outraged the conscience of the whole world."

The Premier was greeted with an outburst of applause when he repeated the statement he made in the House of Commons that the Entente allies were considering how to deal with German atrocities.

He concluded by stating that all the allied army staffs are agreed that the prospects for an allied victory have never been so bright, and that the final result of their victory would be "a great partnership of nations in the joint pursuit of a freer and fuller life for the countless millions who, by the efforts and sacrifices of generations past, have maintained progress and enriched the inheritance of humanity."

"SHOOT THE WILD BEAST."

Andrew Bonar Law, Minister of State for the Colonies, characterized the war as the most wicked the world has ever seen, and declared Germany had forever lost the advantages which the years of preparation had given it.

"The toils are closing round them," the Minister said. "It is useless to talk about the latest German atrocities. We must do something, as a wild beast is at large. There is no good in appealing to the civilized world about it. There is only one thing to be done, and we can do it—shoot it."

CANADA'S RESPONSE.

Sir George Foster, speaking for Canada at the Queen's Hall meeting, said for a hundred years the Canadian people had lived in a land of uninterrupted peace. Their battles had been with the stern realities of nature, with mine, sea, forest, for nurture for their own people and the people of the United Kingdom, but when the declaration of war was made the heart of Canada responded as the heart of the Mother Country had responded to that declaration. Notwithstanding all the horrors and sacrifices of these two years of war it was best for the present and infinitely better for the future that Germany declared war, and gave us an opportunity to fight it out. That could not be said two years ago, because we did not know Germany then. The first chapter in the book of revelations of the German spirit and purpose had been written and when the second came to be written German frightfulness would be crushed by the armies of the allies and held up to the opprobrium of the civilized world.

The Western Fair Association is offering liberal prizes for eggs for Producers only and also for Commercial Packers. All information in the Prize List. Send for one to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

PUNISH BARBARIANS.

"The recrudescence of deliberate and calculated barbarity on the part of Germany indicates her sense of desperation. The record of her latest atrocities will blacken and has for ever besmirched the annals of the German army. Nor can we forget the great infamy directed against ourselves in the judicial murder of Capt. Fryatt, which has stirred the indignation

Forestry Battalion.

Toronto, Aug. 15: One of the recruiting centers in this city in the past few days has been the record made by the 28th Forestry Battalion, which, under command of Lieut. Col. W. R. Smyth, is now sending out its last call for lumbermen and all men experienced in any grade of bushwork to catch a place on the last non-combatant unit to leave Canada.

Though the enlistment with the 28th has been phenomenal, the battalion taking on 700 men in slightly over four weeks, there are still some pretty good positions to be had with the "Workers-not-fighters." These openings have recently been made, owing to the fact that a message came from Ottawa to the effect that the 28th would be a battalion of six companies, rather than the reg ulation four, and that each company would carry the regular number of non-commissioned officers.
