TORY OF THE SHRAPNEL SHELL

RST APPEARED IN THE PEN. INSULAR WAR.

s Its Own History and Some of the Deeds It Can Do.

am one of the veterans of the ish Army, for I was born in it. ally in it as far back as the year when my country was in grave was designed in England, first vas designed in England, first is in England, and first used by ish troops. So I am British those far-off days my name war rical case," though only a little I was, like most children, called my father, Lieutenant—subsey Lieutenant-Colonel - Shrap-

, old as I am, I have changed litam a thin shell containing a ng charge and a number of bulour Royal Field Artillery is percussion fuse, which can be barst me either when I strike ect (percussion action), or at pre-determined point in the of my flight (time action). If the Range Is True.

. I am essentially a man-killer ging objects is the work of my to burst in the air in front of in the open. When this is all directions, and my bullets, first 50 yards of the beaten ut the burst should be at yards from and 50 feet above only by observing the en I burst that the true be found? consequently I

In Bygone Battles.

hen I do get on the mark er the action of Yu-shu-line Russo Japanese War, | s mountain artillery, and two hells swept it from end to kly called for more of me. nga also I did great execu-rially contributing to the y that we won. chief success at this period os, at St. Sebastian in I was undoubtedly ment by which we trie concentrated fire of fifty irned upon the enemy, and bullets passed over the r gallant troops, strewing is with the bodies of the insula days I have always British troops into the e South African War I the breech-loading fifr, and over and over ported advancing infantry far in the rear and passing d by the French.

say, however, it was the in artillery who were ... They made great us arrying out Napoleon's t is, shelling the enemy fore loosing the infantry to-day they are employconjunction with their " to draw "curtains of ect their intrepid troops. can, and frequently do, int rain of bullets on the those critics who claim date, I merely state one forms 80 per cent. of on supply of the field Answers.

ier's Experience. Kitchener's Army can y souvenirs of the war P. E. Macintyre, Prin-Canadian Light Infanng to his sister in Glashsea Hospital, tells her a German bullet that h my coat, jacket and er touched my skin. pieces of the shoulder, tunic that were taken in my shoulder. There; of the button in yet, shrapnel, and several and shirt. I expect to ugh an operation soon, etal out of my back."

The Markdale STANDARD

is published on Thursday by C. W. RUTLEDGE,

Magadale, - Ontario cription, $1 a year; copies go-Twenty-five cents added rig paid in advance. No paper timed until all arrears are paid, at the option of the pub-

ADVERTISING RATES. Display Advertisements Souths Contract 10c.

nal. Advertisements under 1 inch

10c per line to transient ad-ceeding 1 inch, 50c, for first inand 25c. for each subsequent iont Advise such as Legal Nothe laws, etc., 10c, per line for timertion and 5c, per line for without specified instructions M., John McFadden, Secretary. morted till forbid, and charg-i of the Publishers. by addressed to The ardClubbing Rates

thern Me-Seuger 1 40

n. Out Issuer of Marriage Business strictly confi-

W C DAVIS fancer and Paperhanger, Life. Estimating and condone The Intest designs Paper kept and furnished

R J SPROULE Len Conveyancer, Apprais Valuator and Money Lender Morranges, Leases and Wills up und Valuations made on tholice Charges very low to R Sproule, Flesher.

LEGAL.

P. McCULLOUGH ristor, Solicitor, etc. Offices-

UCAS, RANEY & HENRY Barristers. Solicitors. Etc. ca-Lucas Plock, Markdale Traders Bank Bldg., Toronto B. Lucas, K.C., W. E. Raney. W. D. Henry, B.A.

BENTISTRY.

DR J. A. MacARTHUR Odice fn Artley Block (over

L. G CAMPBELL (L.D.S., D.D.S.) utal Surgeon! Graduate of Onterio College of Dentistry and Uni-Tersity of Toronto. Office over the est office Office hours, 9 a.m., to p.m. Parties calling after hours p'ease call up residence by private telephone in reception room of debtal office ...

G R MILLER, M.B., M.D., C.M. Rocklyn, Out. Caduate of the Medical Faculty of Queen's University, Kingston, Out. Late House Surgeon in the General and Marine Hospital, Owen Sound Phone 213r3 and 51r3, Rocklyn.

