

THE HOUSE OF VALUE THOMPSON'S THE HOUSE OF VALUE

BUY NOW

This is a straight tip to you, Sir... The man who buys his winter clothing right now will be the lucky one.

Read this list of prices for the Earl Buyer:

THIS FINE WORSTED SUIT $12.75

Exactly the same style as shown here. The cloth is a fine smooth finish worsted in brown shade with neat stripe and overcheck pattern, beautifully tailored. Buy NOW $12.75

MEN'S TWEED AND PARAMETTA RAINCOATS

In this raincoat business we carry a regular wholesale range in all the new models. Kaglan Motor and Storm Proof Styles. Prices $4.95, $8, $10, $12, $15.

MEN'S HEAVY RIBBED UNDERWEAR $1.00

This store is now the headquarters for STANFIELD'S UNSHINKABLE UNDERWEAR. We carry nearly all their numbers in all sizes; also PENMAN'S PENANGLE BRAND.

MEN'S COAT SWEATERS

In all styles and Colorings at $1, $2, $3.50, $4.50 and $5.

Our line of BOYS' CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS

For winter is now complete. See the big assortment of SUITS OVERCOATS, UNDERWEAR, SHIRTS, CAPS, BOOTS and SHOES we are showing for the little chaps.

P. J. THOMPSON MEN'S AND BOYS' OUTFITTER

Take One Tonight

If you feel bilious, "headachy" and irritable—for that's a sign your liver is out of order. Your food is not digesting—it stays in the stomach a sour, fermented mass, poisoning the system.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

The Presbyterian Guild elected officers last week for the ensuing year as follows: President, Miss Mary Wilson; Recording Sec., Jas. Harrison; Corresponding Sec., Robert Chard; Treasurer, George Stewart; Organist, Miss Reta Buskin; 1st Vice Pres., Doland McVicar; 2nd Vice Pres., Chas. Stewart; 3rd Vice Pres., George MacTavish; 4th Vice Pres., F. W. Duncan.

Among the deer hunters off on a holiday, three parties left this week on Monday for the Northern woods. One party of ten from Hook Mills for Parry Sound, included Isaac Smith, J. O. Dargavel, Robt. Clark, Barney Field, W. J. Chard, Leslie Chard, Robert Fisher, Ed. Harbottle, Fred Duckett and Wm. Phillips.

A smaller party for Algoma included Editor Thurston, Joe, and Tom Watson, Durham Road, and Mr. B. Woods, C. P. R. agent, Proton station. Another party for Parry Sound, included George Mitchell, John Wright, Sam. Pedlar and J. W. McKee. Flesherton, joined by P. Munshaw, Eugenia; Bert McWilliams and W. Maxwell, Dundalk; Frank Gerow, Toronto and Jos. Hodson, Brooklin, Ont.

Evangelist, George McLeish, who some years ago supplied the Presbyterian pulpit here very acceptably for a few months, died suddenly in Toronto last week.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Ed. Bentham, of Toronto, who underwent an operation and whose life had been despaired of, shows slight improvement.

Rev. W. Dinwoody, of Southampton, visited his sister, Mrs. Wickens on Monday.

Mr. W. A. Armstrong had an Auction Sale last week of his farm stock, etc., on his farm on the east back line and Mr. Joseph Blakey, who is retiring from farming near the village, had a sale on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Blakey will move to their residence in the village this week.

Mr. Richard Porteous has had his residence near the Presbyterian church, brick veneered, by which it is greatly improved.

Mr. Hertzog, blacksmith with D. MacTavish for some time is moving to Proton Station this week.

Dr. Lane, of Priceville, has secured the late Dr. Carter's office and is succeeding him in practice here, continuing also his Priceville practice.

Mrs. S. Roy, and daughter, formerly of Rock Mills, are moving to this village to Mrs. Boyd Thompson's residence.

Mrs. H. C. LeGard, who moved to Toronto recently, to join her husband employed there, has on account of her health returned to her old home here.

