25 YEARS AGO.

Items of Interest From The Standard Files of
Nov. 20th, 1890.

Mrs. Isaac Brown, whose reason is unbalanced, was taken last week to Hamilton asylum.

A sidewalk is being built from the west corner of the Methodist parsonage to the new school.

Rev. Mr. Emes, Presbyterian, has resigned his charge here, and is at present living at Flesheron.

Mr. James Lackey has decided to move his saw-mill from Van-deleur to Elliot's corner, a mile from Markdale.

We notice by the Brandon Mail, that Mr. John Hanbury of that town, formerly of Markdale, has purchased the Brandon planing mill.

Mr. Shepherd Boyce of Glenelg, who lost his dwelling by fire, six months ago, has erected a new house and is again comfortably settled.

A meeting was held on Friday evening to consider the propriety of organizing a Literary Society in connection with the Mechanic's Institute. The following officers were elected:

W. J. McFarland, president of Mechanic's Institute, Hon. President; Wm. Lucas, President; Dr.
Ego, Vice-President; I. B. Lucas; Sec-Treasurer. Program Committee, Messrs W. Turner, C. W. Cas-sion, T. L. Moffat, Mrs. William Brown, Miss Mabel Mathews, and Miss Belle Benson, the officers together with Messrs W. A. Brown, appointed to draft a constitution.

ember 15th at 10 a. m.

Exchange of Business.
Mr. J. Chapman, who has conducted an undertaking business in Owen Sound for something over two years, has exchanged business with Mr. W. H. Bunt, furniture dealer and undertaker of Flesheron.

The exchange is to take place before Dec. 1st. While regretting the removal of Mr. Chapman, no doubt Mr. Bunt will make a very desirable citizen of our town.

All Volunteered.
Col. Chisholm this week received a letter from Divisional headquarters asking him to forward a list of all the officers of the 31st Regiment with their age, rank and addresses, who are willing to serve with troops billeted in different places during the winter and to go overseas, if required.

A copy of this letter was sent to each of the officers with a request for a reply in writing and the result was that every one of the local officers have volunteered their services and have signed their willingness to go if called upon and to serve in any capa-

Last Sailings of Local Vessels.
The last boat of the Dominion Transportation Company to sail will leave here on Thursday, Nov.
25th and the last Northern Navigation Company Steamer will sail on Nov. 27th. It is not known which steamers will sail on these dates, as the boats are not now running according to schedule on either of the lines. The C. P.
R. Company will probably make another sailing from this port next week. The Manitoba line is about noon yesterday cleared for Fort William and last evening. One of the C. P. R. boats will likely call next week on the last trip of the season.—Sun,
Nov. 19th.

Using Eugenia Current.
Wednesday evening about 9.30 a house of the electric lights for an instant was quite significant in that when the lights came on it was hydro electric current from Eugenia Power plant. During the evening a score of experts were at the local power-house phasing the current generated at Eugenia with that of the steam power plant in order to fit into the equipment which will be temporarily used until the installation of the new apparatus at the new transformer station is completed.

The phasing completed, the three big engines were stopped and for the first time the "juice" went through the town's system, into the various sections, and without a hitch. And was already in use yesterday when the opening at Eugenia Power plant. From now on Owen Sound is hitched up to the tremendous potentialities of the Ontario Hydro's largest commission, owned electric development.—Times.

papers.