MARKDALE STANDARD

MARKDALE, ONT., THURSDAY, DEC, 23, 1915

WHOLE NO. 1825

"That will, do, Mr. Barker," ob-

"I think I understand," continued

"I don't know about "too late, sir," smiled the detective. "It seems to me a very good thing you didn't mark it "Exactly!" chuckled Mr. Schmidt.

"We really have to thank this gentleman for having rendered the mistake traceable, and now! I think seme

It appeared that the two men who had attracted Mr. Wakeham's envious sented at the adjacent bank, and the and so it was arranged. The cheque was duly presented and pronounced correct. The aviator called for his

Then, two days later, came a shock

lishment in his life.
The affair had been hastily placed in the hands of the police, and a do-tailed description of the men and the ring itself circulated among all known

WAR IN THE CARPATHIANS.

Passes Which the Russians Endeavored to Force.

city of Kassa to Budapest.

sians at one time had penetrated as

Should the Russians ever succeed ring, and presumably received it?

This seemed eminently satisfactory, ing called for about midday.

explanation is due to him."

til too late."

"HAPPY RETURNS"

Hiram Lodge, No. 199, G. R. C. Markdale, meets in Pasonic Hall. ing on or before the full moon every month. Visiting brethren cordial.

C. O. C. F. No. 399 was practically certain of a rise of into ms overcoat, then anected to discover the package in his pocket.

Court Markdæle, Canadian Order

Just now he said a pleasant task in hand. With her usual economy his a memory, to be sure! I clean forgot to make inquiries concerning a ring which you have in your possession." C. O. C F., No. 399 per annum or $3 for six in their hall. Main street. Visiting brethren always welcome. W. J. Henrard N.C. W. C. D. See's See's Pricay at 1.50 p.m. Howard N.G.; W. C. Davis, Sec'y

COURT GREY, 1151, C.O.F. 150 of Farms and Real Estate Meets every second and fourth Wednesday of the month in Mathews' 151 for first month and 50c. Hall, at 8 p.m. Visiting brethren always welcome. Wm. Anderson, C.R.; ved. Lost, Found Notices, etc., A. McEachnie, Fin.-Sec.

VOL-36

FRAILRAD

M . H C. Duff. Secretary.

MARKDALE L O. L. Meets in Sarjeant's block on Thurs day evening on or before full moon in each month. Visiting brethren made welcome John Johnston W

DR. I. S. SHEPHERDSON Veterinary Surgeon Graduate of the Ontario Veterinary A be supplied promptly upon College, Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Toronto. (Dominion Givil Sarvice Veterinary.) Office in Articy block. Phone 86. AUCTIONEER. B. H. WALDEN

Licensed Auctioneer for the of Grey. All sales promptly attended to. Farm sales a specialty. Arrangements for

In all countries. Ask for our INVENTOR'S ADVISER, which will be sent free. MARION & MARION

DR. DeVAN'S FRENCH PILLS A FRANCE Co., St. Catharines, Ontario.
FHOSPHONOL FOR. MEN. Skinstores
Vim and Vicility: for Nervo and Brain: Increases "grey to give himself the opportunity of tain the value of this little ring, if two for 55, at drug stores, or by mail on oxy or opping in again, and asking in quite of price. The scopell Daug Co., St. Catharines, a lordly manner for his "little pack-the speaker, took the mystfaved article."

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Land Regulations

West Land Regulations

The sole head of a family, or any mais over 18 years old, may homestead a cuarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Raskatchewan or Aiterta. Applicant mist appear in person st the Dominion Londs Agency or SabAgency for the District. Entry by proxy any by made at any Dominion Lands Agency but not Sub-Agency), on certain conditions

Duties—Six months residence noon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within sine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions.
A nahitable house is required except where residence is recformed in the vicinity.
In certain districts a homesteader in section alongside his homestead. Price
section alongside his homestead. Price section alongside his homestead autority entre vears after earning homestead natentre also 50 acres outra entivation. Preemption patent may be obtained as sood extended batent, on certain conditions.

ar homestead patent, on certain condi-tions. A settler who has exhausted his home-tead right may take a purchased home-stead in certain districts. Price 33.00 per-acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth 3500.

The area of cul ivation is substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

W. W. CORY, C.M.G.

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior, N.B.—Unauthorized publication lof this advertisement with not be paid for 6333.

