CHAPTER X .- (Cont'd).

The seaman, helpless with rage, and the old man endorsing the new clasped behind his back looking down on the deck, while the hands stood clumsily by ... With an idea that the able he sat silent until they reached other sip of whisky. the station, and being for the first time

CHAPTER XI.

Captain Barber walked to his house in thoughtful mood, and sighed as he thought of the uncertainty of life and the futility of carthly wishes. The blinds at his windows were all decently drawn, while the Union Jack drooped at half-m. st in the front garden. He paused at the gate, with a strong distaste for encountering the subdued gloom and the wealth of womanly love which awaited him indoors, and be- as mate; Fraser's gone." thinking himself of the masterless | Captain Nibletts thanked him again, state of his craft, walked slowly back and, clapping on his hard hat, passed and entered the "Thorn Inn." ber?" said the landlady, regarding him with great, sympathy.

neighbors, ordered something to drink, the glass she was wiping, and then, sure," said the landledy. "When my swung behind him, realised that the regard to Lord Curzon were made on a greater strain upon our rule than feeder. It has been demonstrated and muscle is required. At six poor dear died, I cried every day for melancholy and usually respected Nib. the same day this week: One was that five weeks. I came down to skin and letts had thought fit to publicly ad-

"Well, if I was you-" said the old In the same high spirits the new Government. The other was that he humble, silent millions" of India, and lady's ample proportions with an un- to his new command. Work had alliad become engaged to be married, his labors on their behalf were uncleaved and the proportions with an un- to his new command. Work had alliad become engaged to be married, his labors on their behalf were uncleaved and the proportions with an un- to his new command. Work had alliad become engaged to be married. Those who delight to asso-

Barber, slowly, in order to give time mands, was shouting instructions from Levi Leiter, of Washington. for full measure, "I should go an' cry. a safe distance. He looked round as for five months all day and all night." Nibletts stepped aboard, and, with a wife, an American. She is, moreover, a widow being Mrs. Green Durgan.

thoughtfully wiped down the counter. "Mrs. Church quite well?" she in- zir.

quired, with studied artlessness. "Quite well," replied the captain, er, quietly, centing danger.

The landlady, smiling amiably, sub-tonishment, as he saw the death of his sided into a comfortable Windsor own ambitious hopes in that quarter. chair, and shook her head at him so severely that, against his better sense, he felt compelled to demand an ex- Barber just gave me the berth," he

"There, there," replied the landlady, 'get along with you, do!-Innocence!" one of the customers, with the best in-tentions in the world. The best in-dependent one of the customers, with the best in-dependent one of the customers, with the best in-tentions in the world. The best in-"It struck me all of a heap," said the landlady. 'So it did me." the first man; "she said she knew it by "It'll be nice for you to get to sea the way they looked at one another." dgjin, cap'n."

who had given up the effort to appear air with relish.
unconscious as being beyond his pow-You'll be able to see the Diadem as

The captain hesitated. "What have ou been shaking your head at me and in the hold, and Nibletts, his face a heard of it," said the landlady.

talk about my neighbors' affairs." "We know that."

144

pardonable conduct of the mate, who half killed him when he came down love of work and power of; getting ore him from his craft by the scruff again.)
I his neck and the scat of his trou-

"I can understand you being dare- ped the mate. ful," said Captain Nibletts: "she's the looked to Captain Barber for guidance, prettiest little craft that ever sailed a superior smile. out of Sabridge. You can't be too

There was a pause, during which both men eyed the noble specimens of fish, which are preserved for tavern position had suddenly become intoler- parlors. Captain Barber took an-

"I'm going to use my own judgment, for many months in the possession of Nibletts," he said, slowly. "I've ala holiday, resolved for various reasons ways rose superior to the opinions of the mate, was hastily led below in a seems to toil with the to pay a dutiful visit to his father at other neople. There's nobody you overwrought condition by the flatter-certifude of a machine."

| A certainly to milk leaves led skim-milk was become a condition by the flatter-certifude of a machine." | Whole milk leaving the hay to accurately the latter-certifude of a machine." know would give you a ship. I'm going to give you the Foam!"

