GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't hurt tender little stomach, Liver and Bowels.
Look at the tongue, mother! It coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning at once. When nervous, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Secretary, Mable Swift; Organist, Mrs. Blackburn; Assistant, Maudy Stewart; Auditors, Geo. Cairns and Geo. Stewart.
At the last meeting of Spring Hill Red Cross Society, the annual election took place as follows: President, W. J. Caswell; V. P., Ward Harrison; Sec. Treas., Beatrice Thistlewaite; Managing Committee, Frank Chard, Roy Thistlewaite; Jas. Harrison, Irene Sharp, Mable Irwin, Ida Breen; Purchasing committee, Mrs. Geo. Best, Mrs. Chas. Best, Miss Mable Irwin. It was decided that Christmas boxes be sent to the boys of the section, to the front.
Mrs. Joseph Clinton, one of the most faithful members of the W.M.S. in the Methodist Church here, was given a pleasant and genuine surprise on Wednesday evening of last week, when at a gathering of twenty-seven ladies at the parlour she was presented with a Life Membership Certificate from the Auxiliary. Mrs. Thurston made the presentation, which was fittingly replied to by high appreciation of the unexpected honor. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening spent.
About twenty of Master George Mitchell's friends were entertained at an enjoyable birthday party at his home on Halloween. It was allotted to each one to take some part on the evening's program, which was very entertaining. A jolly time was spent.

A union meeting, very well attended, was held in the Baptist Church on Thursday evening last to commemorate the 400th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Quinn, assisted by Rev. Mr. Dinick, and good addresses on the life and work of the great reformer, Martin Luther, were given by Rev.'s Beltry and McVicar.
On Halloween the boys were out and spent some of their energy at their usual pranks around town. A barricade of vehicles on the village square, was their chief, but quite effective.
The ladies of the Khaki League had a busy time at their room on Friday, when our forty Christmas boxes were packed and prepared for mailing to the boys at the front from here.
Mr. John Adams, near the village, has a Hereford cow, which gave birth to triplet calves on Saturday, all of which are reported doing well.
A fine granite monument was erected in the cemetery last week to the memory of the late Dr. and Mrs. Carter.
Mrs. John Wright met with a nasty accident last week when by a fall on the slippery sidewalk, she sprained the wrist of one hand and the other hand was pierced through by one of the knitting needles she was carrying in her knitting.

Mr. Richard Bentham has ornamented his home with a new Mason & Risch piano delivered on Saturday.
Mrs. Jas. Jamieson received a cable message last week from London, England, advising her that her daughter, Nurse Jamieson, was seriously ill with enteric fever in a hospital in Malta, where she has been a nursing sister for more than a year.
Word has been received that Pte. Fred Smith, of Eugenia, a prisoner in Germany, is being transferred with others to Switzerland.
Mr. Harold Karstedt had a mishap with his auto on Monday morning, when soon after leaving home on his way to Priceville, his car suddenly turned turtle. He and others with him escaped with but slight injury, and only little damage was done to the car which had to be towed home.
Rev.'s Quinn and McVicar exchanged pulpits on Sunday, the former conducting anniversary services at Eugenia morning and evening and preaching here in the afternoon.
Mr. M. K. Richardson has been gradually sinking for some days and is at the time of writing. (Monday evening) in a comatose state and very low. His son, Dr. E. K. Richardson, of Toronto, visited him on Friday, and his daughters, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Webster and Miss Richardson, are at his bedside. Since the above was written, this much respected resident has passed peacefully away.

By a slip of the pen, we gave Mr. A. McDonnell in place of Mr. J. A. Cairns, of Mactier, visiting his wife and babe recently.
Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Rob Roy, visited the latter's brother, Mr. Joseph Clinton, on Friday last.
Miss Hulse visited her home at Orangeville on Saturday.
Mr. A. Harpell, of Toronto, visited at Mr. John Bellamy's part of last week.
Mr. D. Oswald, of Everett, Wash., who had charge of the Richardson hardware here twenty years ago is on a short holiday here this week.
Sunday was Communion Day in the Methodist Church and a good attendance of members partook of the sacrament.
Mr. Chas. Thistlewaite and mother visited in Toronto last week.
Mrs. Joseph LeGard returned to Toronto last week after spending a few months with her son here and daughter at Heathcote.
Rev. W. McDonald, formerly in the Baptist Church here, has accepted a call to a charge near Hamilton. He was here some days ago moving his household goods.

"CASCARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.
Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental pain, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascarets to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.