Awkward. An amusing story was told by Mrs. being addressed by the nurses by his Christian name, it being customary distinction was accorded to the particular soldier referred to, the reply received was:. "Well, we can't very well call him by his surname." "But why not?" queried the what astonished visitor. "You see," was the overwhelming By Jove, this was a joke! enswer, "his surname is Love and . The breakfast was a son it's rather awkward—__"

. Quite Formidable. Tommy-Pa, what is placing man's life in jeopardy? Pa-Trying him by jury.

was practically certain of a rise of into his overcoat, then affected to disthosen Friends, No 398, meets, fault Tuesday, in the month in Ennis' Hall at 8 o'clock. Mis. R. R. Spath, Chief Councillor; R. W. Funis Recorder.

Funis Recorder.

SAUGEEN LODGE, No. 327.

1.0.0.6

Mand. With her usual economy his wife managed to have her birthday wife managed to have her birthday coincide with Christmas Eve, so that one present covered both anniversaries. She had often expressed a desire he sire for a ring to wear as keeper to the golden circle which Mr. Henry Wakeham had bestowed upon her less than a year ago, and this desire he thought—"

Meets every Friday at 7.30 p.m.

Wakeham had bestowed upon her less than a year ago, and this desire he than a year ago, and this desire he thought—"

Louis Friends, No 398, meets, hand. With her usual economy his wife managed to have her birthday at remembered your hirthday, after all, Nellie! Here you are dear, which you have in your possession."

Mrs. Wakeham grew deathly pale. "And in many, many happy returns of the dey!" And he imprinted a kiss on his wife's lips.

Wakeham had bestowed upon her less than a year ago, and this desire he I thought—"

The detective interrupted her. "I am merely making inquiries," said he gravely. "You—you do not imagine that i omles that he had been able to scrape was gone omles that he had been able to scrape was gone.

together twenty-five shillings for this particular purpose. At a pinch he might go to thirty shillings, but that snapped open the lid of the case, and would man a very severe strain on the lid of the case, and stone's, Mineing Lane?"

might go to thirty shillings, but that would mean a very severe strain on the exch quer indeed.

Besides, he knew the ring he wanted. He had ned it down long ago in Messrs. Goldberg & Schmidt's win-flashed it in the wintry morning sun home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

A little thrill ran through her as she slipped the ring on her finger and home?"

and immediately recommended one genuine, must be worth scores—hungreeting. His wife met him in the priced 30s. Mr. Wakeham carclessly dreds of pounds! A little cloud came hall, and the sight of her white face for it in about half an hour. Twenty-science came to a momentous decifive shillings, I think. Here is the sion.

that ring you gave me.

"The ring?" exclaimed Mr. Henry Wakeham, eyeing the detective anMr. Schmidt, "you must allow my to sales may be made at Standard Office five shillings, I think. Here is the sion. opulent-looking gentlemen, then, beyond the fact that he wished handedness. "I just wished to ascertought!" he cried. to give himself the opportunity of tain the value of this little ring, if he came back. The shop was half-full ham, scarcely breathing, saw his of customers, all buyers in hundreds white eyebrows suddenly raised, but and thousands, it seemed to Mr. Wakeham. The Wooden-faced assistant, catching his eye, hastily took a packet from some mysterious receptacle and handed it out.

"Hum—ha!" he ejaculated: then looked at his visitor again.

"A very good bargain for the buyer—this twenty-five shilling ring," he said, drily "Look here!" exclaimed Mr. Wake—ham, anguily "Tell me just what you are driving at, because, if you doubt my word, we can go to the shop wight away and you can prove the

Mr. Wakeham himself took the slightest notice. He left the shop once more, slightly dashed in spirits, but before he had reached his railway-station they had rises again at the thought of his wife's coming pleasure...

