WALTERS FALLS

(Special to The Standard)

There was a large gathering of the ladies at the Methodist church on Friday last, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Stewart.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. A. Jenner completed the reading of "Barbara Heck," which has been much enjoyed by the members.

Mr. A. Ward gave a very helpful address on "Services" at the League on Tuesday last, and a good number were present.

The Princeville Agricultural Society is offering $75 in seven prizes for the seven best fields of White Oats, five acres constitutes a field. Persons wishing to compete, for these liberal prizes had better send in their names to T. A. M. Ferguson, the secretary and will be supplied with entry forms and any other information required.

All entries should be in by the 24th May. The Board of Directors have authorized a competition as follows: The two members of the above Society who hand in the largest amount of cash to the Sec. Treas., from the sale of tickets, donations, cash special prizes, etc., will be sent as delegates to the Fairs Convention in Toronto next winter, and their expenses paid. Now get busy.

PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard)

The cold weather of late has allowed the spring freshet to go down the Saugan gradually, so there is not danger of mill, dam or bridges being damaged, this year.

There has been a number of changes of residence, and also ownership of property around the village this spring; A. McDougal of N. East Egremont, rented his farm, and has moved to the Cross House on Town Line Street.

Jas. McDougall has purchased the McLeishian property at the old cemetery corner; Mr. and Mrs. F. Frook, of the 19th Proton, have moved to the farm purchased from T. A. Ferguson on east side of the village, and the latter has moved to the Scott House near the new bridge, and we hear of others coming to the village in the near future.

A great quantity of chop has been coming to the mill here, and the saw-mill had to do considerable work at nights.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard)

On March 29th, Mr. Fred Taylor, eldest son of Mr. Thos. Taylor, of Mt. Zion, and Miss Lillian Wright, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright of Warfham, were joined in wedlock, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride by Rev. Peter Teller of Maxwell, in the presence of about twenty-five guests. Miss Lila Hargrave played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily gowned in cream-brocaded silk with shadow lace and gold braid trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and maidens hair fern. Her travelling costume was of navy blue serge with hat to match. The happy couple spent a short honeymoon at Toronto and Macklem. They will reside near Portlaw.

Mr. Oliver Turner, who recently purchased a farm on the 9th, Concession, Artmesia, from Mrs. J. H. Jamieson, of this place, and got possession on the first of April, met with a great loss last week, by the destruction by fire of the fine brick residence on the place, together with the furniture it contained. Mr. Turner was engaged moving in, and after delivering two loads of furniture, put on a fire to warm up the house and left everything, as he thought, quite safe. During his absence for another load, fire broke out, it is supposed from an overheated stove and when discovered by neighbors had made such headway as to prevent saving anything. There was $10,000 insured only on the residence, which had been placed by the former owner.

Serpt. Jamieson, who was in Toronto, taking a special course in bayonet exercise, etc., completed his course and returned to O. S., last week, falling at his home here. On Friday he was sent out here again after a deserter, Pte. Hambley, whom he secured at his home in Osprey and escorted back to barracks.

Among the social functions recently, was that by Mrs. W. W. Trimble, who entertained a number of friends at a tea given last week.

We were invited last week to an old friend, Mrs. J. I. Graham, of Vandeleur, for the first treat of new maple sugar this year, which we enjoyed. Mr. Graham has 900 trees tapped and an excellent evaporating outfit.

Mr. Joe Alexander has returned from Dundalk to resume his old position with Mr. Scott & Co., in the produce house.

Mr. Wesley Bliskin, who was an efficient Secretary for the East Grey Agricultural Society, has resigned, owing to the pressure of his own business. Mr. A. W. Hawken, photographer here, has been appointed to the position.

Mrs. Joseph Buchanan, Meaford Road, went to Bobcaygeon last week to attend the funeral of a nephew, a young man 21 years of age, who died suddenly of appendicitis.

Rev. W. G. Fortune, a representative of the Dominion Alliance, will speak at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

Mr. Will Buchanan, Meaford Rd., and Mr. W. McLeod, of Swinton Park, students in the High School here, have enlisted and went to Mr. Sam Irwin's house on the hill.

