VACCINE SAVES SOLDIERS.
Mortality From Typhoid Lessened by Inoculation.
Dr. Leon Bernard reports that out of 800 cases of typhoid fever that he studied among French soldiers the mortality of those that had been treated with anti-typhoid vaccine was only 5.2 per cent, while it was 17 per cent among the unvaccinated.

RECEIVING HOSPITAL BACK OF FIRING LINE

The picture shows a station for receiving the wounded prepared in the trenches at Ablain-St. Nazaire, near Souchez, where there has been exceptionally heavy fighting recently.

Where Coal Was Formerly King.
Rouen was the second English base in France after Havre; it was abandoned for Nantes during the march of the Germans toward Paris, but since along the Seine, where coal was formerly king, with wine as queen, are lined with piles of cases containing crackers, cheese, marmalade, corned beef and other essentials of British soldiers' fare.

REFUSES TO REAR SWINE.
Denmark, Largest Pork and Butter Country, Now Imports.
Prices on all kinds of food have advanced enormously in Denmark, and for some few articles, they are even higher than in the belligerent countries. The most necessary articles of food have advanced 100 per cent, and others 40 to 50 per cent.

"Tommy" Shows the Camp.
Tommy Atkins' relations with the French population have become familiar, if not cordial. He did many things in the beginning to raise difficulties. The "side" brought by English officers, particularly caused amazement, but that wears off, and the men of the expeditionary corps have found many ways of dispelling their first impressions.

THE TIME TO MARRY.
Hessey, the maid of color, had told the mistress she was to be married. "Well, Hessey," said the mistress, "I'm sorry to hear you, but I suppose it is all for the best. How long have you known the man?"

French People Astonished.
The organization of repose and pleasure in the British camp astonishes the French people. There is a circus tent requisitioned for the troops where there are moving pictures, acrobatic performances and shooting galleries, where the soldiers exercise their marksmanship on the silhouette of a German soldier as a target.

SCIENCE TAKES A DARING STEP

MAY DRIVE OUT LIFE'S MOST HIDEOUS ILLS.
Immune Persons' Blood to be Loosed in Veins of the Stricken.
Blood transfusion is still new. Five years ago it was regarded as a freak fad of the theorists. Now it is generally accepted by the medical profession as being both wise and good for many ailments.

Dr. W. J. Rowe performed the first operation of this nature recently when he was fighting that dread skin disease of Russian Jews, pemphigus vegetans. As to all doctors, Dr. Rowe knew that this disease has never appeared in any other nationality or race.

A Fellow Feeling.
"Accidents and conditions of men have excellent explanations of their position in life," said the Senator. "A tramp, however, came under my observation who had no illusions about the cause of his own condition. A fine-looking and fashionably dressed woman had just alighted from her limousine at the hotel entrance and was suddenly approached by this shabbily dressed man, who requested a dime for you," she said. "I do not see why an able-bodied man like you should go about begging."

TOO MANY CHILDREN.
are under-size, under-weight.
with pinched faces and poor blood; they do not play, but appetite lags; they have no ambition and do not progress. Such children need the rich medicinal nourishment in Scott's Emulsion above everything else; its pure cod liver oil contains nature's own blood-forming food, building fats which quickly show in rosy cheeks, better appetite, firm flesh and sturdy frames.

THE LATEST METHOD OF BLOOD EXTRACTION.
The latest method of blood extraction is based upon the old, old theory of immunity and proposes to do nothing more than contact the life serum of a different nationality in subjects who are afflicted with one of the most stubborn and dangerous diseases known to man.

Verse 8. Gave tribute—See 1 Kings 1: 21; 10: 25; 2 Chron. 17: 11. Part of the tribute which the Ammonites gave Uzziah was evidently a right to pasture his cattle in the Ammonite country (see verse 10).

The valley gate which leads to the Valley of Hinnom.

The wilderness—To the south and southeast of Jerusalem, extending from the western shores of the Dead Sea toward Beersheba.

3. His weakness (Verses 14-16).
His heart was lifted up. His pride became strong.
To burn incense—None but the priests were allowed to celebrate this rite. Hence Uzziah's transgression (verse 15).

4. Marvellously helped (Verses 17-19).
His heart was lifted up. His pride became strong.
To burn incense—None but the priests were allowed to celebrate this rite. Hence Uzziah's transgression (verse 15).

5. Facing fearful odds.
Victory Does Not Always Go To Big Battalions.
It is a fatal mistake for a commander to despise the army in front of him, even though its numbers may be much less than his own, as the German general before Liege found to his cost, and as Edward II. learned at Bannockburn.