He would not give her the ring until the morning of her birthday. At breakfast he would pretend to have forgotten all about it, then; just as he was leaving for business, he would feign to find the ring in his pocket, and hand it to her as a sort of makeshift. Oh, he would be very facetious! He had thought it all out, even to the very words he would use. The little package remained, neatly tied and sealed, in Mr. Wakeham's private drawer at the office, during faintly. the remainder of the week. He did not open it, distrusting his own ability to restore it to its present attractive

When at last the great morning came he was; bubbling with anticipation. He watched his wife covertly as she sat down to breakfast, and noted the little disappointed look that came E. Rennie, of Harrogate, England, in into her eyes as she beheld the space os' hardware store). Entrance twisitor to a hospital for soldiers was cards from relatives and friends.

surprised to hear one of the patients These gave Mr. Wakeham his cue. "Good gracious, Nellie!" he exclaimed, with quite a creditable start to address patients by their surnames of consternation "Your birthday! only. Upon inquiry as to why this And to think that hever remembered! But, really, we have been so busy at the office lately!" The young wife smaled bravely. "Oh, it's all right, Harry—don't apologize!" she said; but Mr. Wakeham caught a little tremor in her

. The breakfast was a somewhat trying one, though Mr. Wakeham, in or-his zeal Mr. Wakeham had left, him-Oh, it was a puzzle! She would tion stirred on his countenance. "You

Mr. Henry Wakeham left the office in which to catch his train, and he in a particularly good humor. Christ- would have to rush the climax, which boding she went to the door. mas was only a week distant, and he was ather a pity. He thrust his arms

dow. It was plainly marked as to that was just beginning to shine redly "At any moment now," replied Mrs. dow. It was plainly marked as to that was just beginning to same really price, so that unless he had been fore-through the fog, and she caught her was just beginning to same really was just beginning to same really was just beginning to same really was any moment now, replied with stalled since that morning the busi-breath once more. The stones couldn't "Good" sighed the detective, reiess would not take long. Be real! She knew, as every woman lievedly.

He entered the shop with a thrilling does, something of the value of pre- Mr. Henry Wakeham came up the sense of opulence. A wooden-faced clous stones, and slic made a rapid little path whistling merrily, and, assistant produced a tray of rings, little calculation. Why, these, to be opening the door, called out a cheery

In a few moments the ring in ques- During the subsequent two hours him in amazement. ion was brought forth; and Mr. or so Mrs. Wakeham proceeded with "Hello" said he. Wakeham examined it.

"Yes, I think this will do," said he. what absent-minded manner; and it Harry," explained his wife, agitated-"Will you kindly put it in a case, and was not until the afternoon that she, ly, "He—he is inquiring the case in a small-box, and I will call not without some prickings of con-that ring you gave me."

Further up the counter were two of Harry's present. It seemed a little bought it and paid for it."

pullent-looking gentlemen, being mean, but feminine curiosity triumph—

"You paid for it—how me opulent-looking gentlemen, being waited on by a veneralile, white-hate ed man, evidently either Mr. Goldberg or Mr. Schmidt in person.

Mr. Wakcham caught the phrase, "You'll knock off the odd five-ind-twenty, anyway," and a feeling of awe cannot over him, accompanied by a elight lowering of self-conceit. How paltry- seemed his own purchase in view of these great transactions!

Mr. Wakcham, with a Mr. Wakcham looked, and gave a Mr. Wakcham beamingly took he isses. He made the means of my recovering one thousands of years ago that have been much more valuable. Now, here is faithfully kept, and some that are one which I hope you will accept in still waiting to be fulfilled that will twenty the place of the one you bought. It is be just as faithfully kept, the One worth more than five times as much, who has made and kept the sepondal live on the place of the one you bought. It is somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. She reached here goal somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. She reached here goal on the place of the one you bought. It is somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. She reached here goal somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. She reached here goal somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. She reached here goal somewhat furtive air that she entered wife. Mr. Wakcham beamingly took the shop. An old man in spectacles in the shop. An old man in spectacles in the shop. An old man in spectacles in the shop and she felt sure of being until twenty the more valuable. Now, here is faithfully kept, and some that are much more valuable. Now, here is faithfully kept, and some the will under the man.

We show the more valuable. Now, here is faithfully kept, and some they bounded the man.

We show the more valuable. Now, here is faithfully kept, and some they bounded the man.

We show the man in that we recovering one them and the man in the man in the

After a brief half-hour, therefore, and looked at it closely. Mrs. Wake-the other.

"Do you wish to sell it?" he asked. "Oh, dear, no!" replied Mrs. Wakehame, feeling distinctly uncomfortable under the sharp eyes. "I merely wish" to know its value." . , "You found the ring, perhaps?"

Mrs. Wakeham flushed a deep crim-

"Really, I do not know what concern it is of yours!" she returned haughtily. "If you cannot oblige me with an answer to my question I can proved to be Mr. Schmidt, came foring to pay you a small fee, if necessary," she added.