Mrs. Wes Breen was ill last week with tonsilitis, and little daughter, Ida, has also been quite sick, but we are pleased to learn both are improving.

The Women's Institute had refreshments and a pleasant social time at the close of their meeting last week.

Miss Muriel MacTavish is visiting her aunt at Markdale this week.

Miss Mary Wilson, of the Presbyterian Guild, is announced to give a paper at the Methodist Young People's Missionary meeting Monday evening.

The word was in the dictionary, and has given it a new place in our language. It had something of a nondescript quality heretofore, but we have added to it all the contempt that men ought to feel for the coward, the shirker, the man who refuses to stand up squarely to his duty. And we do well to put teeth into such a word as that, being sure always that we apply it to men who really deserve it. But, we mustn't forget that the man who refuses to put on knapsack is not the only kind of slacker that the country has. Life is full of duties and responsibilities, and it seems to be sadly true that there is quite a big crowd of folks whose great aim in life is to get through by escaping, as many of them as they can! There is a slacker habit that seems very easy to acquire, and there are quite too many people sneaking through life seeing what they can get out of doing instead of bracing up and taking duty as an opportunity and a privilege.—Christian Guardian.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

(Its War Time Aspect)

London, Eng. The women of England are doing their duty. They are taking care of the wounded, on land and sea, and work to promote the good work. They are knitting and sewing for the soldiers at the front. The suffragettes have given so little trouble to the government that it will undoubtedly soften the hearts of those in Parliament, since the "pilgrims" have turned all their energies to aid the fighting men of England, and no suffrage may soon come after this terrible war is over.

Thousands of women in Canada have overcome their sufferings, and been cured of woman's ill by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This temperance medicine, though started nearly half a century ago, sells most widely today, because it is made without alcohol or creosote, as well as in tablet form as well as liquid. The woman who suffers from backache, headache, nervousness, should take this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce. It is prepared from nature's roots and herbs and does not contain a particle of alcohol or any narcotic. It's not a secret prescription for its ingredients are printed on wrapper.

Many a woman in nervous and irritable feels dragged down and worn out, for no reason that she can think of. In ninety-nine per cent. of these cases it is the woman's organism that requires attention; the weak buck, dizzy spells and black circles about the eyes, are only symptoms. Go to the source of trouble. When that is corrected the other symptoms disappear.

St. Thomas, Ont. "I wish to say for the benefit of other women who suffer that I recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a good help. I have personally recommended it to many who have turned have been helped a great deal by its use."—Mrs. F. J. Gowden, 19 Oliver St., St. Thomas, Ont.

walk, which has since given him some distress in the head, but the injury is passing away.

Mr. John Parslow, of the Durham Road, son-in-law of Mr. W. Wilcock, got his knee badly injured, while working in the bush last week.

Mrs. Alf. Harrison received word on Saturday, that her niece, little 3-year-old daughter, had been operated on for appendicitis. The little one is the youngest child of Editor Wesley Smith, of Battleford, Sask., formerly of this place.

Mr. Nat. Caswell returned on Monday, from Owen Sound, where he had a successful operation on his tonsils last week. He was accompanied by Mr. Jas. Harrison, who also went to Owen Sound for further examination of his knee, which has troubled him recently.

Miss Letta Blakely has returned from visiting at Corbettton with her aunt, who returned with her and made a short visit.

Pte. Harry Frost, of the Sportsman's Battalion, Toronto, was a visitor here on Monday. Harry was formerly on the Advance staff here, and went to the city two years ago.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid have installed a phone in the home of their acting secretary, Mr. Jos. Blackburn. He will be removed to Owen Sound for further examination of his knee, which has troubled him recently.

About fifteen of the soldiers were down from Owen Sound over the weekend. Among those to their homes here were R. C. Blakely, Lou Brothwell, Herb LeGard, W. Davis, C. Adams and H. McAuley.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wileman are moving from their old home to Mr. Sam Irwin's house on the hill.

Mr. Charlie Ottewell, one of the abattoir inspectors in Toronto, cannot be fooled, we notice, on equine flavor.
