The "Twelfth" at Flesherton A Big Crowd and Very Successful Celebration.

The Orangemen of Artmesi trict containing seven lodges situated at Markdale, Orange Valley, Ceylon, Proton Station. Vandeleur. Eugenia and the Fouth Line celebrated the Battle of the Boyne very successfully here on Friday last,—the glorious 12th. The dust having been well laid by the rain of the previous day. and the weather proving ideal for the event. The village, which was in holiday attire with flags and busting. arches and evergreen decorations. was througed with a big crowd of Orangemen and their friends who entered heartily into the spirit of the celebration which passed over in the most orderly and satisfactory man-The lodges as they arrived. with banners aloft and music filling the air. deposited their colors in the town hall and dispersed for dinner, Ample accommodation we believe was provided for all. Visitors in autos galore continued to pour in until after, 2 o'clock when the procession formed, and under Marshall W. Gibson, on his King William Charger, marched through the principal streets to the grove in the suburbs where seating accomodation was made and speaking took place. Miss Shirley Murray at the head of the procession on her white steed was the cynosure of all eyes and the Markdale Lodge drummer in plumed hat and Black Knight uniform was a striking figure. Reeve McTavish of this place presided at the speaking and extended a hearty welcome to all after which excellent addresses were given by Mr. R. J. Woods, of Corbetton, Warden J. A. Boyd., of Markdale, and Revs. Belfry and Quinn of this place. Reforming, there was a march back to the village square where the music competition took place, and $5.00 prizes were awarded as follows: Lodge coming longest distance, No. 1383, Vande-leur; Largest Lodge in the process sion, No. 244, Proton Station. Best marching, No. 883, Ceylon; Best fifer and drummer, W.L. Wright and Fred Mathewson with No. 509, Orange Valley; Best fifer, W. L. Wright, who has been a prize winner for several years. Dr. Murry and R. G. Holland were the judges. Rousing cheers were given for King, etc., and the lodges dispersed to witness a baseball match on the Agricultural grounds between Eugenia and Flesherton teams in which the latter won by 14 to 8. There was a big crowd on the grounds, the gate receipts amounting to $118.00. At 8 o'clock an entertainment under the auspices of the Red Cross was given in the High School, the auditorium of which was packed and many turned away unable to find even standing room. The programme was supplied by the Markdale Dramatic Society, which put on well-rendered play entitled "The Fruit of his Folly." Eleven charac-ters were well reresented but some parts were especially well taken. Solos were given by Miss Burritt and Miss Jean Baird; duets by Misses Blanche and Muriel Walker, and dancing by Miss Jean Walker, in Highland costume all of which were very pleasing. Mr. D. MacTavish presided. Proceeds $150.10, and $12.10 were also taken in at the Red Cross fish pond in the Klaki League

Besides the particular factory which he operated under his own name there are in the neighborhood of half a dozen large industries in Stra ford alone, besides others in different parts of the Province, which owe their existence directly to his efforts. Neither in his business nor in his private life old the late Mr. McLigan live unto himself. His aim in life was to help others. Young men who ente ed his employ were encouraged to develop. And as they developed, he alvanced them. Several of those who promise along the lines of executive ability was most marked he started in business for themselves in industries related to the furniture trade. That was his method of establishing new industries.

But his interest in young men was no means confined to their materiwelfare. Their physical, mental, and moral we fare had even a lerger place in his heart and mind. And through his church and the local Y. M. C. A. he worked unceasingly for the realization of his ideals in these
