ECZEMA Has Stayed Cured For 15 YEARS

THE Ketchesons are well known as pioneer settlers of Hastings County, and none of them probably has a wider acquaintance than Mr. W. D. Ketcheson, who was formerly Division Court Bailiff of the Trenton Court, and is now living at 278 Front street, Belleville, Ont.

Over fifteen years ago Mr. Ketcheson was cured of an extremely severe case of eczema and piles by Dr. Chase's Ointment, and he writes now to say that the cure proved a permanent one.

In 1897 Mr. Ketcheson wrote as follows:—"I was troubled for thirty years with itching piles and eczema. I could not sleep at night, and when I got warm the itching was terrible. Eczema covered my legs down to the knees, perfectly raw. I have tried every preparation I could hear of. Seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised, I procured a box, and this Ointment effected a complete cure."

On Sept. 28th, 1912, Mr. Ketcheson wrote, as follows:—"I had suffered for many years from eczema and piles, and had tried doctors and everything I could hear of in vain. Reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I purchased it at once, and was soon completely cured. That was fifteen years ago, so there can be no doubt of the cure being a permanent one. I have met a great many people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment."

In this year of 1917 Mr. Ketcheson again confirms his cure, and expresses his wishes that others may benefit by his experience. Refuse to accept substitutes.

TRAVERSTON

(Special to The Standard.)

Some will finish haying this week, others are just beginning. The crop is a good average.

Prospects for a big potato yield are bright; apples are rare.

After spending four weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Stewart McNally, Miss Marjorie Evans left the first of the week for her home in Rochester.

Mr. S. K. Currell, foreman of the Southam Press Co., who has been enjoying a fortnight's visit with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cooke, returned to Toronto on Monday. Miss Sadie is remaining for a couple of weeks.

Too busy last week to pen a budget! We should have made reference to the very successful meeting of the Women's Institute, held at the fine, old home of Mrs. Peter O'Neil. Three dozen fair ones were present. Mrs. W. J. Greenwood had a real, practical paper on "how to make an Institute a success." The collection was $3.25. Mrs. O'Neil, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Lenahan, of Owen Sound, served lunch at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. C. C. Robson and Master Will, of Edmonton, are visiting the Robson homestead at present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Blair were out from Durham one day last week, straightening up the root crop.

What might have proved a tragic accident occurred on Tuesday evening of last week at the foot of Greenwood's Hill on the 6th con. Messrs. Bowes and Howard, of Markdale, were autoing to the Falls for an hour's fishing when they were met by Mr. Greenwood's two girls, accompanied by the dog, going for the cows. The animal made for the front wheel and it struck him fair, causing the car to skid and turn turtle. Mr. Howard, though badly hurt, was able to crawl out and was making heroic efforts to release his companion, who was pinned under the car, when near-by help arrived and overturned it. Phone messages were sent to Markdale and the Dr. and other help arrived. They were both seriously hurt, but insisted on returning to their homes, where their wounds and bruises were promptly attended to.

An esteemed pioneer mother passed away at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Currer's, in Toronto, on Sunday evening, July 22nd, in the person of Mrs. Robert Hastie, after an illness of four weeks. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Mary Moffat, was born in Scotland in 1834 and in infancy came with the family to Canada. She was educated in a private school in Hamilton and on March 4th, 1861, was happily wedded to Mr. Hastie, who brought his bride to lot 13 on the 6th con. Here them were born three sons and four daughters, all successful in life and deeply attached to their mother, who after sixteen years of wedded life lost her husband and was left to rear her family alone. Nobly she did her part. The family are:—Isabell, Mrs. D. Currer, of Toronto; Samuel of Butte, Montana; Margaret, Mrs. G. E. Peart, and James, of Toronto; Robert, of Medicine Hat. The last two were nobly assisted by sisters to nurse her, and Miss Mary, who has been an invalid for the last two years, who has been cared for by her brother and specially cared for by her sister, Sarah, Mrs. John Martin, of Columbia. A few years ago they sold the farm and moved to Toronto. The remains were brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Peart in Tecumseth and the funeral took place the following day to Zion Church, where Rev. S. Moyer conducted a very comforting service in the home after which the big concourse of neighbors, friends and relatives wended their way to the burial place. The grave was neatly draped in white and the casket
