

THE HOUSE
OF VALUE

THOMPSON'S

THE HOUSE
OF VALUE

BUY NOW

This is a straight tip to you, Sir,--

The man who buys his winter clothing right now will be the lucky one. The fellow who will leave it to "just a little later" will find a scarcity of goods, small variety and very high prices. We had the foresight to prepare for these conditions. We bought heavily in the early market. To-day you will find our store loaded up with the finest stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings to be found in Ontario, and the prices are right. Come in and see for yourself.

Read this list of prices for the Early Buyer:

THIS FINE WORSTED SUIT
$12.75

Exactly the same style as shown here. The cloth is a fine smooth finish worsted in brown shade with neat stripe and overcheck pattern, beautifully tailored. Buy

NOW ..... $12.75

MEN'S TWEED AND PARAMETTA RAINCOATS

In this raincoat business we carry a regular wholesale range in all the new models. Naglan Motor and Storm Proof Styles Prices $4.95, $8, $10, $12, $15.

MEN'S HEAVY RIBBED UNDERWEAR $1.00

This store is now the headquarters for STANFIELD'S UNSHINKABLE UNDERWEAR. We carry nearly all their numbers in all sizes; also PENNMAN'S PENANGLE BRAND. We offer special value in this brand in a heavy wool ribbed line at $1.00. See it before you buy.

MEN'S COAT SWEATERS
In all styles and Colorings at $1, $2, $3.50, $4.50 and $5.Our line of BOYS' CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS

For winter is now complete. See the big assortment of SUITS OVERCOATS, UNDERWEAR, SHIRTS, CAPS, BOOTS and SHOES we are showing for the little chaps.

P. J. THOMPSON
MEN'S AND BOYS' OUTFITTER

From week to week questions These opinions are always worth political and otherwise, of the reading, while the Sun's market utmost importance to the farmer reports have long been considered are coming to the front. These most reliable from the farmer's questions are in many instances standpoints. Are you reading this permitted to pass without comment of your interests? If mentioned by some newspapers for not, you are missing many good political reasons. That old and things each year. You will find reliable friend of the farmer, The Sun is instructive and profitable Weekly Sun, does not allow any reading.

You may not always agree. "Father, when people go to with its opinion, but the Sun Heaven do they get to be angels being free from party or political right away, or do they have to control give its readers an unpass a lot of darn old examination biased opinion on all questions?"

THE MARKDALE STANDARD

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

The Presbyterian W. M. S. held their annual Thanksgiving meeting on Friday afternoon last and a profitable time was spent. A number of visitors were present from the sister societies here and Eugenia and Proton. Mrs. (Rev.) McLean presided and an interesting program was rendered. A specially good paper was read by Mrs. (Rev.) McLean, a solo was sweetly rendered by Miss Edna Acheson, of Proton, and a duet by Mrs. Blackburn and Miss MacTavish here. Greetings were conveyed from the Society at Proton by Mrs. (Rev.) Dodge and Mrs. John Beccroft. The offering amounted to over $30. At the close refreshments were served.

Principal H. S. White, of the High School, was laid up last week with a heavy cold, but is on duty again. His assistants kept the school going.

Mrs. Joseph Duncan has had an attack of appendicitis, but under Dr. Bibby's care is recovering.

The friends here of Mrs. J. C.

Cane, of Owen Sound, sister of Postmaster Trimble of this place,

are sorry to learn of her severe illness from a paralytic stroke a week ago, together with other complications. Mrs. Trimble is visiting the patient, who is reported in critical condition.

Mrs. S. Mabee, of Markdale, visited over the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. W. Talbot.

Mr. Sam Henderson has gone to Toronto to take a position and we understand intends moving his family to the city.

The members of L.O.L., No. 1132

line, celebrated the anniversary of the Gunpowder Plot on Friday last with their annual hunting competition and a good day's sport was enjoyed. Messrs.

Sam, Croft and Wes. Plant

the Captains, the former's side winning. The usual fowl supper in connection with the event will be given at Mr. Thos. Fisher's,

on Thursday evening, the 9th inst.

The Red Cross Society and

Khaki League here, have united in

their efforts to send Christmas

boxes and other comforts to the

soldier boys overseas.

