A Public Thoroughfare

The Methodists of this place erected a large cement horse barnsome years ago, which will accommodate upwards of one hundredhorses at a time, and yet quite frequently on week days, it becomes so well patronized, that those who are entitled to its use are crowded out. The small fee of$1 for the calendar year, or a contribution of $10 to the general funds of the church, entitles a member of the congregation or other person to its use, and any one who will persist in using it and try to evade the little tax, must be lacking in genuine manhood. Mr. Thos. Grainger will be glad to furnish for one dollar the necessary admission ticket, but the trustees protest against making it a public thoroughfare.The new lighting and fixtures in the Presbyterian church have madea great transformation in the internal appearance, and some ofthe audience at least are delighted with the results.—Durham Chronicle.A meeting for organization, under the auspices of the Committee of one hundred for a dry Ontario, by July 1st 1916, will be held in the Board Room of the Public Library on Friday evening, Jan. 21st, at 8 p.m. Everybody invited.Any amount of money to lend on mortgage security at the lowest rate of interest. Expenses low.No fines. Properties valued personally. No waiting for convenience of inspectors. W. L. Young,Markdale, Appraiser for Canada