Captain Nibletts, rising from his eat, crossed over, and taking his hand, hanked him in broken accents for this verpowering expression of confidence Then he walked back, and taking his whisky from the table, threw it on the floor.

"I've had enough of that." he said. "When am I to take her briefly. over, Cap'n Barber?",
"So soon as ever you please," said his benefactor. "Old Ben 'll stay on hastily into the bar, his small visage "No news, I suppose, Captain Bar- twisted into a smile, to which it had long been a stranger. With the cusstomers in the bar he exchanged re-The captain shock his head, and ex- marks of so frivolous a nature in passchanging greetings with a couple of ing that the landlady nearly dropped "It's wonderful how you bear up, I'm crimson with indignation, as the door ing, with her fingers on the whisky a set of goods in the slings bwing to "You to be master?" Nibletts nodded and colored. "Cap'n remarked. Ben sighed and shook his head. "He'll never be the same man ag'in," "It's no good, ('ap'n Barber," said he affirmed, positively; "'e want away

"He was all right," was the reply. Ben shook his head as one who w better. . "I 'ope he won't get "My missus knew it all along," said no more shocks," he observed, gravely,

"Might I ask who you're talking Captain Nibletts raised his weath-of?" demand the incensed Barber, crueaten countenance and sniffed the

"A young engaged couple," said the gravated Ben, "There's just her masts indiady. we go by," continued the sorely ag-

A faint laugh rose from somebody telling me it's no good for, then?" he dul red, stole quietly below and took Minister to Brazil. Lord Curzon has possession of his new quarters. In no present heir to his earldom. But than a chsual observer might image "At your pretending not to, have the course of the day he transferred (in the absence of any male heir be line. The activities of the fair sex are his belongings to the schooner, and, as ing born to him) his eldest daughter not confined to Red Cross work, and "I have not 'eard of it," said Captian though half fearful that his new comwill inherit his barony of Ravensdale, operating street cars and a few taxi-

On the way back to London a sum in simple proportion, set by Joe, help-"Yes, of course, you have," said the ed to exercise the minds of the crew andlady. "We know that." in the rare intervals which the new The indignant Barber closed the mate allowed them for relaxation: "If in the rare intervals which the new door behind him with a bang, and, ex- Ben was bad on the fust v'y'ge, and greeting of a small man of shrunken the answer would require a lot of he like attitudes scraped the masts. Even the cook received a little instruction in "Mornin', sir," said Nibletts; "how's his art, and estranged the affection of all hands, by a "three-decker," made

Captain Barber shook his head under Ben's personal supervision.

Bad as bad can be," he replied, slow- The secret society discussed the matly; "there's no hope at all. I'm ter for some time in vain. The dif- It transcends even his ambition, even looking for a new master for my vest ficulty was not so much in inventing his ability, even his arrogance. On Nibletts looked up at him eagerly, some bold spirit to carry them out. contact he has made the same impression—in the House of Commons, in the House of Commons, in the House of Commons, in the Foreign Office, in India, in the Behind the lines, but hot safe from shell fire, the work halves and the same impression of tireless inmodes of retaliation as in finding all with whom he has been brought in position which claimed attention, renot perform them himself. The only spect, and profanity from every craft one who showed any spirit was Tim. which passed, its master having been and he being ordered to spill a little only saved from the traditional death tar parelessly from aloft, paid so every Indian Viceroy must be one of of the devoted shipmaster by the un- much attention to the adverb that Joe ceaseless toil. But no Vigeroy, in there him from his craft by the section. Then Mr. William Green, having equal.

