

The Markdale Standard.

C. W. RUTLEDGE, Proprietor.
VOL. 35.—WHOLE NO. 1916

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, OCT. 4, 1917.

TERMS—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.
Single Copies 5 cents.

Fall Wheat

FORD

ED 1880

AS & CO.
ERSSINESS TRANSACTED
in Ont. and Quebec. Deposits lowered at 4 per cent.

W.M. LUCAS, Manager

EEP WELL

D. D.P.H., CHIEF OFFICER
BOARD OF HEALTH.

ITION.

ection of infective agents. It includes during the course of a communicable disease recovered or died. Examples of course of an infectious or communicable disease recovered or died.

In disinfesting sputum from open cholera patients, or the secretions of diphtheria. It is especially important with the means of carrying off sputum and secretions from the body. The stools are held in a basin, and then buried a foot or two in the ground.

Most important it is to wash each member of the family after each contact. The utensils should be boiled after each contact.

patient the room occupied by him should be disinfected. Many people think that the gases of sulphur or formaldehyde will kill all the germs. But there was no such thing as a gas.

Come and hear Little Mildred Manley, Canada's most famous child singer, in a repertoire of character songs: Fair Concert, Oct. 10, 1917.

Mr. Wilfred Burnside, of Markdale, accompanied by his mother, spent Sunday last, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fawcett—Meaford Mirror.

Mrs. James McFadden and son, G. J., attended the funeral of the former's niece, Miss Violet Leonard, on Friday at Warkton Bay View Cemetery.

Attend the Markdale Fair this year for naught but to hear Little Mildred Manley, Canada's most famous child soloist, at the concert in the evening.

The drawing room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, our popular and most obliging postmaster, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound.

The bride wore a suit of nigger brown broadcloth with hat to match, and mink fur, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of the valley. The happy couple were unattended.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara; Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound, and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar, uncle of the bride.

A sumptuous breakfast was served, which was very heartily enjoyed. There was but one toast, that of the bride and bridegroom, proposed by the minister, and enthusiastically received.

The newly married couple left on the morning train amid showers of confetti, on their honeymoon, which will be spent at Toronto and other points south, and the good wishes of their Markdale friends follow them. The Standard joins in congratulations to the happy pair.

The ladies of Christ Church, Markdale, purpose holding their annual bazaar on November 5th, 1917.

Mrs. Mary Coleman, formerly of Markdale, but now residing near Swift Current, Sask., is here on a visit with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Carruthers and son, Carl B. of Kimerley, were on a pleasant motor trip recently visiting relatives at Moncton and St. Mary's.

Mr. Angus McCormick, of Tolleson, N.D., is visiting with his brother, Mr. McCormick, Glenely, and gave the Standard a friendly call on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. F. Currie and sons, Edward and Arthur, of New Haven, U.S., have returned home after spending the summer months at Mr. Robert Bradley's, "Maple Croft."

The union Field Day of Sports of Flesherton and Markdale High Schools will be held on the King Edward Park, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11th, admission 10 cents. In the evening a concert by the pupils of the two High Schools will be given in the Armouries Silver Collection. Proceeds of Field Day and Concert are to be given for Patriotic Purposes.

Everyone come—Tickets that were sold marked Friday the 5th will be good for Thursday 4th. The school winning the most points will be awarded a shield.

Madame Zetta is at the Revere House now, and will be until after the Fair. She will read your hand for 50 cents; photos read for 15 cents. If in trouble and needing advice, it is advisable to consult Madame Zetta's entire season's crop, and was fully to the peak. Pigs, poultry and some implements, etc., were destroyed along with the barn and contents. Only a small insurance was carried. Mr. Fogarty's numerous friends deeply sympathize with him in his severe loss.

Single copies of The Standard 5¢.

Local and General

Men's heavy rib undershirt's, $1.00 each at Mercer's.Heavy Scotch knit underwear, $1. at P. J. Thompson's.Special values in Men's and Boy's Waterproof Coats at Mercer's.The Boy Scouts will parade on Saturday at 7:15, instead of parade on the date of Price's Day, the 5th October.Dundalk Hall Exhibition on Thursday and Friday, 11th and 12th October.The speeding events at Markdale Fair this year will be the best ever held here.Mrs. E. A. Clark, of Portland, Oregon, is visiting her sister, Mrs.
Thornton Teeter.The Presbyterian annual Power Supper will be held in the Armouries on the 2nd November.Special at Mercer's this week.
Men's heavy Police Braces, 25 cents pair. Men's Wool socks, 3 pairs for $1.00.Eye glasses for both old and young are correctly fitted at W. J. Shortill's, Markdale's, optician.Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilson and Master Howard attended Meaford Fair and remained to visit friends over Sunday.Come and hear Little Mildred Manley, Canada's most famous child singer, in a repertoire of character songs: Fair Concert, Oct. 10, 1917.Mr. Wilfred Burnside, of Markdale, accompanied by his mother, spent Sunday last, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fawcett—Meaford Mirror.Mrs. James McFadden and son, G.
J., attended the funeral of the former's niece, Miss Violet Leonard, on Friday at Warkton Bay View Cemetery.Attend the Markdale Fair this year for naught but to hear Little Mildred Manley, Canada's most famous child soloist, at the concert in the evening.The drawing room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, our popular and most obliging postmaster, to the strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of the valley. The happy couple were unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar,
uncle of the bride.The drawing room was appropri-
ately decorated for the occasion, and
the bride entered the room on the
arm of her father, our popular and
most obliging postmaster, to the
strains of the wedding march played
by Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen
Sound.The bride wore a suit of nigger
brown broadcloth with hat to match,
and mink fur, and carried a bouquet
of sweet peas, heart roses and lily of
the valley. The happy couple were
unattended.The ceremony was performed by
Rev. J. Thurnburn-Conn, and those
present were: Mr. T. M. Plewes, of
Sudbury; Alonzo Plewes, of Tara;
Miss Gertrude Ross, of Owen Sound,
and Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Edgar, uncle of the bride.</