MANUFACTURER'S OVERSTOCK WHOLESALE PRICES

500

Reg. $50 * $ $35

An exceptional opportunity to get a first-class machine at a bargain. Equipped with A.1 Motor, Universal Tone Arm that plays all makes of records and Tone Control for full or modulated volume. Has, in fact, all the features found on the higher priced machines. The case is in mahogany firish, 41 in, high.

One year guarantee with each machine.
If not as represented return within 10 days and get your money back.

Price while they last $35 cash with order or C.O.D. D. ROBERTSON

Manufactmers' Agent. TORONTO

CHAPTER VI.-(Cont'd.)

of Alice's friends; "Alice will make a splendid minister's wife."

But when at length Mr. Skelton proposed to Alice, she had no difficulty in an in my position could not go as a Tommy."

"Why not?" asked Alice quickly. "I am told that lots of men of levery and far better position than Tom dreamed of; the work she would have to do as a minister's wife, too, would be thoroughly in accord with her tastes and desires. But Alice cared nothing for Mr. Skelton. Her heart was sad ther refusal, but she had no hesitation. The problem which faced her now, however, was not so easy to settle to me how he had to be pals with his father was a manufacturer in a fairly large way, and he had just been admitted as a partner into the business. He was twenty-four years of the way and he had just been admitted as a partner into the business. He was twenty-four years of you—in fact, I have loved you all admitted as a partner into the busi-ness. He was twenty-four years of my life. You will marry me, won't age, now, was highly respected throughout the town, and was looked. Harry was very disappointed, and cach other and smiled at Harry's frequent visits.

"I knew our Alice would do the right thing," aid Mr. Lister to his wife; "for a time she went silly about that Pollard boy, but she threw him over of her own accord. Harry's a library her definite reply in three days' time, and although she classed with liquor and tobacco as one of the own accord. Harry's a library her definite reply in three days' time, and although she classed with liquor and tobacco as one of those utterly useless frivolities that over of her own accord. When he had left the louse her father and mother had come into the room.

It has been proposed that musical instruments should be classed as lux-uries. In other words, music is to be classed with liquor and tobacco as one of those utterly useless frivolities that bouse her father and mother had come into the room.

What an anomaly! Music, always a necessity, becomes in time of war absolutely indispensable to a nation. Will not be a better chance in Brun-

"I don't think our Alice has for-gotten Tom Pollard, though," she re-

"Nonsense," replied her husband, "what is the good of her thinking about Tom? I thought he would have a done well at one time, and if he hadn't f done well at one time, and if he hadn't taken up with that Polly Powell lot the might have got on; but he did, and then he went for a soldier. What is the good of our Alice thinking about him? Even if the war were to finish next work and Tom were to come back, it would take him years, even if he had luck, to make five pound a week, while Harry's making a thou sand a year if he's making a penny."

"Ay, I know," replied Mrs. Lister, "but you, can never judge a lass's ""I have been such a thousands of people have to be brought tool as to say no!"

"I have said nothing as yet," was the collection of the had luck, to make five pound a week, while Harry's making a thou sand a year if he's making a penny."

"Ay, I know," replied Mrs. Lister, "but of jourse you will take the last of jourse you will take the instruments that should lead us in singing."

"but you can never judge a lass's heart. You know how it was wi'us. George; at the very time you asked me to be your wife you were only making thirty-three shillings a week, and William Pott was making hundreds a year. He was a far better chance nor you, George, and people said I was a fool for not taking him;

but I couldn't."
"That was a different thing," said George Lister hastily, "that Pollard boy went wrong. Besides, we need not think about that now; Alice gave him up, and very likely he will be On the night when Tom was alone in the trenches. Harry Briarfield made his way to Mr. Lister's house, and it was not long before Alice and he were left alone together. Harry had made the result. "Look here, Alice," he said presently, "I want to say something to you, something very particular. You must I am of you, and perhaps you have Don't "walk up" on any wounded wondered why I haven't spoken I game without having a cartridge in wanted to badly enough, but I waited the chamber of your rifle, ready for until father took me into partnership.