"Not at all-not at all!" replied the old man quietly. "The ring is worth, as far as I-am a judge, somewhere about five hundred pounds.

"Thank you," said Mrs. Wakeham, Mrs. Wakeham took back the ring Mr. Schmidt's eyes glistened. with a trembling hand. "You-you are sure you are not mistaken?" she

The old man shrugged his shoulders.

"I will offer you four hundred ly. pounds for it," he said. Wakeham curtly. "And your fee?" "Nothing," said the man, drily. As soon as she had gone out the loorway the old man hastened to the who nodded. door of an inner room. "Isaac!" he cried sharply. A Sallow youth appeared.

"Hello!" "You saw that woman?" "Yes."

Follow her-quickly! See where she lives. | Don't lose her-quick!" In a moment the sallow youth was voice, and almost chuckled once more. all unconscious that she was being on the track of Mrs. Wakeham, who, followed, walked straight home in a mood of profoundest mystification. der to heighten the impression of ne- own dwelling, she sat down to gather a ring here one evening. Let me see Once more in the privacy of her glect, talked volubly of football her thoughts. What did it all mean?

mexeromenes band returned; then, no doubt, everything would be made clear to her. served Mr. Schmidt "You can go now." And the wooden-faced assisa ring at the front-door bell startled tant disappeared. stalwart man waiting. He Mr. Schmidt. "The wo packets were looked like a soldier in private clothes alike, and I somewhat carelessly or a policeman!, With a vague fore- omitted to mark the valuable one un-

Proposed to gratify.

That I had forgotten," interrupted has been stolen?" she asked. "Why, sive offering, and it had been only by dint of numerous small personal econ.

And, with another hurried kiss, he omies that has been stolen?" she asked. "Why, my husband gave it to me this morning as a birthday-present."

The detective's eyebrows rose slightly "You you do not imagine that it > tor produced a blank cheque, which he proceeded to fill in with the amount required. He said he: would leave both the ring and the cheque; then the the morning, the latter could be pre-

The detective was silent for a mo-"What time do you expect him priced 30s. Mr. Wakeham carciessive dreds of pounds: A intic cioud come hall, and the signt of ner write face been returned to him, and he programmed at the proferred article.

across her face. She would sooner froze the smile on his own.

thing that rather struck me in the though it had, only been one small the detective had followed close on her heels and Mr. Wakeham eved make you some recompense for the

His wife looked up, red-eyed.

"Oh, Harry, it is the one you gave

The detective looked from one to "A very good bargain for the buyer you and your wife." London An- just closing.

right away, and you can prove the truth of what I say. The fool of a chap in the shop must have handed me the wrong packet, and I never looked to see if it was all right."

"We can easily settle that," said the detective. "I must ask you to come with me to Goldberg & . Within half an hour the two men entered the shop in Argyle Street. The venerable white-haired man, who ward eagerly in response to a card sent in by the detective.

"Ha!" he said. "Come into office, gentlemen." He evidently took Mr. Wakeham comes the railway from Lemberg. for a colleague of the other's. Thirty-five miles to the south-east lies Beskid Pass, through which the Rus-

"Now," he added quickly, "I hope you have got goot news for me." The detective produced the ring far as Volocz, in Hungary: "Goot!" he exclaimed delightedly, in forcing their way through the Uzplice?" he added, with a glance at plain, while further to the north and penting of their sins. Mr. Wakeham, who flushed resentful- south the Carpathian barrier widens Through Hosen he sent a message "I had the ring," he said, sharply; a rapid advance. "I shall not sell," replied Mrs. "but that was because your chuckle-head of an assistant gave it to me in mistake." Mr. Schmidt looked at the detective, Perhaps you had better let this gentleman speak to your assistant."

"I haf four," replied Mr. Schmidt.
"That's the one, nearest the door," said Mr. Wakeham, peering thorugh the glass partition. And the wooden-faced assistant was summoned. "Ever seen this young gentleman before?" asked the detective quickly, indicating Mr. Wakeham. The young man looked, and recognition gleamed in his dull eye.

