

SKY SLANG IS A NEW LANGUAGE

CHOICE EXAMPLES OF QUAIN
AND PECULIAR TERMS.

Every Day Brings Novel Additions to the Picturesque Speech of
Our Airmen.

The war in the air is evolving a new language of its own. Already a many quaint and peculiar words are in use among airmen, and the list is being added to daily.

No airmen ever thinks of talking about flight, for example. Flip is the word he uses. And his flips are of a certain duration, not of a hour, say, not for so many miles.

The late Flight-Lieutenant Harold Roshier, whose book, "In the Royal National Air Service," is generally acknowledged to provide the most intimating and illuminating insight into the human side of war flying yet pub-shed, gives some choice examples of sky slang.

There is spikebobble, for instance.
Writing of an aeroplane chase after a spelunker, he remarked: "Two ma-nys went up to spikebobble him." Any learned professors of English might have given years of study and thoughts, yet have failed to create word so peculiarly expressive and meaningful as spikebobble in connection with Zepp strafing.

Obscure Origins.
Huffed, meaning got killed, is an airman's characteristic airmen's word. Lieutenant Roshier has given to the public at large; but he omitted to mention the phrase, "He hasn't come back for his cap," which has the same lancholy significance.

This phrase originated at a certain school for training naval airmen.
Before a man "took the air" it was customary for him to hang his Service cap on one of a long row of pegs. When a pilot crashed, had some other unfortunate misfortune, he did not, of course, come back for his cap; and hence the origin of saying.

Another now common expression came from the same school (is shoo). [Hick]bom means a good many things, but chiefly that enemy aircraft about. If Zeppelins or Taubes on their way, a hickbom is "on."
Nothing, in fact, which is calculated at the wind up the wind is a hick-bom. The word is really a distortion of Indian word, meaning an eagle.

Wanted a Word.

Want is one of the most frequently words in the Air Service. Do-stunts includes all manner of —looping the loop, indulging in banking and nose-diving, land-in a new and original way, and so and a flying-machine is never hitting 'but' a bus. Small airships plums, however, to borrow or steal anything belong-to another is to hotstuff it; and in Naval Air Service all carpenters hippies.

Flying officer who gets promotion to have shopped another stripe is referred to as a spot of curious that flying-men, being in the invention of new should not as yet have hit upon generally popular terms for them.

present they are airmen, not es, or sky pilots, or aviators, or the other fancy names which ingenious persons attempt to upon them.

E POILLU'S PHILOSOPHY

The French Soldier Sums Up
The Situation.

anything might be worse than it is the Poillu, and so he has coma Litany. Every regiment has rent version, but always with the basis, according to Kathleen
in "The White Road to Ver-

Here is the way she sums up
such soldier philosopher:

two things one is certain: either you're mobilized or you're not mobilized; if you're not mobilized, there is no need to worry; if you are mobilized, then you're behind the front. If you're behind the front, there is no need to worry; if you're in the front, of two things one is certain: either you're resting in a safe place there is no need to worry; if you're exposed to danger, of two things one is certain: either you're wounded or you're killed; if you're not wounded, there
is no need to worry; if you are
wounded, seriously or slightly, there is no need to worry; if you're wounded seriously, or
slightly, there is no need to worry; if you recover
or you die. If you recover no need to worry; if you die no need to worry.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a
heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and
more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

The Markdale STANDARD

is published on Thursday by
C. W. RUTLEDGE,
Markdale, Ontario.

Subscription, $1.50 a year. Twenty-five cents added when not paid in advance. No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Every Day Brings Novel Additions to
the Picturesque Speech of
Our Airmen.

The war in the air is evolving a
new language of its own. Already a
many quaint and peculiar words are in
use among airmen, and the list is being added to daily.

No airmen ever thinks of talking
about flight, for example. Flip is
the word he uses. And his flips are
of a certain duration, not of a
hour, say, not for so many miles.

The late Flight-Lieutenant Harold
Roshier, whose book, "In the Royal National Air Service," is generally acknowledged to provide the most inti-
mating and illuminating insight into
the human side of war flying yet pub-
shed, gives some choice examples of
sky slang.

There is spikebobble, for instance.
Writing of an aeroplane chase after a
spelunker, he remarked: "Two ma-
nys went up to spikebobble him." Any
learned professors of English
might have given years of study and
thoughts, yet have failed to create
word so peculiarly expressive and
meaningful as spikebobble in connection with Zepp strafing.

Obscure Origins.