You see," he went on, "at the beginning of the war things were going bad with us; there was a been in the cet. with us; there was a boom in the cot-ton trade about a year ago, but when the war broke out there was a regular slump, and we thought we were going to be ruined. Now, however, things are going very well again. We have got some war contracts, and we are For love's strength standeth in love's

Alice's heart beat wildly, although And whose suffers most hath most to by an effort she appeared calm:
"I wonder you have not joined the Army, Harry," she said; "every day there's a call for more men."
"Not if I know it," replied Harry.
"At one time I did think of trying for a commission, but that would have dough method in the bread recipes. When the dough is ready for the pans. "That's something like," said many been foolish; you see I might not have roll it three-quarters of an inch thick. Of Alice's friends; "Alice will make a man in my position could not go as

The problem which faced her now, dishes, and scrub the floors of his bar-however, wis not so easy to settle racks, and how he had to be pals with Young Harry Briarfield was not a lot of chaps who didn't know the comparative stranger like Mr. Skel-decencies of life. Besides, think of me upon as one who in a few years would not a little surprised, that Alice did In time of war everyone expects hold his head high amon, commercial not answer in the affirmative right to sacrifice a certain amount of lux-

A Few Don't For Hunters. Don't pass a loaded gun for inspecion to a brother hunter, or anyone for how universal in its appeal, could be that matter.

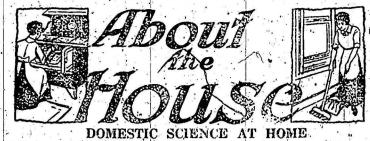

house or camp or anywhere else.

loaded gun in your hands. Don't think you can do accurate shooting with a dirty gun.

Don't "walk up" on any wounded Don't by any chance set the woods

Not by the wine drunk, but the wine

Keep seed corn away from rats and Sixteenth Lesson. Rolls, Tea Biscuits and Buns. Rolls and tea biscuits make a de- each other. Set to rise as directed for lightful addition to the daily bill of bread for forty minutes. Bake in fare. The regular bread dough may moderate oven for twenty-five mi be used in making them. Remove from oven and glaz nutes. Remove from oven and glaze with a syrup made of one cupful of Parker Touse Rolls molasses, one-half cupful of brown

Use the recine for white bread, the sponge method. When the bread is ready for the pan, roll on a slightly a saucepan and boil to 220 degrees floured pastry board one-quarter inch thick. Cut with a four-inch cookie cutter, brush them with melted butter, there fold over in proceedings the cutter of the cookie ter, there fold over in proceedings the cutter of the cu ter, ther fold over in pocketbook style, added to these doughs when starting pressing firmly. Set on a well-greased if a richer quality is desired. pan two inches apart. Set to rise for thirty minutes. Then brush with egg and milk wash. Bake for eighteen minutes in a hot oven. Quickly brush the force of the walls upon their avto measure one cupful when mashed, and while hot add two tablespoonfuls the tops of the rolls upon their ar-

Let the mixture cool to eighty degrees. Fahrenheit, then crumble in one yeast Prepare the dough as for the Parker House rolls. Roll it one-quarter cake and a sufficient quantity of flour much diminished in a strong breeze; inch thick, then brush with melted to make a stiff dough, about three and under such circumstances a flag butter. Fold over the dough and beat with a rolling pin for three minutes. Cut with two-inch cookie cutter. Set in warm place to rise for eighteen Then brush with egg wash. minutes: Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes. Cinnamon Cake Now flatten them out with the paln

Use the recipe calling for straight

Use the straight dough mixture, buys two medium-sized paint brushes Take the dough ne ready for the of fair quality, she will save material comparative stranger like Mr. Skel decencies of life. Besides, think of me ton; she had known him all her life, on a shilling a day!"

they had been brought up together in the same town, they had gone to Sunday School together, they had sung ducts together at concerts, and all thome," replied Harry; "they in the light of a lover she had always been fond of him.

Harry was in a good position too; his father was a manufacturer in a silence for a few min Lace the dough he. ready for the of fair quality, she will save material-ton a slightly floured ly in greasing pans and in applying pastry board one-quarter of an inch suggested Alice.

Then spread it with brown soda bath in scalding water. Wash ounce of butter to every pound of well, then rinse in plenty of cold dough. Roll like jelly roll, but in, water. Now dry, and they are ready slices one and one-half inches thick.

Harry was in a good position too; his father was a manufacturer in a good position two.