It is not too much to say of him that the mate was unable to that all his life long his interest in all "What about Harris?" he suggested, read, did wonders with a piece of that all his life long his interest in all ber of men thus released for the ter to be richer in protein than the hung barometer fashlon outside the literally insatiable. Politics is with is received and requires a carbonaceous "Well, what about Fletcher?" said galley when the skipper was below, him a passion. And all through his the laughter of the delighted crew life he has been closely in touch with stately an air as he could assume, from the partition of Bengal to the strode towards the gallery and Welsh disestablishment bill over brought up in front of the frying-pan, which his interest has ranged, the ed, pointing to the writing. "Wot, sir?" asked the innocent; "On the frying-pan" replied Ben, cook, "to clean it with."

"Cook," said the mate, ferociously. "Sir," said the other. "I wont' 'ave the sorsepans cleaned that way." (To be continued).

LORD CURZON A

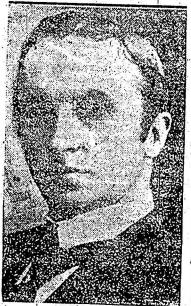

HE IS A MAN OF MOST IMPOSING APPEARANCE

Driving Power-His Rule . In India.

he had been appointed a member of ment." "Well, if I was you -" said the old In the same high spirits the new House of Lords of the Lloyd George. aworable eye.

"What?" inquired the other, pcusBen, having been pushed over once by wars old on the fingers on the whisky a set of goods in the slings bwing to

The landlady put the glass in front wary eye on the crane, bustled to a widow, being Mrs. Grace Duggan, of him sharply, and ofter giving him wards him. His change without looking at him, "Wot can we do for you, Cap'n Nib-Aires, and daughter of the late Mr. thoughtfully wiped down the counter. letts?" he inquired, with a patronising Munro Hinds, formerly American posing appearance, and one who interfere with his devotion to work.

Lord Curzon.

Works Like a Demon. For it is his industry—industry the most effective kind-which is Lord

"Wot's all that, cook?" he demand- last charge which could ever be justly brought against Lord Curzon would work like a demon, but he makes "That's chalk marks," explained the others work like demons, too. Impatient of stupidity, he reserves his bit-"It looks to me like writing," snap, terest scorn for indolence. "If there "Lor', no, sir," said the cook, with to get it out of him," he once grimly fact that whole milk is the ideal feed of two parts ground corn remarked of one of his subordinates for young animals. It is rich in pro- parts crushed onts gives as superior smile. remarked of one of his subordinates "I say it does," said Ben, stamping: who was supposed to have more aptiand the old man endorsing the new mate's order, went forward, indulging. You can't be too careful."

And not only does Lord Curzon

"Well, o' course, you know best, tude than liking for work. Combined in a soliloquy in which Ben as a proper noun was mixed up in the company of many adjectives.

Fraser, clambering into the cart feely, "I'd have liked you to have 'ad looked back at the Foam. The old looked back at the Foam is an in fact levery nutrient who was supposed to have more aputation liking for work. Combined required to build up a strong, healthy will can't with his monumental industry he possibly is contained in dorrect proportion. The look between the cook, humbly. "I ain't with his monumental industry he possibly is contained in dorrect proportion. Whole-mike allowed being the looked back at the Foam. The old looked back at the Foam is a proper to less exception in the cook, humbly. "I ain't with his monumental industry he possibly is contained in during the looked back at the foam liking for work. Combined required to build up a strong, healthy will be obtained to build up a strong, healthy will be obtained to build up a strong, healthy will be obtained to build up a strong, healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtained to build up a strong healthy will be obtaine "I can assure you you're mistook, everything he undertook. It is safe to removed. Six months after weaning commences to pick at has what sir," said the cook, blandly; "you see, say that no public man of his standing the difference is not so marked if the I clean the sorsepans the same way, ever wrote so many letters with his calves have been properly fed. Those ach or paunch develops and don't lonly 'eard of it lately. Look 'ere," own hand. "His papers," says one fed on whole milk make most rapid able roughage is required. Well the papers of the same way. He placed the articles in question who knows him, "are always a miracle gains at first, but it is at greater cost, clover or alfalfa hay is prefer upside down in a row on the deck, and of orderliness. Some one has said that In a trial at the Kansas Experiment growing calves, and at five mint Tim, reading the legends inscribed his capacity for work is inhuman, and Station the average daily gain for a age about 5 pounds will be such thereon, and glancing from them to certainly to unmethodical men he number of calves fed skim-milk was daily: The manger or real