Huffed, meaning got killed, is an
airman's characteristic airmen's
word. Lieutenant Roshier has given to
the public at large; but he omitted to
mention the phrase, "He hasn't come
back for his cap," which has the same
lancholy significance.

This phrase originated at a certain
school for training naval airmen.
Before a man "took the air" it was
customary for him to hang his Service cap on one of a long
row of pegs. When a pilot crashed,
had some other unfortunate mis-
fortune, he did not, of course, come back
for his cap; and hence the origin of
saying.

Another now common expression
came from the same school (is
shoo). [Hick]bom means a good many
things, but chiefly that enemy aircraft
about. If Zeppelins or Taubes
on their way, a hickbom is "on."
Nothing, in fact, which is calculated
at the wind up the wind is a hick-
bom. The word is really a distortion of Indian word, meaning an eagle.

Wanted a Word.

Want is one of the most frequently
words in the Air Service. Do-
stunts includes all manner of
—looping the loop, indulging in
banking and nose-diving, land-
in a new and original way, and so
and a flying-machine is never
hitting 'but' a bus. Small airships
plums, however, to borrow or steal anything belong-
to another is to hotstuff it; and in
Naval Air Service all carpenters
hippies.

Flying officer who gets promotion
to have shopped another stripe
is referred to as a spot of
curious that flying-men, being
in the invention of new
should not as yet have hit upon
generally popular terms for them.

present they are airmen, not
es, or sky pilots, or aviators, or
the other fancy names which
ingenious persons attempt to
upon them.

E POILLU'S PHILOSOPHY

The French Soldier Sums Up
The Situation.

anything might be worse than it
is the Poillu, and so he has com-
a Litany. Every regiment has
rent version, but always with
the basis, according to Kathleen
in "The White Road to Ver-

Here is the way she sums up
such soldier philosopher:

two things one is certain: either
you're mobilized or you're not mobil-
ized; if you're not mobilized, there
is no need to worry; if you are
mobilized, then you're behind the
front. If you're behind the front,
there is no need to worry; if you're
in the front, of two things one is
certain: either you're resting in a
safe place there is no need to worry; if you're exposed
to danger, of two things one is certain: either you're wounded or you're
killed; if you're not wounded, there
is no need to worry; if you are
wounded, seriously or
slightly, there is no need to
worry; if you're wounded seriously, or
slightly, there is no need to
worry; if you recover
or you die. If you recover
no need to worry; if you die
no need to worry.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a
heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and
more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a
heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and
more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

LEGAL.

P. MCGULLOUGH
Esq., Solicitor, etc. Offices
Main Street, Markdale, Money to order.

LUCAS RANNEY & HENRY
Baritors, Subitors, etc. Esq.
Oscar-Lucas Block, Markdale;
Traders Bank Bldg., Toronto;
J. D. Lucas, K.C., W. E. Ranney,
Esq. W. D. Henry, B.A.

DENTISTRY.

DR. J. A. MACARTHUR
Dentist.

Office in Artley Block (over Bates hardware store), Entrance at southwest corner of building, Toronto street.

FRENCH DEFEAT

CROWN PRINCE

General Assault of the Enemy
Is Repulsed

Paris, May 20.—The Crown Prince planned a general offensive Saturday night with the object of regaining the positions recently lost to the French on the Chemin-des-Dames. All night long and late Saturday morning a drumfire of heavy shells and asphyxiating projectiles was directed against Petain's troops, but the counter-preparation of the French prevented the launching of the assault over the greater part of the menaced front, and the German troops massed for the attack were not able to leave their trenches. At points where the Germans did reach the French lines spirited fighting took place, terminating to the disadvantage of the Germans.
Except on a front of about 200 yards north-east of Cerny, where the enemy obtained a footing in advanced

AUCTIONEER.

B. H. WALDEN,
Licensed Auctioneer for the County of Grey. All sales promptly attended to. Farm sales a specialty. Articles for sale may be made at Markdale Office or B. H. Walden,

FRONTIER

CHOICE EXAMPLES OF QUAIN
AND PECULIAR TERMS.

Every Day Brings Novel Additions to
the Picturesque Speech of
Our Airmen.

The war in the air is evolving a
new language of its own. Already a
many quaint and peculiar words are in
use among airmen, and the list is being added to daily.

No airmen ever thinks of talking
about flight, for example. Flip is
the word he uses. And his flips are
of a certain duration, not of a
hour, say, not for so many miles.