Mr. S. Colquett, who has been living in Toronto for some time, spent the week-end here and shipped his household effects to the city on Monday. He has rented his residence to Mr. W. H. Bunt, who will move this week.

Mr. W. P. Crossley had word from his son Charlie last week that he was still in England, had won a prize shooting and was retained to take up a special course. His companion, Pte. H. A. Mitchell had gone on to France.

The oil in the Karstedt well here continues to come and gives evidence of a supply not far distant. Mr. Karstedt has had estimates on the cost of drilling and contemplates trying his luck in that line. Messrs. S. Jeffrey, of Midland, and W. J. Martin, of Penstang, accompanied by two oil prospectors, spent the past week here and secured several options on farms near the village, on which it is their intention to commence drilling this fall, if the season continues open.

Mr. J. M. Singleton, a student from Toronto, supplied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday.

Lieut.-Col. Armstrong, 159th Batt., paid his wife and children who are spending the winter here, a brief final visit last week, before leaving camp Borden for overseas. The Battalion from the North left on Saturday for the east and took with them their mascots, a moose and bear.

Mr. Joe. Alexander left last week to spend the winter at Dundalk. The friends here of Mr. Joseph Cornfield, of Toronto, are pleased to learn that he has sufficiently recovered from his long illness to resume his former position this week. Mr. Cornfield was injured in a car collision several months ago from which he suffered much.

Mr. George Chapman was home from Toronto over the week-end. Mr. George MacTavish is in the city over the week-end.

Mrs. Alex. Stewart, of Owen Sound, and the Misses Stewart, of Parry Harbor, are visiting Mrs. Alf. Harrison and other relatives. Mrs. Wes. Breen is on a visit at Orillia.

Mrs. W. E. Southgate returned

SOUR, ACID STOMACHS, GASES OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" digests 3000 grains food, ending all stomach misery in five minutes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quietest stomach remedy in the whole world and besides it is harmless. Put an end to stomach trouble forever by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

to her home at Senforth, on Monday, after a month's visit with her brother Mr. Geo. Mitchell and family.

Mrs. Samuel Pedlar, of the 4th line, is suffering from an obstinate attack of rheumatism.

Miss Paton, from near Priceville is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Paton.

Mr. Wm. Wilcock west back line, had the misfortune to break his leg on Monday, working among the turnips he stepped on one which rolled and upset him causing the break above the ankle.

Dr. Lane was called from here and reduced the fracture. Mr. Wilcock is now in advanced years, and his friends will be sorry to learn of his mishap.

AT THE MOVIES

Ninth Episode of "The Master Key"

At the Princess Theatre, Markdale Friday and Saturday Nov. 3 and 4

Graham Bros., Proprietors

Hand-to-hand fight between Mexicans and Dore's men at the mouth of "The Master Key" mine takes place in latest episode of Universal Special Feature.

Ruth Gallon meets a titled English Adventurer. Death struggle between Wilkerson and Dore.

The ninth installment of the Universal Special Feature, "The Master Key" in which Robert Leonard and Ella Hall are featured, contains a thrilling hand-to-hand fight between Wilkerson and Dore and a realistic pistol and carbine battle between Mexicans and Dore's miners, who try to defend his mine against two hundred of Wilkerson's hirelings.

It will be remembered in episode eight, Ruth, Dore and party leave for Los Angeles on the same boat with Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell and, although the members of both parties brush elbows on board the boat, Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell are so effectually disguised that Dore fails to recognize them, although Ruth remarks something familiar in their general appearance.

Upon arriving in Los Angeles, Dore, Tom Kline, the aged miner, and Ruth Gallon go to the Beverly Hills Hotel for a few days' rest. Scenes showing them among the giant eucalyptus trees, the redwoods and the palms of beautiful Southern California are interspersed in his installment together with views of the great tourist hotel at which they stop. This hotel is known from one end of the world to the other where globe trotters foregather.

Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell, the adventuress, also arrive in Los Angeles, but are careful to choose another tourist hotel than the one at which Dore and Ruth are stopping. Although they have the deeds to "The Master Key" mine in their possession, they discover that the documents are of little use to them, owing to the fact that no conveyance of the property has been made out.