The Real Ruler. Monumental Industry and Wonderful ances of the humblest, resolute to en- liberal supply of whole milk. In most pulped roots or silage. A thrift cafe sure justice to all India's teeming and cases the fault is in the feeder, not the should gain from 15 to 2 lbs files. toiling millions—that was Curzon in feed. No hard and fast rules of India, "We are here," he said once, feeding can be given as the success of "to give justice, and one single act raising calves depends a good deal Two important announcements with of injustice in India is, in my opinion, upon the skill and judgment of the the War Council and leader in the He had a genuine sympathy of the substitute develop into a large framed, House of Lords of the Lloyd George, deepest kind with the patient, heavy producing cows as do those humble, silent millions" of India, and reared on whole milk.

> be enduringly remembered. FRANCE ENROLLING WOMEN

Firing Line A woman's committee presided ov by Mme. Emile Boutroux, wife of the celebrated philosopher, has been ganized to enroll women volunteers in the service of the country. It is appealing to all women to linscribe their names, with a statement of their apti-tudes, and the time they will be able I Scours to devote to work in different categories when their services may be need-

Enrolling offices will be opened oon and a comprehensive effort will be made to enlist all the women: France in the services of the nation. French women are playing a vastly Barber, flercely, as he took up his mand might yet slip through his fing- and his brother Alfred, his junior by cabs; they are creeping into every deone year, his viscounty of Scarsdale, partment of the nation, except, per Lord Curzon is a man of most im- haps, into the actual firing line, although there have been cases where would attract attention anywhere. He supposed "poilus" have proved to b is over six feet in height and finely young women masquerading as men. cited with the controversy, returned much wass on the second, wet 'ud he But, in spite of what looks like a su-tors and surgeons, and very often. and forlorn aspect who was sitting at working. They tarred the rigging, fered from a painful spinal malady, Verdun, and has remained there during the blocks, and in monkey. but he never allowed his ill-health to ing all that nine months' battle. Mmc. Thyss Monod is a doctor in charge of a hospital in Verdun.

Of course, in all the departmentsthousands of women doing the work the barra k bases of the various army corps that the women are engaged in Behind the lines, but not always safe from shell fire, the women act as camp cooks, bakers and waitresses and handle many regimental messes entirely. They peel potatoes and clean carnots and wash dishes and perform all the other duties that the soldier hates.

There is no getting away from the chop gives good results calves made an average gain of 1.9 day to day soon turns the call pounds at a cost of $7.06 per hundred its feed. Pulped roots are I have often been struck with the pounds at a cost of $7.06 per hundred errendous sides that many people in pounds of gain. At the present price by the youngsters and can structed in India have formed of lord off whole milk the cost is greater. fed. Silage can also be feet in terested in India have formed of Lord of whole milk the cost is greater. Curzon as a ruler there. Those who feeding lot after weaning and those fond of it. A calf requires were nature of his rule ought to read Lov- fell skim-milk made an average daily at Fruser's "India Under Curzon and gain of 2.1 pounds and required 439 men find that it pays to nave After.' If they expect to find Curzon pounds of concentrates to make 100 accessible to the calf at all these as Indian Viceroy an autocratic fuler, pounds gain. The calves raised on striving for the maintenance of Im- whole milk averaged 1 9 pounds per perial' pomp and power, and out of day, and required 470 pounds of gain, sympathy with the aspirations of the This is an argument in favor of raiscommon people, they will find their ing calves on skim-milk except the three to six months of age: expectations strangely falsified Zeal- fat. This ingredient can be substituted by various feeds. However, parts corn and one part dits leads ates for the lowest class, ever resign many feeders make a dismal failure 2.5 lbs. per day; clover of difficult in the investigate and redress the grieve of rearing calves, unless they have a for 5 lbs., and a couple of part of the district of the couple of part of the couple of parts of the couple of fully fed on skim-milk and some fat tap.