There was a large delivery of

stock at Flesherton Station on

shipping day last week, when five

car loads were taken off by the

buyers at this point.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, of Toronto, announce the marriage of their daughter, Edna Claribel, to Mr. Stanley P. Mathur on Wednesday, November 1st.

The Methodist Young People Society had a pleasant time at a

Social in the church on Monday evening.

The Red Cross Society, and

Khaki League here, have united in

their efforts to send Christmas

boxes and other comforts to the

soldier boys overseas.

There was a large delivery of

stock at Flesherton Station on

shipping day last week, when five

car loads were taken off by the

buyers at this point.

Mr. Ed. Thompson, formerly of this place, has received the appointment of meat inspector in Toronto. His friends here are pleased to learn of his appointment

to this position.

The boys were out on Hallowe'en night for usual pranks and among other things barricaded the front street with old vehicles and other unusually articles. To save trouble

however, the lads had the fun the following evening of going over their work again by cleaning up and returning everything to the place from which it was taken.

The girl students of the High School had a jolly time on

Hallowe'en at a social evening

held in the school.

Mr. Geo. Watson, of Priceville,

our former townsmen, has purchased a Ford Car and was in town a few evenings ago with his family calling on old friends.

Miss McEwan, of Owen Sound,

is visiting her cousin, Miss Edna

Stewart at Mr. Mark Stewart's.

Mr. John Osborne, of Colling-

wood, is visiting his sister, Mrs.

W. J. Bellamy. His sister, nurse

Osborne, also made a short visit

last week.

Mr. Gordon McKinnon, of Milton

spent the past week on a holiday

with his mother, who has returned to her home here, after a few months spent in the city.

Miss Lynetta Hanbury, of Dundalk, visited over the weekend

with Miss Maud Richardson.

A few of the young people here attended the Presbyterian entertainment at Markdale on Friday evening and report a pleasant and successful affair.

Mrs. Boyd Thompson has gone to Markdale to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Roy, of Rock Mills, will occupy her residence in her absence.

Houses to rent are difficult to procure here now. A few comfortable residences could be readily rented.

Rev. A. McVicar, who has been conducting a series of special meetings in his congregations outside, will commence this week in Flesherton congregation at the home of Mr. Black, on the east back line.

Quarterly Communion Service

was held in the Methodist Church

on Sunday, and the monthly Com-

10 CENT "CASCARETS"
FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headaches, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartie.

No odds how bad your Liver, stomach or bowels, how much your head aches, how miserable you are from constipation, Indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets. They immediately cleanse and regenerate the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your Liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and head clear for months. They work while you sleep.

minion was dispensed in the Baptist Church; both services being well attended.

Mr. Chas. Stafford has returned from the west and reports farmers suffering lossfully bad weather, delaying threshing.

Dr. J. P. Ottewell and son, Dr. Charlie, of Toronto, spent the past week on a hunting holiday at Bookview, Parry Sound, District. The latter's wife and little son are on a holiday here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcock, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bateman, of Vancouver, paid off and Mrs. Ottewell and other old friends a short visit recently. Mrs. Bateman, formerly Miss Mary Dale, was interested in a visit to the old Dale home on the west back line, now occupied by Mr. John Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, of Toronto, announce the marriage of their daughter, Edna Claribel, to Mr. Stanley P. Mathur on Wednesday, November 1st.

The Methodist Young People Society had a pleasant time at a Social in the church on Monday evening.

The Red Cross Society and Khaki League here, have united in their efforts to send Christmas boxes and other comforts to the soldier boys overseas.

There was a large delivery of stock at Flesherton Station on shipping day last week, when five car loads were taken off by the buyers at this point.

Dore lives meanwhile at his own house and Ruth in her old home where she is chaperoned by one of the miners' wives. Wilcock bunks in one of the miners' cabins. Dore thinks the situation is serious enough to warrant his opening a letter left in his cap.

The officer places the camp under martial law and gives the opposing leaders the liberty of the village. Dore accuses Wilcock of abduction and forgery, but the captain and the sheriff are officially powerless to make an arrest. Dore thereupon sends Tom Kane to the nearest county seat to swear out a warrant for Wilcock's arrest.

Dore lives meanwhile at his own house and Ruth in her old home