SHARP ATTACK

Dangerous Condition Relieved Ju-

632 Gerrard St. East, Toronto., Stomach. It afterwards attacked my attention had chosen a ring as Heart, and I had pains all over the present for a lady to the value of body, so I could hardly move around. six hundred pounds. One of the pair, I tried all kinds of medicines but none addressed the other by the name of of them did me any good. At last, a very popular aviator, to whose pub- acting on the advice of a friend, lished portraits he bore a strong re- decided to try Fruit a tives'. Nought semblance. When it came to the ques- the first box last June, and now I am tion of payment, the presumed avia-well, after using only three boxes I recommend Fruit a tives to anyone suffering from Indigestion, no matter how acute". FRED J. CAVEEN. Simple Indigestion often leads to Heart Attacks, Calarrh of the Stomach and constant distress of mind and body. If you are bothered with any Stomach

Krouble, and especially if Constipation troubles you, take 'Fruit a tives'. 50c, a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c., At all dialers or sent postpaid by Fruita-tives Limited, Ottawa.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, DECEMBER 26.

Lesson XIII. - Jehovah's Gracious Promises to Israel, Review.

Read Hosea 11.

rasp of astonishment.

"That—that isn't the ring I he chuckled. "I'd like to have seen messages and to help han in lumaning the faces of those rogues when they the promises. Elijah. Elisha, Jehoi-opened their prize-packet," said he ada, Joash, Daniel, Jonah, Anos, and "Oh. Harry, it is the one you gave "If efer I see their faces again," Hosea, were among the number supported by Schmidt forwards and fulfilled remarked Mr. Schmidt fervently, "I through whom God sent and fulfilled shall know them again. Good-even- some of his promises. We have stud-ing, sir! And a Merry Christmas to led about each of these in the quarter Through Elijah, the faithful, fearless prophet God rebuked a wicked king, brought righteousness to pass, and chose a new helper who was to take up the work which Elijah hid down. Through Elisha God fed the hungry, helped the weak, healed the sick, and The Carpathian chain, from south delivered a city from the enemy. of Krakow to the Rumanian border, Through Jehoiada lie preserved the runs a distance of 300 miles. In the life of a little boy who was one day north is Dukla Pass, by forcing which to become a good and great king. the Russians would clear the way to Through Joash the king he destroy-Barfa or Bartfeld, and the railway ed idols, rebuilt the temple, and line leading through the important brought the people back to the worship of the true Jehovah. Thirty miles southeast of Dukla Through Daniel he taught the leslies Lupkow Pass, through which runs sons of self-control and fulfilled the the railway from Przemysl, by way of promises of reward to those who are Mezo Lamore, toward the Hungarian constant and steadfast.

capital. Fifty miles southeast to Through Jonah, the foreign mis-Lupkow is Uzsok, the strategic cel sionary, he warned and caused the tre of the Carpathians, through which great city of Nineveh to repent and be delivered from an awful destruction. Through Amos, the home missionary, he reminded the people who were living in luxury at the expense of their helpless fellow creatures that, such deeds would bring their own punishment, and he called them to repent "Very clefets, and you haf caught the sok gap a march of less than 20 miles and remember his gracious promise scoundrels themselves, or their agom- will bring them out on the Hungarian to forgive those who turn to him reout and presents difficult country for of deep love, telling how he longed to have the people turn to him as a child turns to his father, promising them that he would forgive their sins and restore them to a place in his love. Through Jesus Christ, the King of ove, he fulfilled the promise that he nad made of the coming One who should tome to redeem the people from their sins and to bring peace on earth and good will to men.

Every promise which God has made he has faithfully kept in the past and is faithfully keeping to-day, He has used people of all types to help him in fulfilling these promises.

Neither One Nor the Other. This war that causes such distress Earns neither joy nor treasure. Its mighty sorry business And not a bit of pleasure

Only, a very unusually hungry man can eat advice and enjoy it.

self rather shorter time than usual think no more about it until her hus- don't mean to say I made a mistake?"

"That seems to be correct," said he her thoughts. What did it all mean? —why, it was on the same day Then the great moment arrived. In thrice her husband's annual income! Jove!" he added, as a shade of anima-

Strength Past Fifty Years can be maintained by adapting the right nourishment, and Nature's own oilfood in Scott's Emulsion has strengthened thousands of men and women to continue their work and usefulness for many years. Scott's Emulsion is a food, a mediscott e Emutsion is a 1000, a medicine and a tonic to keep the blood rich, avoid rheumatism and thwart nervous conditions. It is free from injurious acids or any harmful drugs.. The best physicians prescribe it. 14-50