Wilkerson, however, determines to seize possession of the mine, despite this fault in the deeds, and sends his man Drake, to go to Silent Valley, and represent him there until further notice. Wilkerson has liberally paid the engineer of the mine to help him on previous occasions, and sends a telegram telling him to recognize the authority of Drake until the Wilkerson, arrives in person at the mine.

Meanwhile, Dore endeavors to make Ruth forget the dangers which she has gone through by inducing her to plunge into a life of gayety in Los Angeles. Ruth meets a young Englishman heir to a title, who is somewhat of a fortune-seeker. The young nobleman is well educated, handsome and polished of address. He is a new type to the western girl, and makes a decided impression upon her. She is not infatuated, although John Dore believes that she is.

As a result of Ruth's interest in the Englishman a slight coolness arises between her and Dore which neither can explain to the other. Dore permits the acquaintance to run its course, but Ruth, instinctively feeling that her protector's feelings have been hurt by her apparent neglect, quietly gives the young nobleman his name when he makes a plain, but his indirect inquiries that what he is after is her fortune.

Meanwhile Everett, whom Dore consults in floating stocks of the mine and other financial matters affecting "The Master Key" property, has left San Francisco and arrives in Los Angeles to continue his work of raising money to develop the mine. They then begin tracking Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell. With a few hundred dollars which Everett loans Dore the latter repays his debt to Tom Kane and sends him to Silent Valley to help the starving miners and at the same time to report upon Wilkerson's activities there.

Kane finds the mine in Drake's possession and wires Dore who at once leaves Los Angeles with Ruth. They arrive in Silent Valley the next day, after a long, dusty trip over the desert railroad and by automobile. An open war follows. Wilkerson hurries from Los Angeles to the mine when he learns from Drake's telegram that Dore has arrived and is preparing for trouble. Wilkerson hastily engaged two hundred Mexican revolutionists near the Californian border to come to Silent Valley with rifles and pistols. Dore has barricaded himself and his men in the mine and the Mexicans are compelled to bring a machine gun to bear upon the mouth of the mining tunnel. Many miners and Mexicans are killed in the battle which rages not only at the mouth of the mine, but all over the property. Ruth has a narrow escape, but is again saved by Dore.

Later Dore engages Wilkerson in single combat and throws him from the trestle down the side of an ore dump.

Death of Dr. Henry

(From the Globe.) Orangeville, Oct. 30.—Dr. James Henry died at his residence, First avenue, here, at 1:30 o'clock morning, as the result of a paralytic stroke, which seized him early last evening, and the effects of which he never rallied.

The passing of Dr. Henry removes a link in the early history of Orangeville, in whose affairs no man ever took a more prominent part. He had a long, useful and active career, and was in outstanding figure for more than half a century in this town and vicinity.

He was the son of Dr. Thomas Henry, a native of Ireland, and a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and Trinity College, Dublin, he was born at Sandhill, in Albion township, El County, seventy-three years ago last month, and entering the Toronto School of Medicine, graduated from the University of Toronto in the year 1863, enjoying the distinction of being the youngest doctor ever graduated from that seat of learning.

Shortly after Dr. Henry began practice in this town, then a hamlet of about three hundred. He occupied almost every office of the citizens, being Reeve and also Mayor for six years, and seventeen years in the Town Council, besides acting as Justice and Public School Trustee. For more than twenty-five years he was a member of the Ontario Medical Council, and its Vice President for a number of years. He was a surgeon in the militia for a time, and resigned holding the rank of Lieut. Col. in the 36th (Hull) Regiment, on the retired list at the time of his death. He was Coroner for the counties of Peel, Grey, Dufferin and Wellington. He was also surgeon of the C.P.R. at this divisional point since the railroad was built here.

Dr. Henry was a man of large personal sympathies, magnetic personality, generous disposition and impulses. He inspired confidence previous occasions, and sends a telegram telling him to recognize the authority of Drake until the Wilkerson, arrives in person at the mine.

