does not follow that warriors must be endowed with hellish dispositions Your present mission is as sacred as the Crusades of the Middle Ages; nay it is more sacred. The object of those old Crusaders was to rescue the tomb of Christ from the Saracens. Your mission is more exalted. Not only the tomb of the founder, but the distinctive principles, of Christianity are assailed and threatened. It's yours to prove that the Gospel of "Love and Sacrifice" is superior to "The Will to Power." "Chants of Hate" are un-British, so are their results viz: Louvain, Aerschot and Senlis atrocities

War affords you enough methods of punishing the aggressors without vio lating the recognized rules and with out you becoming a human devil.