There was a silence for a few minpans and roll it on a slightly floured ly in greasing pans and in applying

Music a Necessity, in Wartime.

In time of war everyone expects alism.

Old Yorkshire Scones

Cook a sufficient number of potatoe of butter, two tablespoonfuls of sugar two tablespoonfuls of salt, one cup-ful of scalded milk. Beat well to mix for thirty minutes. Lift with spatula or cake turner and put the of the baking pan, but cover it with a slight coating of sifted flour.

Egg Glaze for Rolls

Use one egg and four tablespoo

ly mix, then apply to the rolls with

The housewife will find that, if she

During the last few weeks Harry had come often to Mr. Lister's house, ostensibly to talk about business, but really to see Alice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lister had nudged once the house that night, Mr. and Mrs. Lister had nudged once often to the number of the house that night, and the house that night, and mrs. Lister had nudged once often to the number of t she shook her head, but didn't speak.

"Come now, lass, you needn't be so shy. I know he's asked you to him; he asked for my permission a man, and then he told me he going to speak to you to-night.

can't de better, my dear. Have fixed it all up?"

d. "No" ske gold.

"When patriotic emotions demand ex-nyesion and open program to the fixed it all up?" "No," she said.
"What!" cried the father, "you don't music that will supply it. When mean to say you have been such a thousands of people have to be brought him?"

'I' don't know." replied Alice.

"Don't know! Why don't you know?

The musical sense is one of the highest and noblest possessed by man.

him don't you?" You like him, don't you?"

"I don't know, father," she replied, It is also one of the most fundamental and then she rushed out of the room.
"What's the meaning of this, lass?"
said George Lister to his wife. Has she told you anything?"
"Not a word," said Mrs. Lister.

(To be continued.)

It is also one of the most fundamental reaching down to the earliest stages of civilization and the lowest orders intelligence. The savage goes to war with the beat of the tom-tom in this ears, and the greatest religious and realitical movements have equally owed. political movements have equally owed. their impulse to strains of music.

Time was when music, no matter Don't leave a loaded gun around the the last ten years have changed all heard at its best only by the rich, but this. The tremendous advance in the Don't-whether it is loaded or not manufacture of all kinds of musical lay hold of a gun by the muzzle and instruments, both of the old kind to be up his mind to make his proposal that pull it toward you, from a canoe or a played by hand and of those that rentile, and he had but little doubt as to wagon. produce the work of great artists, has Don't climb over a fence with a put the highest type of music into every home.

People are learning better every day the great truth that music is not a luxury but a necessity.

Here in Canada where we have composite of classes, races and traditions, to be welded into a nation and into an army, we have only one language that all can understand, one Measure thy life by loss instead of means of expression that is common to all. Music to create and foster national spirit and consciousness music to stimulate recraiting, music to brace and inspire those who march to war and rush to battle, and finally. music to sustain those who have to remain behind and wait-our need is

> Let u do nothing to discourage the one most powerful influence in the

A good article is worthy of a good package. A rich, strong, delicious tea like Red Rose is worth putting into a scaled package to keep it fresh and good.

A cheap, common tea is hardly worth taking care of and is usually sold in bulk.

Red Rose is always sold in the sealed package which keeps it good.

SIGNAL FOR DAY OR NIGHT. as in a dead calm.

For Semaphore Signaling.

Flags are not very satisfactory for York Field Artillery. It is a rigid whites and one red, and, by waving his ity have not been wamped by the semaphore, fitted with an illuminatof the hand. Cover and let rise again course, flags would be invisible.

· Take a wire ring fifteen inches in one inch apart upon the upturned bottom of a baking pan. Use a little diameter and stretch within its cir-sifted flour to cover the top of the cumference a circular piece of white scones. Bake in a moderate oven bunting with a red centre. Provide for fifteen minutes.

Do not grease the upturned surface sisting of a brass rod and wooden sisting of a brass rod and wooden grip. Furnish yourself with two of these, and they will give you a sema-let me introduce you to the Walker House (The House of Plenty), wherein home comfort is made the. paramount factor. It is the one hotel where the management lend every effort to make its patrons

The Llouse of Plenty TORONTO, CANADA

Don't Be Fooled

into buying Imitations

Only Genuine Victorlas and Victor Records bear the Trade Mark known the World over

"His Master's Voice"

b Look for it when buying and be sure you get the genuine article—the real thing costs no more Berliner Gram-o-phone Co.