Meanwhile, Dore endeavors to make Ruth forget the dangers which she has gone through by inducing her to plunge into a life of gayety in Los Angeles.

Ruth meets a young Englishman heir to a title, who is somewhat of a fortune-seeker. The young nobleman is well educated, handsome and polished of address.

He is a new type to the western girl, and makes a decided impression upon her. She is not infatuated, although John Dore believes that she is.

As a result of Ruth's interest in the Englishman a slight coolness arises between her and Dore which neither can explain to the other.

Dore permits the acquaintance to run its course, but Ruth, instinctively feeling that her protector's feelings have been hurt by her apparent neglect, quietly gives the young nobleman his name when he makes a plain, but his indirect inquiries that what he is after is her fortune.

Meanwhile Everett, whom Dore consults in floating stocks of the mine and other financial matters affecting "The Master Key" property, has left San Francisco and arrives in Los Angeles to continue his work of raising money to develop the mine.

They then begin tracking Wilkerson and Mrs. Darnell. With a few hundred dollars which Everett loans Dore the latter repays his debt to Tom Kane and sends him to Silent Valley to help the starving miners and at the same time to report upon Wilkerson's activities there.

Kane finds the mine in Drake's possession and wires Dore who at once leaves Los Angeles with Ruth.

They arrive in Silent Valley the next day, after a long, dusty trip over the desert railroad and by automobile. An open war follows.

Wilkerson hurries from Los Angeles to the mine when he learns from Drake's telegram that Dore has arrived and is preparing for trouble.

Wilkerson hastily engaged two hundred Mexican revolutionists near the Californian border to come to Silent Valley with rifles and pistols.

Dore has barricaded himself and his men in the mine and the Mexicans are compelled to bring a machine gun to bear upon the mouth of the mining tunnel.

Many miners and Mexicans are killed in the battle which rages not only at the mouth of the mine, but all over the property.

Ruth has a narrow escape, but is again saved by Dore.

Later Dore engages Wilkerson in single combat and throws him from the trestle down the side of an ore dump.

Death of Dr. Henry

(From the Globe.) Orangeville, Oct. 30.—Dr. James Henry died at his residence, First avenue, here, at 1:30 o'clock morning, as the result of a paralytic stroke, which seized him early last evening, and the effects of which he never rallied.

The passing of Dr. Henry removes a link in the early history of Orangeville, in whose affairs no man ever took a more prominent part.

He had a long, useful and active career, and was in outstanding figure for more than half a century in this town and vicinity.

He was the son of Dr. Thomas Henry, a native of Ireland, and a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and Trinity College, Dublin, he was born at Sandhill, in Albion township, El County, seventy-three years ago last month, and entering the Toronto School of Medicine, graduated from the University of Toronto in the year 1863, enjoying the distinction of being the youngest doctor ever graduated from that seat of learning.

Shortly after Dr. Henry began practice in this town, then a hamlet of about three hundred. He occupied almost every office of the citizens, being Reeve and also Mayor for six years, and seventeen years in the Town Council, besides acting as Justice and Public School Trustee.

For more than twenty-five years he was a member of the Ontario Medical Council, and its Vice President for a number of years. He was a surgeon in the militia for a time, and resigned holding the rank of Lieut. Col. in the 36th (Hull) Regiment, on the retired list at the time of his death.

He was Coroner for the counties of Peel, Grey, Dufferin and Wellington. He was also surgeon of the C.P.R. at this divisional point since the railroad was built here.

Dr. Henry was a man of large personal sympathies, magnetic personality, generous disposition and impulses. He inspired confidence

Markdale Roller Mills

FIVE ROSE FLOUR PERFECTION BLEND Bran and Shorts

JOHN W. FORD

THE HOME BAKER

NOTICE

To the people of Markdale and vicinity who have been supplied with flour since the first of November...

September 3-pound loaf

Cakes of all kinds made to order

WM. PRIOR, Successor to A. G. Allison

Household Knowledge

Write on a piece of paper a list of all the things you use in your household...