The late Flight-Lieutenant Harold
Roshier, whose book, "In the Royal National Air Service," is generally acknowledged to provide the most inti-
mating and illuminating insight into
the human side of war flying yet pub-
shed, gives some choice examples of
sky slang.

There is spikebobble, for instance.
Writing of an aeroplane chase after a
spelunker, he remarked: "Two ma-
nys went up to spikebobble him." Any
learned professors of English
might have given years of study and
thoughts, yet have failed to create
word so peculiarly expressive and
meaningful as spikebobble in connection with Zepp strafing.

Obscure Origins.

Huffed, meaning got killed, is an
airman's characteristic airmen's
word. Lieutenant Roshier has given to
the public at large; but he omitted to
mention the phrase, "He hasn't come
back for his cap," which has the same
lancholy significance.

This phrase originated at a certain
school for training naval airmen.
Before a man "took the air" it was
customary for him to hang his Service cap on one of a long
row of pegs. When a pilot crashed, had some other unfortunate mis-
fortune, he did not, of course, come back
for his cap; and hence the origin of
saying.

Another now common expression
came from the same school (is
shoo). [Hick]bom means a good many
things, but chiefly that enemy aircraft
about. If Zeppelins or Taubes
on their way, a hickbom is "on."
Nothing, in fact, which is calculated
at the wind up the wind is a hick-
bom. The word is really a distortion of Indian word, meaning an eagle.

WANTED A WORD.

Want is one of the most frequently
words in the Air Service. Do-
stunts includes all manner of
—looping the loop, indulging in
banking and nose-diving, land-
in a new and original way, and so
and a flying-machine is never
hitting 'but' a bus. Small airships
plums, however, to borrow or steal anything belong-
to another is to hotstuff it; and in
Naval Air Service all carpenters
hippies.

Flying officer who gets promotion
to have shopped another stripe
is referred to as a spot of
curious that flying-men, being
in the invention of new
should not as yet have hit upon
generally popular terms for them.

present they are airmen, not
es, or sky pilots, or aviators, or
the other fancy names which
ingenious persons attempt to
upon them.

E POILLU'S PHILOSOPHY

The French Soldier Sums Up
The Situation.

anything might be worse than it
is the Poillu, and so he has com-
a Litany. Every regiment has
rent version, but always with
the basis, according to Kathleen
in "The White Road to Ver-

Here is the way she sums up
such soldier philosopher:

two things one is certain: either
you're mobilized or you're not mobil-
ized; if you're not mobilized, there
is no need to worry; if you are
mobilized, then you're behind the
front. If you're behind the front,
there is no need to worry; if you're
in the front, of two things one is
certain: either you're resting in a
safe place there is no need to worry; if you're exposed
to danger, of two things one is certain: either you're wounded or you're
killed; if you're not wounded, there
is no need to worry; if you are
wounded, seriously or
slightly, there is no need to
worry; if you're wounded seriously, or
slightly, there is no need to
worry; if you recover
or you die. If you recover
no need to worry; if you die
no need to worry.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a
heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and
more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

est potato soils are loose and
varying in texture from a
heavy or gravelly loam to a silt.
The light-working soils produce better quality and
more than heavy soils, and both
d top products in such soils
from disease.

LEGAL.

P. MCGULLOUGH
Esq., Solicitor, etc. Offices
Main Street, Markdale, Money to
order.

LUCAS RANNEY & HENRY
Baritors, Subitors, etc. Esq.
Oscar-Lucas Block, Markdale;
Traders Bank Bldg., Toronto;
J. D. Lucas, K.C., W. E. Ranney,
Esq. W. D. Henry, B.A.

DENTISTRY.

DR. J. A. MACARTHUR
Dentist.

Office in Artley Block (over Bates hardware store), Entrance
at southwest corner of building, Toronto street.

FRENCH DEFEAT

CROWN PRINCE

General Assault of the Enemy
Is Repulsed

Paris, May 20.—The Crown Prince
planned a general offensive Saturday
night with the object of regaining the
positions recently lost to the French
on the Chemin-des-Dames. All night long and late Saturday morning a
drumfire of heavy shells and asphyxiating
projectiles was directed against
Petain's troops, but the counter-preparation of the French prevented the
launching of the assault over the
greater part of the menaced front, and
the German troops massed for the attack were not able to leave their
trenches. At points where the Germans did reach the French lines spirited fighting took place, terminating
to the disadvantage of the Germans.
Except on a front of about 200 yards
north-east of Cerny, where the enemy
obtained a footing in advanced

AUCTIONEER.