E ou Lenoir Street

Worth Protecting

phore as serviceable in a high wind age desired.

Improvement on the Flags Now Used

Flags are not very satisfactory for disk. The lumps are energized by a But increase to no possible visibility" (for obvious reasons)

Are Not Already Acquainted

If You.

feel it is "Just like home."

THE WALKER HOUSE

")(is Mastera Voice"

IN FUTURE TRADE

THE WORLD'S AIR ROUTES AND THEIR REGULATION.

Suggested Commercial Roates National Rights to be Obse in Aerial Navigation.

We ist Beisain, whose interest by long to a centred on the all-inger profession t nerial navigation for wrhaps, given much the "therpree of such pe is in a dead calm.

So much for daytime signaling. For as they have the sight of night use, there is an electric lamp winger investors has portended adjustable in such a way as, to pro- and disaster to many who trude through the centre of each red within these isles.

small battery-box hung from the that the mormous development operator's neck.

These two lamps (affixed for night on after the cessation of hossilist to make a stiff dough, about three and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and the color, is fixed in a socket on the front of the present a color, is fixed in a socket on the front of the present and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and the color, is fixed in a socket on the front of the present and under such circumstances a flag use by screwing them into place) are and into place in a socket on the front of the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. Now break off pieces weight.

An important improvement has been invented by Sergeant H. A. Pierce, lay the molded balls on the cloth and formerly of Battery A, First New allow them to rise for night on after the cessation of hostility white. A third lamp, that gives a red in a socket on the front of the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world will be added to the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world will be added to the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world will be added to the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world will be added to the present and and knead well for the cessation of hostility white. A third lamp, that gives a red in the color, is fixed in a socket on the front of the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world will be added to the present and and knead well for the cessation of hostility white. A third lamp, that gives a red in the color is fixed in a socket on the front of the present and and knead well for twenty minutes. The world was a subject to the present and the places of the present and the pres between his feet. He has thus two sound common sense and practice . The Right to the Skt.

The speciace of this work to A lot of bulbs in pots will cheer up certain experesting allusions in n and brighter up the home the com phetic worlds, those!

1899, and which decided that warrian sould reveal the abases which the a ridare could be put

Send Them To PARKER

Anything in the nature of the 2nd, 1911 which provide for the cleaning and dyeing of fabrics tection of the public against dar, can be entrusted to Parker's drising from the mavigation Dye Works with the full assur- craft. The diest two sections Dye Works with the full assur-ance of prompt, efficient, and prohibit the maximation of an economidal service.

Make a parcel of goods you wish renoof goods you wish reno-penalties to offeness. The heavy of the penalties to offeness the highest highest areas metaled nelway of structions to each piece, post, or express. We forts, of . This, law, however, pay carriage one way. sooms : 1 Or, if you prefer, send thating, for the booklet first. Be sure to address your parcel clearly to receiv- taga.g.

PARKER'S DYE WORKS served

dir rich

Merial Police Craft.

WALLT

the Markda

STANDAR

published on Thursday

SUBSCRIPTION: Canada, $1.50 & year,

Sale 62.00. Twenty discontinued until all ;

elect at the option

Ali Display Adver

for each insertio

Year Contract

ditional!

fer. So per annum

Readust Notices

Strayed, Lost, Four tot occeeding 1 meh tertiah and 25c. for Intertion .. Transient Advts .. e

tices, By-laws, etc.,

the first insertion and

Memorial poetry, 10 Advis without specially be inserted till to

All Advertisements

Information coveristingts will be say, blied

Maridale Standard.

All cerrespondence

application.

dlaccordingly.

when not paid in advan

C. W. RUTLIDGE.

ADVERTISING RATES.

11 :

R J. S. SH Veter harv iduite of their College, ! Faculty Science University mirlo Civil Ser.

Office in Artley 13

Parrinter Selieis

ides -Lucas B Lucas, K. W D Henr

at southwest cor L. O CAMPBY Bental Eurgeon tario College of Dentisty

please call up residence by in reception room of AUCTIONE of Grey. All sale rangements for sales ma Standard Office Markdale.

DR. DeVAN'S FRENCH P

HOSPHONOL FOR ME