TRAVERSTON

(Special to The Standard.) When the temperature drops down to 30 degrees below zero, it is a good tester of the temper and endurance of both men and horses. We had ample evidence of this on Monday of last week, when unloading over twenty tons of fertilizer. Most of the fellows stood the test well, but there was an exceptional one whose nerves were off a point.

Colds and a gripe are somewhat prevalent; the strange to say, it is the younger bachelor element, who are most affected. Mr. and Mrs. W. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bryan of Carney, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Right Bryan the first of the week.

Mrs. Alex. Rutherford of Durham, spent the week-end at the home of her brother, Mr. W. R. Jack.

Mr. W. L. Falkingham, of Varney circuit, filled Zion's pulpit on Sunday afternoon.

J. J. Anderson, of Milton, spent the past week at the home of his brother, L. W. on the 6th. Conf. The latter has rented his farm to Mr. Angus Black and purposes moving to Toronto or suburbs in the near future.

We've always considered the east half of lot 13 on the 6th Con., a desirable one for stock as it is well watered and naturally drained. It is the "Robson" purchase, it is last Thursday from Mr. John McNally. John has 200 acres now; but the boys will soon be able to give a helping hand.

January and February usually garner in a goodly number of the pioneer fathers and mothers. Perhaps, it is a suitable season for those who have braved the hardships of the early days, who endured many privations and eventually overcome all difficulties, to thus pass over when land and sea is in bloom. One of our oldest and most respected pioneer fathers—Mr. Alex. Martin, of the 6th Con., quietly and peacefully "crossed the Bar" on Wednesday morning, Feb. 14th, after a lingering illness of nearly a year at the advanced age of 87 years. He was born in Dist. Scotland, and in youth came to Canada, shortly after being wedded to Miss Jessie McLellan, who died twenty-three years ago, June 14th. Over fifty years ago, they settled on Lot 16 and the humble home of those the finest residences in the township, and the farm is noted as being one of the richest and most productive. To them were born two stalwart sons and four fair daughters. Sarah, Mrs. William Peters, deceased; Ronald on the homestead, Bella, Mrs. James Halley, across the sideroad from the home; Kate, Mrs. Lawrence Witherspoon, Colony, Sask.; Norman in Hannah, N. Dakota; Mary, Mrs. Robt. McFadden, near Durham. The four children of Mr. and Mrs. Peters were also reared in the home, as they were left orphans, when very young and the kindness shown them has been nobly repaid for, during the past nine or ten years. Misses Jessie, May, (now Mrs. Stewart McNally) and Edith have borne the burden of the home and its cares with a devotion most commendable and nursed their grandfather with assiduous care. Herbert, too, of Calgary, proved a helpful youth before removing to the west. Mrs. Halley and Mrs. McFadden were present during the last days. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Zion, Rev. E. S. Moyer conducting a comforting service in the home and at the church, before laying the beautiful casket away in the white lined grave and despite the storm, a large gathering showed their respect and sympathy. Mr. Martin was a man of sterling uprightness, a good, hospitable and an obliging neighbor, a man who loved and revered his Maker. He was a member of the Presbyterian faith and Liberal in Politics, but broad minded in his views. His son, Ronald, is one of the strongest and most progressive men in Glenelg and the members of the family most highly esteemed.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF. HAIR STOPS FALLING. Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is sure evidence of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Mrs. G. F. Peart left on Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. R. Hastie, in Toronto.
