Beware of Oat Fraud.

Farmers, Beware of the Changes in Name of the "O.A.C. No. 72" Variety of Oats.

At the Ontario Agricultural College for each of nine years in succession the O.A.C. 72 variety of oats has surpassed the Banner in yield per acre and in quality of grain.

Thirteen years ago the O.A.C. No. 72 variety of oats was originated at the Ontario Agricultural College from a single seed.

A member of the firm of L. P. Ganson & Co., of New York State visited the College and saw the O.A.C. No. 72 oats growing in the experimental plots.

First class seed of the O.A.C. No. 72 variety of oats can now be purchased in abundance from Ontario farmers at $1.00 per bushel.

Owners of hounds would be wise to keep them tied up at this season of the year, as farmers cannot be expected to house their dogs during the summer months.
