

GREETINGS
To My Friends and Customers I wish a Happy and Prosperous New Year.
P. J. THOMPSON

FLESHERTON

The Willing Helpers at Ceylon held a box social on Thursday evening last, which was very successful. Auctioneer McPhail sold the boxes, Rev. Mr. McDonald occupied the chair, and a pleasing programme was rendered. The proceeds in behalf of the Red Cross amounted to $47.00.

Mr. W. E. Dyer, of Port Huron, Mich., was in town on Saturday, on a short visit with his brother, Reeve McKenzie and Deputy Reeve Cameron were returned by acclamation. The vote on Monday for Councillors was as follows: Fred Mathewson, 253; James Stinson 227; John Burnett, 158; Robt. Swanton, 154; Samuel Bachelor 147. The first four elected.

The 53rd anniversary entertainment of the Methodist Sunday School was held as usual on New Year's evening and was the most successful for a number of years. After the tea served in the school room a lengthy and very pleasing programme conducted by the pastor was rendered, the numbers of which we have not space to enumerate. A Cantata Santa Claus Friend was given by over thirty members of the school and was a taking part of the programme. A special feature which was deeply interesting to the audience was the unveiling of an Honor Roll which was done by Mr. M. K. Richardson, who delivered a touching address. The roll which contained 47 names, mostly connected with the church, is a neat work of art designed by Miss Maud Richardson.
