THE VETERAN.

This is the name of a new monthly publication issued in an attractive magazine form by the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada, as an official organ. "The Veteran" is bright, ably written, spacy, and has a good advertising patronage to begin with. The subscription price is $1 a year, and Ottawa is its headquarters.

Women Like to Read—

The Toronto Daily Star

The reason is clear. It contains more real features of direct interest to women than does any other daily paper in the country.

There is a style dialy which illustrates and describes gowns worn at smart functions. The fashion notes are written by experts.

It gives full particulars of all Woman's Club activities. Its Social Service is right up to date.

It has a complete short story every day, and such other features as Bed-Time Stories for the Kiddies, Dot Puzzles, and good cartoons, and the latest news of bargains in the stores.

In fact, it covers every phase of the world's news that particularly interests women.

In addition to this, The Toronto "Daily Star" gives the most comprehensive war and general news service obtainable through any paper in Canada.

Subscribe for it, and after you have been reading it for a week we venture to say that you wouldn't be without it at any price.

Subscribe for it To-day

The price is $3.00 a year in advance. You may send this to the publisher of your local paper, to your postmaster, or direct to THE TORONTO DAILY STAR.

THE MARKDALE STANDARD

SOLDIERS' LETTERS.

December 9, 1917.
102 Battalion Can., B. E. F., France.

Dear Editor,
Hoping you will have space in your paper for a few lines from the trenches, this being my first offence, I trust you will excuse me. Well this being Sunday and we're out on rest. I thought I would grasp the opportunity of sending a few lines to let you know the chaps from Markdale and vicinity have not forgotten the people around home.

There are not very many of the 248 boys in this battalion, but I can safely say in behalf of the boys, that we are all quite proud of our battalion. Best known as The Indian Chiefs, or Warden's Warriors. Our badges have the head of an Indian on them; and Warden is our Colonel's name. But the Hinnies call us the thirteenth blood hounds. We have a fine staff of officers, which the men hold in the highest respect.

Now a word for the I. O. D. E., for which we one and all thank very much for their highly appreciated boxes, which we all received. Many thanks, and wish them long success in their good work. Now I will close, wishing the Standard long life and prosperity. May all be blessed with a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. You will find enclosed a few lines made up in the trenches. Thank you I am ever the same old J. B. L. No. 1066201.

From the Trenches.
I suppose we are a lot of heathens. Don't live on the angel plan.

But we're sticking it here in the trenches.

And doing the best we can.

While good lots over in Canada. Who rave about Kingdom come. Aint pleased with our ability. And are waiting to stop our rum.

Water they say would be better. Water. Great Scott, out here.

We're up to our knees in water.

Do they think we are standing in beer.

Oh, it sounds alright from a pulpit.

When you sit in a cushioned pav.

But stay four days in the trenches.

And see what water will do.

They haven't the heart to say thank you.

For fighting in their behalf?

Perhaps they object to our smoking.

Perhaps it's me to laugh.

Some of those coffee-faced objectors.

I think most German breed.

It's the they call in a Doctor.

For it's water they have in the head.

No. 1036201.

Somewhere in France, Friday Nov. 30. No. 1. O. D. E.

Dear Friends.—A few lines and will take this opportunity of thanking you for your kindness of box, which I received quite in good shape and not much to be worse for the rough usage they receive on such a journey, although the box itself looked like Fritz! would, after a half-hour's shelling by the Canadian Artillery, and that is pretty near all in.

Please to say that all the Boys are real well, and the big percentage of the 248 boys are with the 4th C. M. R.'s. We are having very mild weather, and at present we are in billets. All are in good cheer especially when we have our undershirt, off hunting for—certainly sometimes we find them two deep, sometimes four, and some of the boys even say they have annihilated whole battalions. As the Boys say that Coffee was jake, although made under difficult conditions. I got an old Syrup can, placed two lighted tall w candles in it, then set my mess tin half full of water on top, and after continually raising those candles to get the full benefit of all the blaze. I finally got that water boiling, then went in a liberal supply of that Coffee Essence. After hunting ten minutes for my spoon to give it a stir, that coffee was ready, and the boys say it was so good that I find as a consequence, I shall often have the pleasing experience of making coffee with tallow candles as fuel to boil the water. And if it is only those who have had a lengthy diet of Hard Tack and Bull-pucky and Hard Tack that can appreciate the welcome change for a short time of Potted Veal, Potted Beef and Ham and nice Peanut Butter, it is a welcome change after Margarine. And our tired feet will feel none the worse after a Route March, to a change into those nice socks. Well friends, I must close, wishing all the members of the Markdale Branch I.O.D.E. a merry Xmas. and a happy and prosperous New Year, your truly, Pte. 218.
