How Is It In Markdale?

(Kincardine Review)

"I have been here nearly five years," said Rev. M. McArthur on Sunday night. "I know I have disappointed you. I know I have not come up to your expectations. But I hope you will not find fault with me for saying you have disappointed me. You have not come up to my expectations. I can count on the fingers of one hand the men who attend prayer meeting. You send your children to Sunday School. That shows you are not wholly indifferent. But we cannot get teachers for your children when they come. I can go to the club any night and find more men there than at prayer meeting, and I am not finding fault with the club. I appreciate the privileges extended by the club to myself and other clergymen in Kincardine. They tell me it was always the same, but that is not satisfactory. If there was something wrong with your business you would not be content to say it was always the same. You would look around for a remedy."

The sermon created some stir in the cohgregation and uneasy searching of hearts. It must be very discouraging," said one member. "Here we are an eminently respectable congregation thoroughly satisfied with ourselves and thoroughly satisfied with our minister too, so long as he does not disturb our self-satisfaction.

But what is the remedy? Is the church "falling down?" If so, how can it be built up? Men will not take up the work of the Sunday school and the prayer meeting as at present conducted. Can they or should they be changed to attract workers? If the club draws men when the prayer meeting does not, can some club features be introduced into the weekly prayer service of the church to attract men to them? That there is the most stubborn apathy must be deadly to the energy and earnestness of conscientuous ministers like Rev. Mr. McArthur. The Review would welcome short letters on the causes of apathy and the remedy which should be applied."

THE MIDDLE SEX.

It was in a little out-of-the-way village in France, and the Highland regiment was swinging along the road, related the London Sporting Times. Two old Frenchmen, obviously puzzled by their costume, were having a heated argument on the same. Said one: "Zey cannot be men, for look at ze dress and ze skirts!" Replied the other: "Zey cannot be women, for zey have ze moustachios." "Ah!" replied the first speaker, "I have it. Zey are ze famous Middlesex regiment of whom I have heard so mooch!"

Walters Falls Fair.

The following is a list of the prize winners at the Walters Falls Fair, which was held on Sept. 26 and 27. Although the weather was decidedly against it, it compared pretty well with other fairs in the vicinity, both in exhibits and attendance. The exhibit in horses was up to, if not ahead of the usual exhibit and the directors expect to have a nice surplus, after paying all prize money.

The races were not any too well filled, but were very interesting. There were 2 races: the Named Race and the Farmers' Race. The winners in the Named Race were Morley Brown 1st; Matt. Ramage 2nd, and the Farmers' Race—Ramage 1st and McMillan 2nd.

Another feature which took considerable interest was the Baby Show, and when they lined up for exhibit were considered pretty hard to judge. The winners were Mrs. Wm. Wright, 1st; Mrs. Jas. Reid, jr., 2nd; Mrs. Rich. Lyons, 3rd.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you're after heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp, the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Funeral Procession

A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is helping to dig the grave. A man that uses the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give to town affairs is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be always howling hard times preaches the funeral sermon and sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care.—Exchange.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold; give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.