"If I was you," repeated Captain hand-crane to keep pace with his de-Barber, slowly, in order to give time mands, was shouting instructions from the slings being to its instructions from the late of the l rule so benovolent, so humane, and obtained. A calf. should always be a better start in life than one in Levi Leiter, of Washington.

His bride to be is, like his first series of reforms which he introseries of reforms which he intro- days. The first milk is not normal, spring it is large enough to duced into the land revenue policy of but is prepared by Nature to stimulate pasture with the rest of the the government of India, the estab- the calf's digestive organs. It pays The spring calf will require very in lishment of co-operative credit so to feed whole milk for the first two the same treatment as outlined distinct of co-operative credit to feed whole mink for the same treatment as outlined cieties, the promotion of scientific or three weeks at least, and then fall calf. To get the best agriculture, all testify to the sincer- change gradually to skim-milk. The it must be kept in a paddock or ity of his declaration that the peast fatal mistake of changing soo rapidly throughout the summer where ant has been in the background of is oftentimes made. It must ever be protection from the sun and flie every policy for which I have been re-kept in mind that whole milk is the is not advisable to turn it with the It is by his work for the natural feed and that the calf's stom- er stock. The first winter it was hand and the people—for the Tory in ach is so constituted that it can digest quire some high-priced frequency England was the out-anil-out reformer, it readily. The digestive tract must stable. The calf must be fell undergo a change with the change of and kent growing at all times. Ten pounds or four of five poorly-fed calf will not make a quarts of new milk per day, fed in two n cow as it would have, had it'r feeds for a strong calf, and three for cd proper attention. While a weakling, is sufficient for a start. stunted calves may recover some When changing to skim-milk best re- from the offects, if well ful in liter sults have been obtained by substitutlife it is poor practice to try to fails ing one pound at each feed until the calves on a limited amount of the calf is entirely on its new diet. At The four weeks of age 12 pounds of skim-rough it, and can be brought through creased to 15 or 18 pounds; the latter or roots > skim-milk-fed calf. This can large-mature animal.—Farmer's dvoc 3. to the cleanliness and temperature of the milk. It should always be fed sweet and at a temperature as near that of blood heat as possible. Too Both French and English Soldier many fail to realize that milk will cool several degrees from the time it is drawn until it comes from the separator, even under the most ideal con- the cigarette is one of those factories freach has ditions. Sometimes the milk is al- that lead a man to perdi ion, le lowed to stand for some time before say that their contention & ver fice it is fed; cold milk chills the stomach after reading reports from the pari so that the digestive processes are ous battle fronts and viewing picture checked and disturbances are bound to from the trenches. ing may cause trouble. It is not either under the earth or in the is hard to satisfy. The scales should wound dressed, and the surgeon has be used frequently, if not all the time, him a smoke to puff while the paliful in order to be sure that the calf gets job is being done. While awaiting atthe proper amount. Pails cannot be tacks from the enemy, or prior than kept sweet unless they are scalded offensive movement, provided by regularly. The condition of some daytime, the troops, both French war, munitions, Interior—there are animal off its feed. Sweet skim-cutes. calf pails is enough to put the young English, are always smoking citars formerly done by men who are now form temperature, fed in clean pails front have always recognized at regular invervals, in conjunction magic of the weed, and have taken a hant he lim with some concentrates to furnish fut, large stock in their auto and will produce thrifty calves, provided found that a packet has brought elser they are kept in a clean, well-ventilat- and grateful thanks from the regined stall or yard. The feeder must ient. The English and French Manay watch the young animals and rectify give the German prisoners eighted any disorders the moment they are no- and this is regarded by noth giver and ticed. Prevention of calf aliments is receiver as the best gift that can be To Replace Fat Removed. It is not permitted to estimate the tion with skim-milk to take the place the fighting man's comfort than allythrough it rapidly, has ever been his number of women engaged directly of the fat removed. The nutritive thing else Nibletts.