Dr. Henry died at his residence, First avenue, here, at 1:30 o'clock morning, as the result of a paralytic stroke, which seized him early last evening, and the effects of which he never rallied.

The passing of Dr. Henry removes a link in the early history of Orangeville, in whose affairs no man ever took a more prominent part.

He had a long, useful and active career, and was in outstanding figure for more than half a century in this town and vicinity.

He was the son of Dr. Thomas Henry, a native of Ireland, and a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and Trinity College, Dublin, he was born at Sandhill, in Albion township, El County, seventy-three years ago last month, and entering the Toronto School of Medicine, graduated from the University of Toronto in the year 1863, enjoying the distinction of being the youngest doctor ever graduated from that seat of learning.

Shortly after Dr. Henry began practice in this town, then a hamlet of about three hundred. He occupied almost every office of the citizens, being Reeve and also Mayor for six years, and seventeen years in the Town Council, besides acting as Justice and Public School Trustee.

For more than twenty-five years he was a member of the Ontario Medical Council, and its Vice President for a number of years. He was a surgeon in the militia for a time, and resigned holding the rank of Lieut. Col. in the 36th (Hull) Regiment, on the retired list at the time of his death.

He was Coroner for the counties of Peel, Grey, Dufferin and Wellington. He was also surgeon of the C.P.R. at this divisional point since the railroad was built here.

Dr. Henry was a man of large personal sympathies, magnetic personality, generous disposition and impulses. He inspired confidence

Dr. Henry died at his residence, First avenue, here, at 1:30 o'clock morning, as the result of a paralytic stroke, which seized him early last evening, and the effects of which he never rallied.

The passing of Dr. Henry removes a link in the early history of Orangeville, in whose affairs no man ever took a more prominent part.

He had a long, useful and active career, and was in outstanding figure for more than half a century in this town and vicinity.

He was the son of Dr. Thomas Henry, a native of Ireland, and a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and Trinity College, Dublin, he was born at Sandhill, in Albion township, El County, seventy-three years ago last month, and entering the Toronto School of Medicine, graduated from the University of Toronto in the year 1863, enjoying the distinction of being the youngest doctor ever graduated from that seat of learning.

Shortly after Dr. Henry began practice in this town, then a hamlet of about three hundred. He occupied almost every office of the citizens, being Reeve and also Mayor for six years, and seventeen years in the Town Council, besides acting as Justice and Public School Trustee.

For more than twenty-five years he was a member of the Ontario Medical Council, and its Vice President for a number of years. He was a surgeon in the militia for a time, and resigned holding the rank of Lieut. Col. in the 36th (Hull) Regiment, on the retired list at the time of his death.

He was Coroner for the counties of Peel, Grey, Dufferin and Wellington. He was also surgeon of the C.P.R. at this divisional point since the railroad was built here.

Dr. Henry was a man of large personal sympathies, magnetic personality, generous disposition and impulses. He inspired confidence

Dr. Henry died at his residence, First avenue, here, at 1:30 o'clock morning, as the result of a paralytic stroke, which seized him early last evening, and the effects of which he never rallied.

The passing of Dr. Henry removes a link in the early history of Orangeville, in whose affairs no man ever took a more prominent part.

He had a long, useful and active career, and was in outstanding figure for more than half a century in this town and vicinity.

Advertisement for C. W. Rutledge, Proprietor, Local and General.

Advertisement for Leslie's Red Cross Balm, Mercers for Rubbers, Djer Kies, Talcum for sale, Drug Store, J. L. Leane.

Advertisement for Household Knowledge, Write on a piece of paper a list of all the things you use in your household.

Advertisement for School Reports, Report of S.S. No. 2, Report of U.S.S. No. 2, Report of S.S. No. 10.

Advertisement for Daily Papers, The Standard, Daily Star, Daily Globe, Daily News.

Advertisement for Markdale Markets, Old Wheat, Fall Wheat, Oats, Flour, Bran, Shorts, Butter, Eggs, Beef, Hides, Geese, Ducks, Chickens, Turkeys, Fowl, Hay, Wool, Washed, Wool, unwashed.