The East Grey Teachers' Convention at Thornbury on Thursday and Friday last is reported a good one with an interesting programme throughout. There was a good attendance from this side of the inspectorate among those present being Mr. Holland, Miss Switzer, Miss Lowndes, Miss Wilson and Mr. T. Chard, of Flesherton and Mr. Griffin, of Cay-

lon. At the concert given in behalf of the Red Cross Fund 896 were raised and it was resolved that the teachers of the Association each give one day's pay to the Red Cross, which will aggregate over $400, altogether a good contribution to this worthy object.
Mr. T. Chard, who has enlisted here, was presented with a watch by the teachers. Mr. Pugh of Thornbury, was elected President for the ensuing year and it was resolved that next meeting be held at Flesherton.
The Misses Lily and Beatrice Thistlewaite were home from Toronto over Thanksgiving.
A union Thanksgiving service was held in the Methodist Church on Monday forenoon. Rev. Mr. Kerr preached a good sermon, fitting the occasion.
The Methodist congregation was without a preacher on Sunday morning last. The pastor at New England for whom Rev. Mr. Dudgeon conducted anniversary service was expected, but disappointed.
Service in the Presbyterian church will be withdrawn next Sunday on account of anniversary services at Proton Station, which will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, whose pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Mr. McVicar.
Miss Wallace spent last week in Toronto with her sister, Mrs. R. McLeman, whose husband was drowned in Lake Erie on September 26th during the storm which wrecked the schooner Cheboygan, on which he was one of the crew. The body was recovered on Saturday last and taken to Port Hope for burial. The deceased, who was 35 years of age, leaves his widow and three children who have the sympathy of their friends here.
The Misses Florence and Bryce Welton and Miss Dorothy Taylor, of Mt. Forest, were visiting at Mr. C. B. Welton's over the weekend.
There was a large attendance at the Women's Institute meeting last week when the membership of the past three months closed. Mrs. W. Henry and Mrs. W. Moore were the captains, the former winning by 65 points. The contest resulted in a large increase to the membership from 46 to 187.
A number of sports from the village attended a shooing match at Mr. W. Wycoot's on Thanksgiving day, when a number of fine birds were won in the contest.
