cloth Bags - you get Canada's favorite sugar, in perfect condition.

"Let Redsall Sweeten it"

CANADA SUGAR REFINING CO., LIMITED, MONTREAL

Fashion Hints

Style Notes of the Moment

Silks are departing from the silk treathe most exclusi

ing with me of STANDARD is published on Thursday C. W. RUTLEDGE,

The Markdale

Subscription, $1 to year; going to the U.S. fifty cents for postage. Twenty five dent ed when not paid in advance paper discontinued until all a are paid, except at the opt

Advertising rates 10 chinch per week for displa single column measure. notices five cents per line Stock, grain, or articles up to five lines, 25 cents f. insertion. Stray animals of cents, three weeks $1.00 Memorial poetry, 10 cent All correspondence intend the firm should be address Markdale Standard Make

Standard Clubbing Rh

Standard and -Weekly Mail Saturday Globe Christian Guardian. Family Herald Weekly Witness .. Weekly Sentinoi .. ! Teronto Sun Farmer's Advocate. Daily News Daily Star Daily Globe ... Thim and Dairy . Canadian Farm . .

BUSINESS DIREC

Northern Messen

MISCELLANE DUB Rocklyn, Ont. Issher Licenses. Busines

dential W. . C, '184718 The Painter Wnd Markdale. Estimating tracting done. The later in Wall Paper kept and R J. SPROULE. Deeds, Mortgages, Learn drawn up and Valuation shortest notice. Charges Apply to R. J. Sproule.

LEGAL

P. McCULLOUGH Barrister, Solicitor, etc. Main street, Markdale. 33

LUCAS, RANHY & H Barristers, Solicitors, Officed -Lucas Block, Traders Ba I. B. Lucas, K.C. W K.C., W. D. Henry, B.A.

DENTISTRY.

DR. J. A. MacARTH Dentist. Office in Artley Bowes' hardware (tore) at couthwest corner

Toronto street. L. G. CAMPBELL (L.D.S., D.D.S.) Dental Surgeon. Straduct tario College of Dentistry Graduate versity of Torontos Office post-office Office hours, p.m. Parties calling atte please call up residence l telephone in reception re-

G. R. MILLER, M.B.M. Rocklyn Ont. Graduate of the Medical F Queon's University Kings Late House Surgeon in the and Marine Hospital, Own Phone 213r3 and 51r3) 1;

FRATERNAL.

A. F. & A. M. Hiram Lodge, No. 190, Markdale, meets in Masoni McFarland Block, on Tuesda ing on or before the full mys month. Visiting brethren ly invited. Rev. R M. Phe M.; H. C. Duff, Scerctary.

C. O. C. F., No. 313. Court Markdale, Qanadian hosen Friends, No. 313 fourth Tuesday in the anis' fiall at 8 octo R. Smith, Chief Councille Ennis, Recorder.

SAUGEEN LODGE, No. Meets every Friday at 7,20 in their fall, Main street. Boward, N.G.; W. C. Davi

COURT GREY, 1151, C.O. Meets every second and fourth nesday of the month in Ma Hall, at 8 p.m. Visiting breth wave well-research Ways welcome. Wm. And A. McEachnie, Fin. Sec. Wm. Anderson C.R.