"Fletcher's ways are worse than wot Harris's are," commented Captain Bar.

"Ithe laughter of the delighted crew life he has been closely in touch with Harris's are," commented Captain Bar.

Harris's are," commented Captain Bar.

Laughter of the delighted crew life he has been closely in touch with history in the making. Yet, surprising he should go, it won't be your fault that have been removed, and fat or how. I might as well set my mind it won't be carbohydrates are required to replace rest about that story, once and for the fat removed from the milk. Whole all the fat removed from the milk. the fat removed from the milk. Whole all.

oats have been used successfully drink besides skim-milk. Many requires salt as well as the ground The following ration fairly good results for a call fa up to six months of age the calf fat should not be the it is necessary to keep it vistor in a growing condition. Strong of 75 lbs. corn chop and 25 1 or bran, together with all the hay the calf will cart should kee ture without concentrates will lines milk can, be safely fed, and as the calf the winter in good condition on all grows this should be gradually in- eral supply of clover hay and share amount is sufficient for a five-months- critical time of the calf's live and the calf. Scours is the common ailment of the fluence on the size and capacity of ill

THE CIGARETTE IN WAR

Fond of Them.

follow. Cool milk, or failing to feed . The one ruling desire of hil, other it at a constant temperature from day and men; is to obtain the baneful to day, is a direct cause of many un- "fag." From the moment a man be thrifty, skim-milk calves. Over feed- comes a recruit until he is put alvay kindness to the calf to give it all jit pital, he is after cigarettes. He is designed to satisfy the intermediate in the field hospital having a

Have Watters differs bestowed. Altogether, eigarette smoking Some feed must be given in conjunc- pears to have more potency to buist

> Courageous Tommy. Mother Tommy, if you ent

NOTES OF INTEREST PROTING BANKS AND BRAES.

: On in the Highland

hendmadid for thirted It to-ill-her MacNeill, who atta June this to increas Sergeants

Fifty charged fo shire, while

General A An ershi has been of Monit eight feel the fourt Edinburg! type of

Though Fights

one of the b oon! and klt

engliest other

ffry value

Lille was di

mapped out

through h

be the best

with the e

Kan Bars. I

and organi

lights in the

Sty times.

mined seriou

hirsed by bal

Coltring Germ

ver, dil not k

which he has k

or improving

When man ad juniors were madrong.

nd since las 1

ights both in E ptically the !

onlane, Gen. Ka

ed to show then

h be has lead to

gigo Flyide Co

harp thora

bulled hi

periments

All-Russia Nero

many brilla forces is of the Russ practicel de During h no fewer.

eighty bert the Czar's liant cavality civil engin e Petimating at . He was interested Ri lone. The Intent

1.7

q:

otice. R J. Sproule

> TEGAL. McCULLOUGH Bolicitor, etc"

Hair sters, Scheners ucas Plock lucas, K C W

DENTISTRY.

Dontist

Toronto Office Office hours, ha please call up residence by to

RUTLEDGE. per discontinued unti faid, except at the Wi ERTISING RATES. Advertisements

The Markdal

STANDAR

reisement as one inch.

not exced

approval of the Publishe's

Standard, Ma

die Register

Poultry New

lut . takmar Buninens, siriet.) W. O. DAVIS liter and in it

Baper kept and fire R J. SPROUNT Conversalor Charges yer

det. Markdale" M LUCKS, RANEY SHE gere Bank B'd;

D Henry PA

J. A. MacARTHE in Artley Black Inchware store; I. et outhest corner col ban Tomat ireet.

G. CAMPBELL a.Ds., DDs1 Surgeon. Graduit ego of Dentistry h. Parties calling after in reception room, of dental

MILLER, M.B. M. B. Rocklyn, Ont of the Medical Fach iniversity. Kingston Surgeon in ... ne Hospital () val 113:3 aud 5:13. H . a