10 CENT "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Billiousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable you are from constipation, indigestion, billiousness and sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets. They immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and head clear for months. They work while you sleep.

Members of the Reid and Patterson families of Egremont spent the first of the week at Councillor Peart's.

We didn't feel like writing a budget last week, after dropping sheaves to the O'Neil threshing outfit all day. They did great work along the 6th con. and have a smooth-running outfit.

All the teachers in Glenelg except one, attended the Teacher's Convention in Durham on Thursday and Friday last, and report it as one of the most successful ever held in the inspectorate.

'Twas among the best held yet, is the common verdict of the big crowd of fair ones who attended the Women's Institute meeting at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McArthur on Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. W. J. Cook had a valuable paper on Vegetables and every member responded readily to the Roll Call. They brought jam enough to fill a sugar barrell to forward to the soldiers at the front, Mrs. McArthur and daughter treated all to a dainty lunch, at the close. Perhaps the most important item of business, was arranging for a big patriotic concert in Zion on Friday evening of this week. Dr. Jamieson has promised to preside and give a speech and the genial Dr. is getting to be one of the most affable and pleasing speakers in Ontario. Inspector N. W. Campbell is to give an address suitable for the occasion, and he is one of the fluent and talented educationalists of the province. There is to be song and music galore and a lunch served at the close of the programme. The proceeds are in behalf of the County Motor Ambulance.

The ladies of this place are doing their part toward raising funds toward an ambulance for the soldiers as a voice from our County Grey, also recognizing Trafalgar Day, 21st of October.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

Lance Corporal T. A. Jamieson, a victim of German gas at the battle of St. Julien, who has been invalided home with an honorable discharge, arrived here on Monday of last week and was given a hearty welcome by a large crowd at the depot on arrival of the evening train. The following evening under direction of the village Council he was tendered a hearty reception in the High School which was packed with an enthusiastic assembly of citizens to do the returned soldier honor. Headed by the band a torch light procession followed by a number of well laden autos paraded the streets, the young hero occupying Councillor Munshaw's prettily decorated car accompanied by his mother and his friend Mrs. Smith of Eugenia, whose son was also in the battle of St. Julien, but made a German prisoner. Arriving at the High School the modest Corporal, seized by his companions was borne on their shoulders to the platform, receiving an ovation not soon to be forgotten, Reeve McTavish presided and inspiring Patriotic addresses were given by Mr. M. K. Richardson, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon and Rev. M. McVicar together with a reading by Miss Lowndes, a chorus by the public school boys and musical numbers by Messrs Murray, Holland and Sullivan, Miss Irene Wilson, Miss Reta Buskin and the Misses Henderson, Messrs Tom Chard, Joe Legard, Elvyn Jamieson and Charles Adams, who have enlisted, were called on and each in a few words expressed his feeling of duty and willingness to do his bit for King and Country. It would have pleased the audience to have heard Corp. Jamieson, who had some thrilling experiences in the trenches, and to which he would willingly return, but his physical condition prevented an attempt at a platform talk. Hearty cheers were given for the returned soldier, the boys who have enlisted, and those at the dront. Refreshments were served by the ladies, who thus contributed their quota to the pleasure of the evening.

At a special meeting of the Artemesia Council on Saturday, a strong deputation from Eugenia and Ceylon presented petitions from the ratepayers of the villages praying the Council to take the necessary steps to have electric light supplied to them by the doubtlessly be secured though Hydro Commission, this will there may be a little delay in completing the contracts to satisfy all parties. A representative of the Commission was present to give information
